COLUMBIA GAME IS A FREE FIGHT

KILLED WIFE WITH PISTOL IN A DUEL

Hopkins Had Threatened to Shoot Her and Both Went Armed.

SISTER A WITNESS.

Woman Fired First, Wounding Him in Hand—His Bullet Pierced Heart.

After thirty-five years of married life Denton H. Hopkins and his wife Jessie fought a duel with pistols at No. 46 Johnson street, Brooklyn, to-day. The woman was killed. Hopkins was shot in the left hand. He is a prisoner in Brooklyn Hospital.

The shooting was witnessed by Hopkins's sister, Mrs. Jennie Bruyn, of Walden, N. Y. The Hopkinses separated three months ago, after a quarrel about the disposition of the property they held in common, amounting to about $50,000. Mrs. Bruyn had just arrived at the home of Mrs. Hopkins to accompany her on a shopping tour when the husband appeared at the house and the duel began.

Denton H. Hopkins is fifty-three years old, a steel engraver, with a place of business at No. 115 Clifton place, Brooklyn. His wife was fifty years old. They were married in Brooklyn thirty-five years ago. One child was born to them, a son, Henry L., who is now in business at No. 77 Nassau street, Manhattan.

Saved Small Fortune.

Hopkins prospered in his business and bought real estate that increased in value. His wife worked with him to add to their store until they had accumulated three houses and had several thousand dollars out at good interest on mortgages. Apparently the home life of Hopkins and his wife was ideal until a few months ago.

They began to dispute about money. Hopkins, it appears, did not wish to give his wife what she considered to be her share of the property. Three months ago they had their final quarrel. Mrs. Hopkins packed up her belongings and left her husband's home at No. 257 Greene avenue. Her son, who is thirty years of age, sympathized with her and accompanied her from his father's house.

Mrs. Hopkins went to Walden for a visit to Mrs. Bruyn, remaining two weeks. In her absence her son rented a flat at No. 46 Johnson street and furnished it. He gave the landlord a letter signed by Paul Grout, a brother of Comptroller Grout, in which Mrs. Hopkins was highly recommended.

Hopkins Became Morose.

Doubtless the husband and wife communicated with each other, but they were unable to reach an agreement.

POLO GROUNDS, N. Y., Oct. 7.—There was lots of fun in the first game if there was not much baseball, and the Giants were bubbling over with ginger at the start of the second. It was their last performance in the National League for the season, and a band in the stand played "Farewell to the Alps." This band, by the way, kept things merry throughout the afternoon.

At 2 o'clock every grand stand seat for the Tuesday's game with the Athletics has been sold, and Secretary Knowles said he would have to return at least $2,500 in checks. On account of attending a benefit at a local theatre to-morrow night the Giants will not leave for Philadelphia until Monday.

First Inning.

Thomas doubled to left field. Gleason struck out. Courtney singled to left field, Thomas going to third on the hit. Magee landed square for a home run under right field ropes, scoring Thomas and Courtney ahead of him. Strang retired. Titus. Bransfield singled to right. Doolin popped up to Gilbert. THREE RUNS.

Browne was out on a grounded, Gleason to Bransfield. Donlin singled to right field, and on Titus's fumble stole second. Mertes doubled to left field, scoring Donlin. Strang singled to left field and on the return of the ball Mertes was caught at the plate. Strang was out at third on Devlin's grounder to Doolin. ONE RUN.

Second Inning.

Munson doubled to left field. Donlin was under Brady's high fly. Gilbert threw Thomas out. Munson going to third. Gleason singled to left field, scoring Munson. Courtney was the third out on a pop fly to Strang. ONE RUN.

Gilbert singled to centre. Clark and Gilbert were doubled up, Brady to Doolin to Bransfield. Bowerman singled to right. Elliott struck out. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Magee was out, Devlin to Clark. Titus out, Gilbert to Clark. Bransfield out, Gilbert to Clark. NO RUNS.

Browne beat out his bunt. Donlin lifted a high fly and stood waiting for Munson to catch it. The ball dropped to the ground and Munson got it in time to cut off Browne at second and Donlin at first. Mertes was out on grounder, Courtney to Bransfield. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Doolin filed out to Donlin. Doolin was out on a grounder, Devlin to Clark. Brady was taken care of by Devlin and Clark. NO RUNS.

Doolin to Bransfield finished Strang. Devlin singled to left field. Gilbert got his base on balls. Clark sacrificed, Courtney to Bransfield. Bowerman out, Gleason to Bransfield. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Thomas was hit by a pitched ball. Gleason beat out his hit to Clark, Elliott failed to cover first. Courtney sacrificed, Elliott to Clark. Elliott threw Magee out. Titus singled to left field, scoring Thomas and Gleason. Bransfield filed to Mertes. TWO RUNS.

