SPORTING NEWS SPECIALLY REPORTED FOR THE EVENING WORLD.

JACK MUNROE HITS BACK AT CHAMPION JIM JEFFRIES.

Butte Miner Says He Is Ready to Meet the Big Fellow as Soon as a Purse Is Offered for a Fight.

Champion Jim Jeffries is in anything but a happy frame of mind to-day. He is riled by the statement of Jack Munroe, the Butte miner, that he (Jeffries) is afraid to meet him in a limited round bout. When Jeffries read Munroe's statement he said:

"So this fellow Munroe says I am afraid to fight him, does he? He knows he lies when he says that. He wired to Billy Delaney, my manager, when I was in Los Angeles, Cal., asking for a match with me, and I gladly agreed to give him the chance, naming Oct. 16 as the date for the fight.

"I then went so far as to consent to split the money with him on the basis of 60 per cent. to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser, so that Munroe could make considerable money even if he lost. After waiting in Los Angeles for him to come out and fight, by which time I lost fully $2,000 in theatrical engagements, I gave up all hope of meeting him and came east. Now he says I am afraid to fight him. If I do change my mind and consent to fight Munroe, there is only one condition on which I will make the match, and that is, winner to take all. Munroe has hurt my feelings when he accuses me of being afraid to fight him."

To the Sporting Editor:

"Jim Jeffries's ravings in regard to my fighting him are laughable. It may sound very nice to Jeffries for him to say that he won't fight me because I am not a worthy opponent, and that he can beat me in a punch. No doubt this sort of argument pleases Jeff mightily, but it is not exactly plausible to suppose that the public will so readily swallow his version of the matter. He states that I am a fighter in my mind only, and that I sent the stories out myself about my bout with him in Butte. That's funny! I wonder where all the Butte newspaper men were that night. Butte has some pretty good newspapers, and some pretty smart fellows working on them. I suppose they were all stuffed that night, and turned into dummies simply for my benefit.

"As regards his offer to meet me in Los Angeles, I stated at the time why I would not fight him there. There was no money to be made there. He talks of a $15,000 house. Why doesn't he stop kidding. They wouldn't give $15,000 in Los Angeles to see an earthquake.

"As to his not fighting me, he will have to fight me before I get through. When I show the public that my decision over Jeffries, which, by the way, all his talk won't wash out, was not the fluke that he, of course, tries to make every one believe, the public will force him to meet me. So I am not worried on that score. He will have to fight or crawl out of a match!

"He states that I crawled out of a meeting with him. Let him get an offer of a suitable purse and he will see who will be the first to sign the articles.

"If you will please use this I will be obliged. Very sincerely yours,

"JACK MUNROE."

JACK MUNROE TO PLAY TACKLE

Despite Jim Jeffries's announcement that he will not fight Jack Munroe, the latter is sure he will eventually get on a match, and is going ahead with his light training. Part of it consists of playing football, and he will be on the line of the Olympic A. C. when it lines up against the Fort Columbus team of ... on Harlem Oval, One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street and Madison avenue, to-morrow. Munroe played on the team last Sunday and showed that he is a star at the game. He will again play at right tackle.

GIANTS NOW PLAY INDOORS

The Giants, under the management of Nat Strong, of the Murray Hills, will try their hands at indoor baseball to-night. Opposed to them will be the champions of the United States, the Twenty-second Regiment team, and the game will be played in the latter's armory, at Sixty-seventh street and Broadway. Christy Mathewson will be in the box and for the first time will essay to twirl the big horsehide. The soldiers' team is made up of stars, and a hard game will surely be seen. After the game a dance will be given.

BOTHNER AND PARDELLO.

Leo Pardello and George Bothner, the light-weight champion at catch-as-catch-can style, will meet to-night at the London Theatre. All holds are to count. Two preliminary contests between local heavy-weight wrestlers will precede the main event. John Penning failed to throw Pardello within a time limit of ten minutes last night. August Faust and Emil Salva wrestled fifteen minutes to a draw.

COLUMBIA'S RELAY TEAM.

It is the present intention of the Columbia University track team to run the same men at their monster college relay meet at the Garden on Jan. 30, 1904, who were victorious over University of Pennsylvania and Cornell at the last meet, held in the Garden in March. There may be one change, the reason being that they have a new miler who is faster than any other of the present quartet, but they will probably reserve him for the mile relay. Entries have already been sent in from many of the schools, and the outlook for a most successful meet is very bright.

POUGHKEEPSIES TO PLAY.

The Hoboken and Poughkeepsie ball teams will play a return game at the St. George Cricket Grounds, in Hoboken, to-morrow. The game should be exciting, as both nines always play a fast game when they meet. Lindeman will do the twirling for the Hobokens, while a National League pitcher will do likewise for the Poughkeepsies.

