LITTLE MOTHER RUN DOWN BY BICYCLES

Mamie Devine, Although Cut and Bruised, Leaves Hospital to Care for Her Little Brothers and Sisters.

Mamie Devine, aged fourteen, who is known as "Little Mother" because she cares for her father and her mother's brothers and sisters, went from Roosevelt Hospital to her home, No. 374 Fourth avenue, to-day. She had many bruises and cuts about the face and body, and the doctors told her that she had better stay in the hospital for several days, but she urged:

"I was needed at home. These hurts don't hurt much. I must go home. My children will need me."

The child was run down while crossing the street at Thirty-first street and Fourth avenue last night by two wheels. At first it was thought that she was internally injured.

The cyclists were held prisoners at the station. They described themselves as William Harris, of No. 338 Pacific street, and Richard Frobeck, of No. [illegible] Brooklyn. They gave bonds or bails.

Wild Dogs of Central Africa.

(From the Chicago News.)

The wild dog of Central Africa, an explorer writes, is common enough. He is an ugly looking beast, with a piebald body, coarse hair, short head and large upright ears. These wild dogs play fearful havoc with game, occasionally clearing out whole districts precisely in the same manner as the red ants of India, before which even the tiger is said to retreat. They have a wonderful power of scent, wonderful boldness, endurance and pertinacity, and their loose, easy gallop covers the ground far more quickly than it appears to do. They usually hunt in considerable packs, although I have sometimes met them in threes and fours. I have never heard of wild dogs actually attacking man, but they often behave as if on the point of doing so, and unarmed travellers have been literally treed by them before now.

A Cure for Asthma

The worst cases of Asthma in the world succumb readily to the one great cure that never fails. Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann's Asthma Cure almost performs miracles.

Mr. R. M. Spencer, 2380 Vermont avenue, Toledo, O., says: "Asthma has been growing on me for 3 years, until last summer the attacks became so severe that many nights I spent half the time gasping for breath. Doctors seemed to give no relief whatever, and I felt there was no hope for me, when a drug clerk recommended your Asthma Cure. Its effect is truly magical and gives complete relief in from 2 to 5 minutes."

Sold by all druggists at 50c and $1.00. Send 2c stamp to Dr. R. Schiffmann, Box 803, St. Paul, Minn., for a free sample package.

New walking skirts for Autumn wear. Special sale.

JUST an advance shipment contracted for early in the season when the manufacturer was willing to take orders at "barely live and let live prices," and when this lot is sold the prices will be almost a half more than we quote for to-morrow's selling. Second Floor.

These skirts are the very newest effects in fine broadcloth, cheviots, serges and novelty mixtures. There's just about 1,000 of them and you'll pronounce them the season's smartest styles in strictly tailor-made skirts that conform with Fashion's requirements.

350 walking skirts, made of fine broadcloths, cheviots, serges and exclusive patterns of men's new Fall novelty suitings, in all the new approved autumn styles; the price is about half—special at..... $10

300 walking skirts that embrace not only fine broadcloths, cheviots and serges, but every new novelty material that is desirable for a walking skirt, and these choice patterns have been especially selected for our skirt department for this event. While these skirts would ordinarily sell for $12.50, our price for Monday..... $7.75

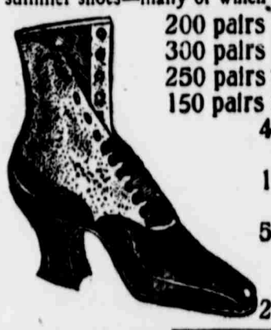
250 walking skirts, made up in black and blue serges and fine novelty suitings that you would ordinarily find in $8 to $10 skirts, and made just as well..... $5

Women's $5 Oxfords and shoes at $1.50.

CLEARING sale of course—nothing like a sensationally low price to sell the season's surplus stock, and that's our main object at this time of year. We've achieved a national reputation for high-class footwear that possesses all the approved style attributes—shoes that give the highest degree of comfort and service-giving worth. All of these shoes go in this sale.

