Miss Dolly Dainty—"I love James—but he's too poor for us to get married. I'm not strong enough to do washing."

Anty Drudge—"Get married right away if that's all. You're strong enough to wash the Fels-Naptha way. It's easy on the woman; easy on the clothes."

Easy on the woman; easy on the clothes! That is the Fels-Naptha way of washing.

Fels-Naptha Soap does away with all the hard and disagreeable part of washing. Little rubbing, no steaming suds to bend over, no keeping up fire to boil the clothes, no nauseous odor from cooking soiled garments.

Then, clothes last longer, with no boiling to weaken their fiber and no hard rubbing to wear them thin.

PRINCESS LUISE RESEMBLES MOTHER

Princess Luise.

One of the latest pictures of Princess Victoria Luise of Germany—showing her in a white, lightly flowing robe, her small head slightly bent, before a tall vase of white lilies—resembles a charming picture of her mother, the kaiserin, in her youth. In each the grace of line that always characterized the kaiserin is noticeable.

The English in the princess' makeup betrays itself in her manner and expression. The girlish figure, the frank, innocently natural manner, might well belong to an English girl, and the English nationality might easily be believed from her appearance.
