SEN. CLARK TO AID DAUGHTER

Will Give His Fortune to Clear Her Name, but Will Not Allow Her to Pay a Penny in Compromise.

SAYS MRS. VLASTO'S SUIT IS INFAMOUS.

Declares the Charges Must Be Aired in Open Court So the World Can Judge of Their Truthfulness.

"I will give all to clear her name but not one cent for compromise," is the declaration of Senator Clark, the Montana copper king. He was speaking about his daughter, Mrs. Everett M. Culver, who is seeking an absolute divorce from Dr. Everett M. Culver, and who has been made defendant in a $500,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Solon J. Vlasto on a charge of alienating the affections of the latter's husband. He denies emphatically the insinuation that there is collusion between Mrs. Culver and the doctor in the suit for a dissolution of their marriage.

"In many respects," continued the Senator, "Dr. Culver is an eminent man. When he married my daughter he gave promise of a brilliant career. A breach came between him and his wife which it was impossible to heal. My daughter came to me and said that it would be impossible for her to live with the doctor any longer.

"We talked of the notoriety and unpleasantness that would follow an application for divorce. When it was seen that divorce was the only remedy Mrs. Culver filed her suit of complaint with my full knowledge and upon my advice.

"The proof in my daughter's favor is indisputable, and it is only a question of a few days when a decree will be entered in her favor. Under the evidence submitted the referee cannot make any other recommendation.

Says Suit Is Infamous.

"The suit of Mrs. Vlasto against my daughter is infamous. I shall not allow Mrs. Culver to pay five cents to settle it out of court. The charges must be answered in open court, and the world can be the judge if there has ever been one act of impropriety between my daughter and Mr. Vlasto.

"Mr. Vlasto was introduced into my home and to my daughter by Dr. Culver. The doctor said he was an excellent gentleman and a man of unquestioned integrity. Mrs. Culver looked upon him as a cavalier. He was entertaining and interesting. Any talk about her infatuation for him is nonsense. He is old enough to be her grandfather.

"Two years ago, while in Montana, I invited my daughter and her husband to visit me. They went to Anaconda in a private car with a number of friends. Mr. Vlasto was one of the party. After a few weeks there the party went on to San Francisco and returned to New York.

Met Vlasto Abroad.

"Mrs. Culver went to Europe last spring accompanied by her little daughter and the sister of the society editor of one of the New York papers, who acted as companion. They were never separated. My daughter told me that she met Mr. Vlasto twice on the other side. She stands ready and willing to account for every minute of her time. I understand that Mr. Vlasto has been in the habit of visiting Europe annually before he ever met Mrs. Culver or myself.

"A photograph of my daughter and Mr. Vlasto in Oriental costume has been reproduced in many of the papers. As a matter of fact, the pictures were taken at my home during a fancy dress party and in my presence and in the presence of forty or fifty other persons. The pictures were first taken in group and then various ones individually, as the particular dresses that each two wore matched.

"Personally I have been much annoyed at the publication of much that is slanderous and will ask for a court hearing in order to clear my daughter of all this false insinuation. It cannot be settled outside of court. Mrs. Culver will be on hand to testify, as will any one else mentioned in the case. I will give all to clear her name, but not one cent for a compromise."

Dr. Culver when seen at his home at Great Barrington, Mass., by a reporter of The Evening World declined to enter into a discussion of the issues of the case.

"So far as Mrs. Culver is concerned," said he, "I want to say that I have the sincerest respect and tenderest regard for her. But she has been ill-advised. I am willing to be quoted as saying this, but nothing further."

HAD HIGHEST SKILL

AND YET THIS WORKMAN STARVED TO DEATH.

A pathetic story of hardship and misfortune was told yesterday. It seems a man not far from this city was exceedingly skilful in a certain line of work, but he was so unclean in his habits that his hands were always soiled. Whenever he did a fine piece of work he would be likely to spoil it by getting it spotted and greasy. So at last no one would hire him and he grew so poor he finally died from insufficient nourishment.

"Now," said a member of the Riker Co., our well-known pharmacists, "there is a parallel case to that one in the field of medicine. It is cod liver oil, which contains medicinal and curative properties to do such splendid work as a body-building, healing, strength-creating tonic medicine, and yet fails because its greasy, indigestible oil upsets the stomach and hinders these excellent curatives from doing their best work.

"Like the workman, old-fashioned cod liver oil has 'lost its job', and few people nowadays have any use for it or emulsions. Since Vinol is rapidly taking their place. Vinol is delicious and digested with perfect ease, and at the same time contains all the genuine medicinal curatives, taken direct from fresh cods' livers. Vinol will do more than was ever claimed for old-fashioned cod liver oil, yet it is entirely free from oil and agreeable to the weakest stomach. It is guaranteed to give strength to the weak, vitalize the aged and cure stubborn colds and hacking coughs, or money will be paid back." Riker's Drug Store, 6th av. & 23d st.

NOTE—For the convenience of people in other localities the Riker Co. has arranged to have VINOL sold at the drug stores of J. Jungman, 1020 3d av. and 429 Columbus av., also at Kinsman's Drug Stores, cor. 125th st. and 8th av., and 601 8th av.

Fine Furs Far Below Furriers' Prices.

Why can we sell reliable furs at prices so much lower than furriers ask?..... The first thought may be that there must be a difference in quality, but comparison will soon disprove that..... The true reason is that furriers who have expenses running all the year, and but two or three months for sales, are compelled to ask large profits, while we, having no expense connected with selling of furs except at the season when they are in demand, can quote prices that furriers could not consider.

HERE ARE EXAMPLES:—

At 74.98.....Isabella Fox Sets—long stole—cape effects—squirrel lined—8 tails and cord—large flat muff. Equal to any sold by furriers at $100.00.

At 59.98.....Alaska Sable Sets—3 yard Scarf—6 full tails—flat muff—Furriers' value $75.00.

At 49.98.....Sable Fox Sets—flat effect—satin lined—6 full tales—flat muff—compare them with those furriers show at $60.00 and $65.00.

At 24.98.....Chinchilla Scarfs—four large Chinchilla tails—value $35. Muffs to match..... $19.98

At 28.98.... Squirrel Stoles—2 yds. long—squirrel lined—value $40. Muffs to match..... $10.98

At 16.98.... Isabella Fox Scarfs—2½ yds. long—full brush tails and paws—worth $22.00. Muffs to match..... $12.98
