SHERIFF'S SALES.

SHERIFF'S SALE—WM. H. BRAINARD, plaintiff, vs. D. J. KELLY ET AL., Defendants. No. 39,150—Superior Court, Department 8—Order of sale and decree of lien and sale.
Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of lien and sale, issued out of the Superior Court, Department No. 8, of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1894, in the above-entitled action, wherein WM. H. BRAINARD, the above-named plaintiff, obtained a judgment and decree of foreclosure against D. J. KELLY et al., etc., defendants, on the 28th day of July, A. D. 1894, which said judgment and decree was on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1894, duly recorded in judgment book 20 of said court, at page 489, I am commanded to sell all those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land, situate, lying and being in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, and bounded and described as follows:
First—All that certain piece or parcel of land in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, commencing on the northerly line of Dorland street at a point distant two hundred and one feet and six inches, more or less, westerly from the point of intersection of the western line of Dolores street and the northern line of Dorland street, and running thence westerly along said northern line of Dorland street twenty-five feet, more or less, to the eastern line of subdivision 16; thence at right angles northerly one hundred and seventy-five feet to the south line of subdivision 29; thence easterly twenty-five feet, more or less, and thence southerly at right angles to said northerly line of Dorland street one hundred and seventy-two feet five and one-half inches, to said northerly line of Dorland street and the point of commencement.
Second—All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land lying, being and situate in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, described as follows, to wit: Lot number fourteen in block number eight of the Flint Tract Homestead Association, as laid down and designated on a certain map entitled "Map of the Land of the Flint Tract Homestead Association," filed in the office of the Recorder of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California.
Public notice is hereby given that on TUESDAY, the 19th day of March, A. D. 1895, at 12 o'clock, noon, of that day, in front of the New City Hall, Larkin-street wing, in the City and County of San Francisco, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of lien and sale, sell the above-described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient money to satisfy said judgment, with interests and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder, for lawful money of the United States.
RICHARD I. WHELAN, Sheriff.

BERKELEY REAL ESTATE.

M. L. WURTS, THE BERKELEY LAND AGENT, HAS A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.
PEOPLE WHO BUY REAL ESTATE, PLEASE TAKE NOTICE.
During my business career I have often heard people, especially of small means, say, "I bought a lot some years ago, and now I can't sell it for half the money I paid for it."
Now, will the buyers listen to me, and I will tell them why they cannot get their money back. Some enterprising real estate dealer buys a farm or tract of land miles away from the city, probably costing two fares to reach the town, or else so far away from the station as to require a long walk after a hard day's work. This real estate man gets up a free lunch, takes a band of music to the place and sells lots to his victims at exorbitant prices on easy terms. This is the reason why the victim has a tale of woe to tell about never getting back his money.
Now, please look at my prices and compare them with other property in the same vicinity. That will tell the story to the shrewd man.
COME! THINK AND STUDY! THEN CALL AND SEE ME.

WEATHER BUREAU REPORT.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE. WEATHER BUREAU, SAN FRANCISCO, March 17, 5 P. M.—Cloudy and threatening weather prevails over California and the plateau region, with scattering light rains in the lower Sacramento Valley and along the southern coast. The weather is generally clear in Oregon, Washington and Montana. The barometer is lowest in Western Oregon and highest in the Dakotas. It is about stationary along the California coast and falling slightly in the interior. The temprature is generally below the normal in all districts except Oregon and Washington, where it is slightly above. High northwest winds have occurred to-day in Southeastern California and Arizona; elsewhere they have been light to fresh and variable. Scattering light rains will fall to-night in Northern California and along the Southern California coast, also in Northern Nevada and Utah.

Following are seasonal rainfalls as compared with those of last season on same date: Eureka 32.62, last season 47.16; Red Bluff 24.45, last season 18.61; Sacramento 21.54, last season 13.85; San Francisco 22.10, last season 16.10; Fresno 11.35, last season 6.14; Los Angeles 12.47, last season, 6.40; San Diego 10.65, last season 3.96; Yuma 2.97, last season 2.16.

San Francisco data: Maximum temperature 52 deg.; minimum, 46 deg.; mean, 49 deg.

Forecast made at San Francisco for the thirty hours ending midnight, March 18, 1895:

For Northern California—Scattering light rains to-night, except fair along the extreme northwest coast; generally fair Monday; slightly warmer; fresh generally westerly winds.

For Southern California—Light rains along the coast to-night and early Monday morning, followed by fair, slightly warmer, fresh westerly winds.

For Nevada—Light rain or snow Monday; nearly stationary temperature.

For Utah—Light rain or snow in the northerly portion, commencing Monday afternoon; nearly stationary temperature.

For Arizona—Fair, except light scattering rain in the southern portion to-night; nearly stationary temperature.

For San Francisco and vicinity—Light rain to-night, clearing to-night or early Monday morning; generally fair during Monday; slightly warmer, fresh westerly winds.

G. H. WILLSON, Acting Forecast Official.