PARKER THREW O'DAY.

Harvey Parker, the "Little Demon," threw William O'Day, of the Hell Gate A. C., at Miner's Bowery Theatre in eight minutes last night. Parker meets Dave McCabe, of the Alliance A. C., to-night.

MURRAYS HILLS' LAST GAME

The Murray Hills will play their last baseball game of the season on the Catholic Protectory grounds in Westchester to-morrow. They will line up against the Spalding Emeralds and Willie Deegan will pitch for the Murrays.

PINSKY DEFIES ALL WRESTLERS

Harry Pinsky, the 125 pound champion wrestler, has issued a challenge to meet any man in America catch-as-catch-can style for $500 a side. Pinsky would like to arrange a condition match with either Harvey Parker, George Bothner or Max Luttberg.

COLUMBIA'S WARRIORS IN LIVELY SCRIMMAGE GETTING READY FOR TO-DAY'S HARD TUSSLE

COLUMBIA BEATS QUAKER ELEVEN.

There Capt. Smith, of Columbia, fell on it. Columbia then did some line-smashing and in two smashes went one Pennsylvania's line for the first touchdown Capt. Smith made the touchdown. Bruce kicked the goal. Score: COLUMBIA, 6; PENNSYLVANIA, 0.

Jones's Good Luck.

Smith for Penn kicked to Columbia's five-yard line. Jones caught the kick and carried the ball to Columbia's fifty-yard line, a great run of forty yards. He hurdled Penn's players neatly and set Columbia cheering wild. The ball was kicked then and went to Penn in the middle of the field. Four line smashes metred Penn 10 yards. The Quakers' work in this line was good and soon the ball was on Columbia's forty-yard line. A fumble lost ten yards for Penn.

Penna was fumbling badly, and on the next play the ball went wide again, but Penna benefited by it. Metzer fell on the ball, but Columbia was given it. A kick by Bruce sent it to the middle of the field. Drake got it and Smith then kicked out of bounds.

Near Columbia's Goal.

Columbia got the ball, and Bruce kicked it to Corsch in midfield. He fumbled, but a Penna man held the ball and Smith kicked to Columbia's five-yard line.

Bruce returned the kick to Columbia's twenty-five-yard line, and there Smith, of Pennsylvania, made a catch and Pennsylvania tried for a goal from field. He failed, and Columbia got the ball free on her twenty-five-yard line.

Bruce punted to midfield, where Drake caught and carried it back ten yards to Columbia's forty-five-yard line. Line bucking by Pennsylvania was a failure, and Smith kicked over the line. Again was the ball Columbia's on her twenty-five-yard line. From there Bruce kicked to Pennsylvania's forty-five-yard line and Smith caught it and carried it to Columbia's fifty-yard line.

Jones Makes a Fumble.

Smith punted and Drake fell on the ball after Jones fumbled it. It was Pennsylvania's ball on Columbia's ten-yard line.

Quakers' Score.

Three bucks at Columbia's line put the ball on Columbia's two-yard line and another plunge resulted in a touchdown for Penna.

Smith made the touchdown. Smith kicked goal. Score: COLUMBIA, 6; PENNA, 6.

Bruce Kicks Off.

Bruce kicked off to Penn's twenty-yard line, where Kase caught it. He was downed in his tracks. A Columbia player was offside and the ball was kicked over again and Columbia lost five yards. The ball was kicked to Penn's ten-yard line, where Kase got it again and carried it back to Penn's thirty-yard line.

Penn line gave way to Columbia on three smashes at it and the ball landed on Penn's 22-yard line. Duell, who carried the ball, was laid out and took the count, but resumed playing. From there Jones got the ball and tried for a goal from the field. He failed; the ball was Penns on Coloumbia's 25-yard line.

Smith Kicked Off.

Smith kicked off from there to Columbia's 5-yard line and Duell carried it to midfield.

The ball went to Pennsylvania after Jones kicked out of bounds. Pennsylvania kicked from their 25-yard line to Columbia's 50-yard line and Jones carried it back 5 yards to midfield.

A plunge through the right end netted Columbia 8 yards.

D. Jones punted to Penn's twenty-five-yard line and Smith took the pigskin back ten yards before being downed. Weed went by Duell for one yard and the ball was on Penn's forty-five yard line. It was taken to midfield then by Weed through Stangland.

Good Run for Bishop.

Penn then kicked to Columbia's twenty-yard line, where Duell fell on it. Bishop caught it and made a brilliant thirty-five yard run and took the ball to midfield. The play was not allowed because Bishop caught the ball over the twenty-five-yard line. Columbia lost twenty yards by the play, the ball going to her five-yard line.

