UP TO DATE SPORTING NEWS AND COMMENT EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN.

THERE'LL BE A HOT TIME IF BELDAME AND SYSONBY MEET.

EDGREN'S COLUMN

"I MET Ed. Dunkhorst, 'the Human Freight Car,' a few days ago," said Bob Fitzsimmons yesterday. "You remember Dunkhorst. When I knocked him out he weighed 300 pounds. He was the biggest man I ever fought.

"Tommy Ryan was in his corner. When Dunkhorst came to he saw Tommy leaning over him.

"'What's happened?' he asked.

"'The roof fell in,' answered Ryan.

"'Well, one of the beams must have hit me,' whispered Ed.

"As I was saying, I saw him a few days ago. 'How much do you weigh now?' I asked him.

"'Only 260,' says Ed.

"DO you know what I weigh?" continued Bob.

"Just 157 pounds. I weighed that in Salt Lake last week. I am a stronger and better man than I was when I fought Jim Corbett eight years ago. I have not taken a drink or even smoked a cigar since one month before last Christmas. I did a lot of road work out West, and, for the first time in my life, my feet didn't go back on me. You know the trouble I always used to have. Last time I trained—for Gardner—I got so crippled up I could hardly walk.

"How did I manage it? I wear heavy woollen socks all the time, instead of the thin silk ones I used to wear. It's a great scheme."

FITZ wants to drag Jim Corbett into the squared ring. Says Bob: "I'll fight him with any division of the purse he wants, winner take all, 75—25, 65—35, or divide. He can fix the date and conditions. I'd like to show that I'm just as good now as I was in Carson."

RACEGOERS are anxiously waiting to hear from Sysonby's master, "Sam Peck." Mr. Bennington, who manages for Beldame's interests, says Mr. Belmont, has given it out definitely that Beldame will run Saturday, freeze or sizzle. If only Sysonby is announced as sure Withholder, we can look forward to the race of the year.

"FIGHT FITZ? NONSENSE!" —JAS. J. CORBETT.

In reply to the challenge of "Ruby Robert," "Gentleman Jim," when seen at his home at Bayside, L. I., last night declared that Fitz always was a good press agent.

"It is all nonsense, this bold challenge from Fitz, when he knows full well that I am out of the game for good, and he was aware of that fact when he said 'There is one man that I want to fight, and that is Corbett.'

"Ever since I retired, some three years ago, the grand old man of the prize ring has made it a quarterly custom to challenge me. While I was still fighting I chased him around the country for three years trying to arrange a match at his own terms, but he would not fight.

"It is really funny, this offer of his to meet me at my own terms and I can cut the purse to suit myself. The old gentleman is certainly getting generous in his declining years. What good food for my monologue his challenge will be! He knows full well that I won't accept the match, and I do not begrudge him the notoriety that his challenge will bring."

This ended James J.'s little talk, and some real live tabasco should now come from Bensonhurst when Fitz reads it. A little more talk and then—may be the meeting to sign articles, the squabble over the club that will offer the best inducements, the selection of a referee, and the best match from a financial standpoint that has been offered in several years will be the outcome of the entry of the two famous gladiators to this city from their theatrical tour of the past season.

LOCAL ATHLETIC STARS WILL TOE THE SCRATCH

The complete track teams of the Irish American A. C., the Pastime A. C., the Xavier A. C. and the Mohawk A. C. are entered in competition next Sunday afternoon in Celtic Park. There are already 150 entries for the set of games which are to celebrate the Mayo Men's annual carnival. These competitions will probably be the greatest from a point-scoring stand that have been held in years, because in each event there is either a champion or an athlete of prominence. Some of those entered are among the greatest flyers in athletics, such as Prinstein, Robertson, Hall, Clody, Kelly and Carr.

There was blood in the eye of John Joyce, the famous long-distance racing champion, when he was asked to-day if it were true that he would not run against Thomas Hynes, the "Galway Cyclone," at these games.

"Some knocker is busy with me, I guess," said Joyce. "There is no fear of my breaking my promise to go on the track and to be ready to start when McHugh fires the gun next Sunday.

The report that Joyce would not compete was run down by Michael F. Barrett, the Secretary of the Mayo Men's Association, at whose games the five-mile race between Joyce and Hynes is scheduled to be run. "There's a little black man trying to get these reports in circulation so as to injure our games," said Barrett. "I believe it is inspired by jealousy, on account of the fact that we have such a big athletic drawing card as the Joyce-Hynes race for the fine silver loving cup presented by Commissioner Pallas, but we'll have a record-breaking crowd to witness the race and the six other events scheduled."

AMERICANS WITH ROYALTY AT ASCOT RACES

King Edward, Queen Alexandra and Mrs. Reid See Zinfandel Win Gold Cup.

LONDON, June 22.—"Cup Day" drew a record crowd to Ascot. King Edward and Queen Alexandra again attended in State. The procession from Windsor Castle to the course was the same as on Tuesday.

More than forty special trains took down travellers from Waterloo station. The number of persons going by road was also unprecedented and the turn out of auto cars and carriages was phenomenal. Americans were very numerous, including Ambassador and Mrs. Reid and other members of the Embassy.