Elliott line filed to Doolin. Browne to Gleason to Bransfield. Donlin filed to Doolin. NO RUNS.

Game called.

BY FRANK W. THORP.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BELMONT PARK RACE-TRACK, New York, Oct. 7.—A very good card was down for decision at Belmont Park to-day, and every race possessed enough class for brisk speculation. As a result a good half-holiday crowd put in its appearance at the course this afternoon to witness the races.

There were three distinctive features on the programme—The Brook Cup Steeplechase, at about three miles, down as the second race and run for the first time; the Nursery Handicap, for two-year-olds, and the Municipal Handicap at a mile and three-quarters. The latter two promised to furnish the keenest sort of a contest.

Much has been said concerning the extraordinary fast time made at this meeting. Some have insinuated that the poles had been moved and the course shortened. This morning W. J. McLaughlin, surveyor for the Long Island Railroad track, said that he had found all measurements to be correct. The weather was ideal for racing purposes and the track was lightning fast.

The Drake-Gates combine dropped a bundle of their winnings on the fourth race. They bet at least $20,000 on Brother Frank, who was a hot favorite. Brother Frank led until the last sixteenth, when he began to stop. He finished third, beaten a head for the place money.

Disobedient All the Way.

Disobedient went to the front at the start, made all the running and won easily by three lengths from Knight Errant, who beat Moonshine a length for the place. Knight Errant was slow to begin and closed strong.

Grandpa Wins by 12 Lengths.

Pagan Bey made the running followed by Grandpa and Dick Roberts at the end of a mile and a half. Grandpa went to the front and stayed there winning by easily by twelve lengths from Pagan Bey, who beat Dick Roberts three lengths for the place. Knight of Elway broke down.

Judges Placed Whimsical Third.

Perverse went to the front soon after the start, and made the running, followed by Clark Griffith, Whimsical and Tiptoe. They held this order to the last furlong, where Perverse drew away and won cleverly by six lengths and a half from Whimsical, who beat Tiptoe a good head. The judges, however, gave Tiptoe the place.

Gates and Drake Lose.

Brother Frank ran out the running, followed by Leonora W., Opitolan and Pantoufle. They held this order to the last sixteenth, where Brother Frank began to stop. Leonora W. then went to the front and won by a length and a half from Pantoufle, who closed strong and beat Brother Frank a head. The Gates-Drake bo at least $20,000 on Brother Frank, who was a red hot favorite.

Cairngorm Unfit to Race.

Cairngorm, who opened at 7 to 5 in this race, went sailing backwards 4 to 5. He was unfit to race, and had no speed at any stage of it. He pulled up badly beaten. Bedouin made the running to the stretch, with the others close up. In the run home St. Bellane gradually moved up and, closing strong, got up in time to win by a head from Right Royal, who beat Bedouin a head. Here the judges made their second blunder of the day by placing Outcome third.

POLICE CALLED ON FIELD TO SEPARATE THE ELEVENS

Wesleyan Player Who Started Trouble by Jumping Feet First on Armstrong Is Knocked Out by Coach Morley.

Everybody Joins in and Battle Royal Results.

BY WILLIAM A. WILLIS.

(Special to the Evening World.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, Oct. 7.—The Columbia-Wesleyan football game this afternoon was marred by one of the most disgraceful outbreaks of ruffianism ever seen on a football field in this city. After an atrocious piece of brutality by Right Halfback Bailey, of Wesleyan, in jumping feet first on the back of Armstrong, of Columbia, the two teams got in a general mix-up.

The officials could have handled the situation, and were rapidly pulling the men apart when Coach Morley, of Columbia, rushed at Bailey, shoved him behind the goal-posts and struck him a terrific blow between the eyes. Bailey fell back in the arms of one of his teammates, the blood spurting from his face. Morley's act started the fight all over again. The players substitutes and officials all rushed at one another and a battle royal was soon in progress. Such punching has never been seen on a football field in the East before.

Columbia Tackle Puts Three Out.

Von Salz, the big Columbia tackle, laid out three men in succession and finally went down himself. Three policemen who got mixed in the fracas looked as though they had been hit by a cyclone when they emerged. Ross McClave, of Princeton, the umpire, got a bump in the ear that made his head spin, and Bosey Reiter, the Wesleyan coach, got a jolt in the stomach that took his breath away.

Reiter is the one man in the fracas who comes out with any glory. The minute he appreciated the seriousness of the situation he plunged in, pulled away the Wesleyan man and tugged at and implored them todesist. He got some of them to quit, but it wasn't until Arsteen policemen charged the confused mass that it was disintegrated.

Disgraceful as the affair was at the start, it would have been comparatively unimportant but for Morley's act. Bailey's act was the limit of cowardice, but Morley gave football a black eye when he renewed the row by hitting a player. Morley's once excuse is that having shoved Bailey back of the goal-post he had a right to deal with him as he saw fit, the man being off the gridiron.