Bishop punted to Columbia's 25-yard line and a Columbia man got the ball, and a kick sent the ball to midfield Penna kicked back to Columbia's 25-yard line. It was fumbled by Duell and Penn got the ball.

Time was called for the first half, with the ball in Penn's possession on Columbia's 20-yard line.

Score—First Half—Columbia, 6; Penna., 6.

SECOND HALF.

Bruce kicked off for Columbia to Penna's 25-yard line. There Metzgar got it and he was downed in his tracks. Smith kicked out of bound and Columbia got the ball on Penna's 40-yard line.

Columbia failed to rip through Penna's line and Bishop kicked to Smith. He was downed on the 20-yard line, but Columbia was penalized ten yards for interference. Penna got a free kick from her 30-yard line and the ball sailed to Duell, on Columbia's 25-yard line. Duell brought it back fifteen yards.

Duell Plays Fast.

Bishop punted and the ball was Pennas on Columbia's 40-yard line. After gaining five yards through Columbia's line Penna kicked, and Mezentien got it and carried it to Columbia's 35-yard line. Duell went through centre on a double pass for 15 yards, and the ball was on Columbia's 45-yard line.

Bishop by a great sprint ran around Pennsylvania's end for twenty-five yards. Columbia tore a hole in Pennsylvania's line for five more, and the ball was on Pennsylvania's forty-yard line.

McCabe Goes Out.

Taylor took McCabe's place at centre for Penn. Columbia was working hard and tore through Penn for five yards. Smith, for Penn, got the ball on a fake kick and carried it to Columbia's fifty-yard line, a run of twenty-five yards.

Penn then kicked to Columbia's 15-yard line, where Smith got the ball. Bishop returned the kick to midfield. Fisher missed it and Mezentien got it and ran fifty-five yards for Columbia's second touchdown. The crowd was wild. Capt. Metzgar, of Penn, disputed the play that it didn't go. Jones kicked the goal. SCORE—COLUMBIA, 12; PENN, 6.

Smith kicked for Penna to Columbia's 15-yard line. Jones caught the ball and by brilliant running and dodging of Penna players ran thirty-five yards and put the ball on his team's 50-yard line.

Columbia's line plunging was good now and in two downs gained 8 yards, putting the ball in Pennsylvania's territory. Jones punted to Pennsylvania's 15-yard line, and Capt. Smith ran it back forty yards to midfield before being downed.

Quakers Lose Ground.

Penna could not gain through Columbia and then tried a fake kick, but lost eight yards through the play. Penna did kick then and the ball went to Columbia on her 50-yard line.

Pennsylvania was awarded the ball for holding. A smash through centre and a run around the end put the ball on Columbia's 35-yard line. Columbia got the ball on a fumble, and Mezentein ran it back to Pennsylvania's 50-yard line, a run of twenty-five yards.

After gaining 8 yards through the line, Mezentein again got the ball and ran 15 yards around right-end, putting the ball on Pennas, 25-yard line. Columbia was awarded 5 yards for interference by Taylor, of Penna.

A dive through centre gave Columbia eight wards more, and Penna's goal line was only twelve yards away. Duell was injured and went out of the game. J. Thorpe took his place at left halfback.

Jones Hurt.

Jones was hurt and limped off the field. Donovan took his place at quarter. A series of line bunges put Columbia on Pennas 5-yard line. Penna was working hard to hold the New Yorkers, and she succeeded. The ball was to Penna, on downs and the Quakers tried a wing around left-end. A kick put the ball on Pennas, 38-yard line, where Columbia got it.

Columbia Scores Again.

Mezentien was passed the ball once and ran the distance for Columbia's third touchdown. He dodged everybody in his way and carried the cheers of the crowd. Bruce kicked the goal.

Score: Columbia, 18; Pennsylvania, 6.

Bruce kicked to Drake on Penna's 20-yard line and Penn carried it back twenty yards. A kick put the ball in Columbia's hands on her 40-yard line. Smith returned the kick and the ball was Penn's on her 50-yard line. Another kick by Penn put the ball in Columbia's hands on her 5-yard line.

Columbia Gets Ball.

Bishop then punted to Columbia's 35-yard line and it was Pennsylvania's ball. A kick gave Columbia the ball on her 25-yard line. Columbia lost 5 yard, by Donovan's fumble. Columbia got a free kick from her 25-yard line and the ball sailed to the 50-yard line. It was brought back 15 yards by Smith.

Pennsylvania got the ball the same way and Smith kicked to Columbia's 25-yard line. Pennsylvania got the ball then on a poor kick by Bishop and gained 8 yards on a double pass around right end.

The game ended with the ball in Penn's possession on Columbia's 10-yard line.

Final score—Columbia, 18; Pennsylvania, 6.