The weather was splendid and the scene of unusual brilliancy even for this annual national garden party.

The race for the Gold Cup, value 500 sovereigns, with $2,500 sovereigns in specie in addition, for entire colts and fillies, two miles and a half, was won by Zinfandel. Maximum II. was second and Throwaway third. Five horses started.

SYRACUSE ROWERS HAD FAST TRIAL

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 22.—Fine water conditions prevailed on the river to-day and Syracuse, Cornell and Pennsylvania took advantage of the ebb tide to go over the full course.

It was the first time trial for Syracuse since they arrived here. The 'Varsity eight started on the line at thirty-six strokes to the minute, but they soon dropped to thirty-four and later to thirty-two.

At the two-mile mark the freshmen eight and 'Varsity four were waiting. Coach Ten Eyck following in the launch started the four with a lead of ten lengths and the freshmen with three lengths over the 'Varsity. Starting fresh the freshmen had advantage and increased their lead to four lengths at the bridge (three miles). Then on the last mile the 'Varsity making a series of gallant spurts began to reduce the lead. A quarter of a mile from the finish No. 7 freshmen caught a crab.

The boat was demoralized, but only for an instant. No. 7 quickly recovered and the eight men resumed their clock-like movement of the blades. It was a fine exhibition of discipline, and then, though the retard was considerable, the freshmen crossed the line two lengths to the good.

HARVARD MEETS YALE ON DIAMOND

O'Brien flied out to centre, and Kinney did likewise to Matthews. NO RUNS.

With the Harvard section cheering like demons Coburn fanned out. Kernan also fanned the air. Leonard was thrown out at first by O'Brien. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

With two strikes on him, Coburn allowed Cote to walk. Huiscamp advanced him to second on a beautiful sacrifice, retiring himself, catcher to first. Bowman filed to right, Cote going to third on the play. Randall retired the side by running in hard and smothering Camp's low foul. NO RUNS.

Stephenson walked. Matthews bunted and Kinney slipping fumbled the ball, allowing both Crimson runners to be safe. Randall sacrificed to Bowman, advancing Stephenson to third and Matthews to second. With two strikes and three balls Dexter fanned. McCarthy also drew three balls and two strikes, but fanned on the third. NO RUNS.

Tenth Inning.

It was Yale's turn to cheer and she it with a will. Chapin's strik eout did not dampen her ardor. Neither did Jackson's. When aBrnes followed suit, however, the Eli section began to look blue. NO RUNS.

Bradbury hit a long foul over Kinney's head. The Eli third baseman, however, made a long run and gathered it in. Coburn fanned. Kernan flied to Barnes. NO RUNS.

Eleventh Inning.

O'Brien grounded to Matthews, who slipped allowing the Yale short stop to reach first. Kinney hit a sizzler to Matthews, and the little colored player gathering it in on a the dead gallop, touched out O'Brien at second, and threw Bowman out at first making a double play. Huiscamp then grounded out to Bradbury. NO RUNS.

HOCH REPRIEVED UNTIL JULY 28.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 22.—Gov. Deneen this afternoon granted Johann Hoch a reprieve until July 28 in order that the case may be taken to a Supreme Court Justice for a writ of supercedens.

STOLE CONGRESSMAN'S WATCH, CHAIN AND FOB.

Congressman Henry M. Goldfogle lost a valuable watch, chain and fob to-day at Broadway and Leonard street where they were stolen by a thief.

While going from his office to the Criminal Courts Building Congressman Goldfogle accidentally bumped into a man, later identified as Dennis Driscoll, of No. 324 East Twenty-fourth street, and when he recovered his equanimity discovered his jewelry was missing.

William Knobloch, of No. 39 West Twenty-fourth street, told the Congressman he had seen Driscoll pass the valuables to a confederate, who ran away. In the Centre Street Police Court Driscoll was held pending a hearing.

The watch stolen is valued at $500 and was presented to the Congressman by the Masonic lodges in this city when he was Deputy Grand Master of the Masonic fraternity in this State.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 22.—Robert Le Roy, of Columbia, the intercollegiate champion, defeated Carl Behr, of Yale, the New England champion, on the courts of the New Haven Lawn Club to-day during the first round of the club singles. The score was 6—4, 7—5.

YALE MAY LOSE OARSMAN DALY

He Is Accused of Cribbing in His Examination Papers at the Crews' Quarters at Gale's Ferry.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 22.—A local paper to-day says: An official report has been made to the Yale Faculty by Prof. H. A. Farr that Cornelius Edward Daly, one of the best oarsmen in the 'varsity eight, had been caught cribbing in his examinations in his studies at Yale crew quarters, Gale's Ferry, the past week. Dr. Farr has been asked to appear before the faculty at a meeting which will be held to-morrow and to present his evidence.

The paper also says: It has been learned from official sources that Daly's scholarship record was clean when the marks were last made up in April, and that he has no conditions in his studies. He had no reason, at least no incentive, for cribbing, as far as inability to pass his examinations is concerned. If the charge against Daly is proven he may be removed from the Yale crew and the University.
