Not Knee-High in Money-Town.

By J. Campbell Cory.

If Scotty has the "dough" and he really wants to "blow," he has struck at last the camp where dingbats talk; He'll find nothing new or funny in a man here spending money, for its always raining coin in old New York.

A Daily Page Of Comic Sketches and Cartoons By Evening World Artists

THE DAILY GATHERING OF NEW YORK'S UNION MUSICIANS AT HEADQUARTERS NINTIETH ST. AND THIRD AVE.