NO MORE FREE BATHING THERE

Bensonhurst and Bath Beach Up in Arms Over the Closing to the Public of an Excellent Swimming Place.

Bensonhurst and Bath Beach are in a state of revolt over the closing to the public of the free bathing beach off Bensonhurst Park as the result of outrageous conduct on the part of interlopers. The act of closing the beach, while excused by the Park Department of the grounds of abuse of the privilege by persons in the past, has caused much displeasure among the residents near there. Formerly they were able to don their bathing costumes in their homes and run across the little park to the beach. Now they will be forced to pay 15 cents to the managers of the private beach adjoining for just the privilege of swimming, even if they have their own costumes and dress at home, or 25 cents for a costume and the use of the private beach, which is small and spotted with floating paper, sticks and refuse.

Bensonhurst residents who have been in the habit of donning bath robes or rain coats over their bathing suits and running down to the beach in the morning for a little dip were halted by numerous signs reading:

"No Bathing Allowed On This Beach," and retraced their steps with unkind feelings toward the park officials.

Foreman G. B. Manly, of Bensonhurst Park, said he had placed the signs under orders of Commissioner Kennedy and Supt. Zartman.

"The only reason I know for placing those signs," said Manly, "is the conduct of certain persons in the past few years. The matter was decided when I reported that several boys came down here last week and undressed on the beach, going in without suits. We can't stand that. I sat on their clothes until they promised to come right out and dress in the shelter of a pier. They were nearly grown and should have known better.

"But it isn't only boys who do that; grown men and even women have abused this beach privilege. Yes, women. There used to be a bath right there," said the foreman, indicating a spot near the speedway. "One day a couple of women came here and, while one dug a hole in the sand and hid behind the bush, the other stood in front of her and acted as a screen until the woman disrobed and put on her bathing suit. It was so scandalous I chopped that bush down that night."

The residents of Cropsey avenue and the side streets leading to the park where the persons live who have been dressing at home and going in at the park beach did not think they should suffer for the sins of others.

"Let the police arrest those guilty of doing such things and not make the self-respecting community bear the punishment," said Joseph Jordan, a Wall street man, living on Cropsey avenue. "A few arrests are what is needed. The Park Department owes it to the residents to leave us the beach and to keep it respectable."

One Cropsey avenue bather, who arrived before the park employee to-day, was undaunted by the sign and went into the wet.

"I never bathe on the beach, but in the water," he remarked.

DOES DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION BOTHER YOU?

Do you know what it is to enjoy a good square meal? Even if you feel like it, dare you satisfy your desire?

Digestion is one of the most complex functions of the human body, yet it is, too, the most simple. Digestion is simply the converting of food into a condition in which it can be added to the blood. When your system is overloaded or run down, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which are really a digestive treatment readily set things right. First, the gastric tablets increase secretion of gastric juices and saturate the food and stop fermentation, and then, with the aid of the dyspepsia tablets, digestion goes on naturally—that's the whole secret. Fifteen days' treatment for twenty-five cents may be had of any Rexall Store in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City and Newark.
