The End in Sight.

THE PRESENT IMITATION OF UNIONISM MUST PASS AWAY.

Within a short time this city will be plunged into the greatest labor trouble in the history of this or any other city.

What will be the outcome?

Grant said, "War is h—l." If he were alive to-day he would consider the unionism of San Francisco worse than war.

The majority of leaders of labor unions are so unscrupulous in all their dealings as to be easily recognized as full-fledged anarchists in everything but name. Their sole aim and desire seems to be to pull down and destroy rather than build up and foster. They care nothing for either the safety or convenience of the public or the welfare of those dependent upon the ones under their control.

What do strikes bring men to? They tear the honest, hard working man away from his loving wife and family to do the bidding of these unscrupulous agitators, even to defying the laws, both of God and man; waylay the honest non-union man, taking him by force when honestly employed in his occupation, laying his bared arm upon the sidewalk and jumping upon it until it was broken and trodden to a pulp, using threats and other violence and in some cases even murder; starves the innocent wife and children; destroys man's business and forces him into bankruptcy, practically kills all commercial business and advertises world wide the anarchistic tendencies for which they are noted.

The great majority of labor has time and again proclaimed: "Give them rope enough and they will hang themselves."

"We will wait and see them do it" has been the motto of the non-union man, for, after all, the non-union men are the conservative men of this country, who have always gained the sympathy of the public, and public opinion can never be dethroned.

Whatever may be the catastrophe to either "capital and labor" in the forthcoming strikes and consequent lockouts, we openly declare ourselves before God and man that we will never discriminate.

To the employer so unfortunate as to have these agitators and walking delegates force a strike upon them our office will be ever open, day and night, to supply you with help you need.

To those more unfortunate because, when held in the grasp of these unscrupulous agitators, they were compelled to do their bidding by striking on their employers, we extend an earnest desire to make men of them and by so doing we will place you side by side with non-union men.