Cannot fill any mail order though—don't anticipate these lots will last very long. 2d Floor.

It's a complete clearing sale of all our $3.50 to $5 oxfords and shoes—including our irregular lines of summer shoes—many of which are suitable for fall wear.



200 pairs of Resilia $5 cushion sole oxford ties, $1.50.
300 pairs S. C. S. $3.50 patent calfskin oxford ties at $1.50.

200 pairs women's white canvas oxford ties, $1.50.

$3.95 for $12.75 pure silk umbrellas.

IT'S a midsummer bargain, and not in a long time has such umbrella value been offered—here or elsewhere, for at these selling prices most dealers buy. Main Floor.

The most beautiful assortment ever gathered together in one lot. The handles are the richest products of the gold and silver smiths' art—every one bears the stamp of refined elegance. In all we have 459 of them—261 are 28 inches, for men, and 198 are 26 inches, for women.

If you have a desire to own one of these beautiful umbrellas, this is your chance. Of course, they are not all worth $12.75, but then there's not one in this lot that is worth less than $5.00.

Handles of inlaid and carved ivories, cape horn, buck horn, gun metal, tortoise shell, rare woods, handsomely trimmed; are made with the strongest shanks and rods, and what wonderful bargains they are!

All covered with pure silk, tape edged (roll very close), and we guarantee every one of them. Men's handles are exceptionally unique and handsome. What a chance to effect a saving Monday at..... $3.95

We're Ready for You to See Some of the Early Fall Suits and Jackets.

Early arrivals presage a remarkable exhibition later on. You can't help but be interested in the new ideas for Fall and Winter.

We shall make quite a showing of Suits to-morrow; enough, in fact, so that if you have immediate needs they can be attended to. No better collection can possibly be seen anywhere at this time, just as later on our style showing will be in a class by itself.

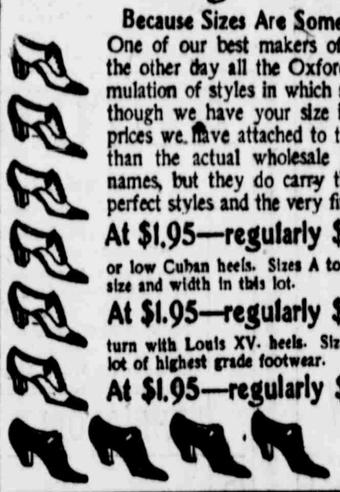
In our enormous purchases of Cloth Jackets we are favored with several lots at less-than-usual prices. These we shall force to the front to-morrow.

Jackets of Covert Cloth, satin lined, at $4.98, $5.98 and $7.98. Value $7.50 to $11.
Coats of English Cheviot in black only; all satin lined; at $4.75, $6.98, $8.98. Real value, $7.50, $10 and $12.50.
Coats of fine Broadcloth in black only; satin or taffeta linings; at $7.50 and $14.50; values are $12 and $19.

If possible, take the time to see these to-morrow; they represent about everything that is correct for Fall. Some of them have exclusive touches of their own that will not be found in any other stock.

Material Savings on Summer Footwear,

Because Sizes Are Somewhat Broken.



One of our best makers of footwear turned over to us the other day all the Oxfords he had on band—an accumulation of styles in which sizes are in no wise complete, though we have your size in some style or other. The prices we have attached to them are from 50c. to $1 less than the actual wholesale cost. They carry no fancy names, but they do carry the best of leathers, the most perfect styles and the very finest of workmanship.

At $1.95—regularly $3.50: Women's Oxfords of finest French kid; high or low Cuban heels. Sizes A to E; widths 2½ to 8. Most every size and width in this lot.

At $1.95—regularly $3.00: Women's finest quality Kid Oxfords; hand turn with Louis XV. heels. Sizes A to E; 2½ to 8. A splendid lot of highest grade footwear.

At $1.95—regularly $4.00: Some in this lot are worth $5. Odds and ends of patent leather Oxfords; styles that are up to the minute. Sizes are badly broken, but we think we can fit you.