Game Full of Slugging.

There had been a lot of slugging in the game before the big outbreak. In the centre of the field Armstrong took the ball for Columbia and on a delayed pass got through the Wesleyan line. He was forced out of bounds, but kept right on running, although the whistle had blown. Reiter, Wesleyans right end, went down the field and got Armstrong on the ten-yard line, and then Bailey shot out of the Wesleyan bunch, ran down the field at top speed and jumping in the air landed in the middle of Armstrong's back. A howl of indignation went up from all sides. Columbia's men rushed after Bailey and Wesleyan men went after the Columbia men.

Teams About Equal.

Bailey protested that he had not meant to injure Armstrong, but no one would listen to him. It was biff, bang, biff all over the field, with the spectators yelling excitedly. Then, just as the situation was clarifying, Morley came along and started it all over again.

The incident made an eloquent argument in favor of keeping coaches off the field. Bailey was ruled out of the game. Armstrong's back pained him so after the accident that he was unable to play again.

In playing ability the teams were about equal and in slugging ability there was not much choice between them.

FIRST HALF.

At exactly 3.30, Echeveria kicked off for Columbia to Wesleyan's twenty-yard line. Bailey caught the ball and was downed in his tracks. Bailey made two yards through right centre. Taylor, of Wesleyan, and Muir, of Columbia, indulged in some spirited fistcuffs, but were separated. Wesleyan kicked, but the ball was brought back on a foul. Armstrong made five yards by a hurdle over centre, but on another try was thrown back for a loss. Helmrich made up the distance by a plunge through centre, and Armstrong took the ball ten yards on a run between Wesleyan's left end and tackle.

With the ball on Wesleyan's 20-yard line Donovan fumbled the pass and Taylor got the ball for a 10-yard run. Bailey made three yards for Wesleyan around right end and Gildersleeve made three more on a plunge through centre. Gildesleeve kicked to Hodgkinson, who stumbled and was thrown back ten yards. Hodgkinson kicked to Wesleyan's 45-yard line and lost for Columbia fifteen yards on the exchange.

Muir Replaced by Enos.

Wesleyan kicked, and the ball striking on end came back ten yards to the centre of the field. Armstrong in two plunges made four yards for Columbia and Hodgkinson went through left tackle for ten yards. Columbia lost ten yards on a fumble and kicked. Muir was hurt and Enos took his place, Bangser going in at end.

Van Surdam's Spectacular Run.

Bailey made four yards for Wesleyan around left end. Wesleyan kicked and Columbia fumbled, but regained the ball. In two tries by Helmrich, Columbia gained three yards. Armstrong was thrown for a loss and Hodgkinson failed to make the distance. Van Surdam made a spectacular 35-yard run around left end and the Columbia gloom was thick.

With the ball on Columbia's sixteen-yard line Bailey made two yards through Echeveria and three yards more on the same play. Two plunges took the ball to Columbia's eight-yard line, where Wesleyan lost the ball on downs. Armstrong made two yards through Dearborn, and Armstrong kicked to Van Surdam. Bailey made three yards for Wesleyan, and two more on a second try. Bailey hurdled Echeveria for two yards.

The play was very rough, the referee warning the players repeatedly. The scrapping in the line was persistent. Van Surdam made a clean quarter-back run of four yards, breaking between Nastling and Echeveria. On a second try on the same play Wesleyan lost three yards. Hampson tried a goal from the field and the pass was high and Von Salza blocked the kick. Van Surdam recovered the ball for Wesleyan, but a chain of offside play was made and the ball went to Columbia.

Hodgkinson kicked to Van Surdam, who made fifteen yards by as pretty dodging as was ever seen on a football field.

The half ended with the ball on Wesleyan's 45-yard line, and in Wesleyan's possession. Both Columbia and Wesleyan lost excellent chances to score in the first half. Wesleyan having the ball on the eight-yard line once. The right wing of the Columbia line was a tower of strength, but Echeveria on the left was toppled on an east attack and Columbia's ends played wretchedly. Score, Columbia, 0; Wesleyan, 0.

SECOND HALF.

Fischer went in for Bangser at beginning of second half. Gildersleeve kicked over the line for Wesleyan and Armstrong kicked from the twenty-five-yard

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 7.—Yale and Syracuse met for their annual football contest to-day, and Yale with a much weaker team than the one which faced the New Yorkers last year feared for the result. Capt. Shevlin, who has been laid off with an injury and was ordered not to play, decided at the eleventh hour to get into the game for fear the visitors would defeat the Blue.

Tripp, who expected to play at guard, was held out by the coaches, as between himself and Capt. Shevlin it was thought the latter was taking less chances; and with a scarcity of big centre line men Yale does not want to run the risk of losing so important a player as Tripp at this stage of the season's work.
