DETECTIVES WAITED TILL BURGLARS CAME

Warned by Letter of Intended Robbery by "Paul Kellys" They Capture Two.

Two young men, who are declared to be members of the Harlem Branch of the Paul Kelly gang, were arrested to-day be detectives of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station after a fight in which jimmies and revolvers were used as weapons.

Capt. Cruise received a letter on Saturday afternoon warning him that members of the Paul Kelly gang would attempt to rob the grocey store at No. 218 East One Hunded and First street on Sunday night, or some time Monday morning. Detectives Ross and Stern were assigned to watch the place.

They began their vigil early in the evening and held it until almost before dawn. Then they saw from a hallway across the street, two men approach the grocery store from Second avenue. This pair was met by two more who came stealthily out of the shadows near Third avenue.

Chase and Fight.

After a brief parley the four fled into the hallway adjoinnig the store. They had hardly entered, when one who remained on guard noticed a policeman in full uniform posted on the corner of Second avenue. He called out to his confederates to beat it and they scattered.

Two ran toward Second avenue and two toward Third. Detective Stern blew his whistle to attract the attention of the officer on Second avenue. Then he and Ross gave chase. They each picked out a man and soon ran them down. When Ross overtook his man he had his revolver and billy in hand. The fugitive also drew a revolver and stuck it in the detective's face. He did not have time to pull the trigger, however, for the policeman struck the weapon down with his club.

He then proceeded to subdue the young thug, who put up a stubborn resistence. When beaten into submission the man said he was Thomas Sinnott, eighteen years old, a laborer, of No. 1955 Second avenue.

Used Jimmy as Weapon.

Detective Stern had a lively battle before he got his man, who said he was John Fisher, twenty years old, of No. 331 East Ninety-seventh street. This youth was armed with a jimmy, which he used to some advantage before the butt of a revolver and a billy put him to sleep.

When arraigned in the Harlem Police Court Sinnott was held for carrying concealed weapons and Fisher as a suspicious person. At the time of their arraignment the police reported on two robberies they declare were perpetrated by members of the Paul Kelly gang.

On Friday night the furniture store of Samuel Steupel, at No. 2104 Third avenue, was entered by burglars and $1,700 worth of plunder secured. On Saturday morning the ladies' tailoring establishment on the first floor of No. 177 East One Hundred and Tenth street was burglarized and $285 worth of stuff stolen.

CHARGE BANKRUPT WITH LARCENY

Henschle Alleged to Have Secured Goods by False Statement Before Failure.

Indicted on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree on three counts based on allegations that he obtained goods on credit after he knew his liabilities greatly exceeded his assets, Emil Henschle, a woollen broker, formerly of No. 14 Astor place, who went into bankruptcy in March, 1901, was arrested to-day and arraigned before Recorder Goff in General Sessions. He was held in $5,000 bail.

Henschle, when filing his petition in bankruptcy on March 23, 1901, gave his liabilities as $75,000 and his assets as almost nothing. The case dragged through the courts and the Merchants' Protective Association employed detectives to investigate his affairs.

The result of their work was the presentation to the Grand Jury last October of an indictment charging Henschle with having obtained goods from Faulkner, Page & Co., James Talcott & Co. and Stursberg, Shell & Co. shortly before his failure. The charge was that he obtained the goods on creedit and gave to the firm a statement of his financial condition which showed that his assets exceeded his liabilities by $68,709.90. The Merchants' Protective Association's counsel submitted that this was a false statement, and that since Henschle did not pay the firms he was guilty of larceny in the second degree.

Three indictments were found against him Oct. 31, but detectives were unable to find him at his home, No. 230 West One Hundred and Thirteenth street, or at the office of Bachman & Company, at No. 86 Franklin street, where he has been employed as a salesman.

To-day Detective Sergeant O'Connell, of the District-Attorney's office, arrested him at his home. Bail was furnished by Charles W. Leomis, a cotton broker, of No. 119 Bleecker street.

ILLNESS CHANGES PLANS OF WEDDING

Major Hibbards in Hospital—Son's Marriage to Miss Stewart Will Be Private.

No mystery attaches to the withdrawal of the 500 invitations issued for the marriage of Miss Eleanor Agnes Stewart and Robert H. Hibbard, the lawyer who was once a member of the Broadway Squad. At his offices in the St. Paul Building to-day Mr. Hibbard said that the wedding would take place in the presence of the immediate family on the day announced—to-morrow afternoon—but that owing to the serious condition of his father, Major George B. Hibbard, in St. Vincent's Hospital, it was necessary to dispense with public celebration.

Major Hibbard, who was Superintendent of Construction at Ellis Island and the Appraisers' Stores in Greenwich street, was stricken with heart trouble while buying wedding presents last Tuesday. The following day his condition grew worse, valvular complications setting in which threatened his life. As a result the wedding invitations were withdrawn.

A reporter from a morning paper was sent to the father of Miss Stewart, Thomas Marshall Stewart, of No. 164 West Seventy-sixth street, Sunday night, and because Mr. Stewart's strict religious training would not allow him to give an interview on Sunday, the reporter intimated that something was being withheld. Mr. Hibbard was much annoyed by the circulation of the rumor to-day, and said he had been engaged fourteen years and the wedding would take place on the appointed day.

Mr. Hibbard spent much time with his father this morning, and reported that he was too weak to rise from bed, let alone attending the wedding as had been printed. Robert H. Hibbard studied law while a member of the Broadway squad and was commended by Commissioner Greene when he left the force.

FISHER DROWNS IN A WHIRLPOOL

Boat Upsets in Sound with Four, and Three Are Saved.

While fishing in the Sound off New Rochelle yesterday afternoon, John F. Reese, of No. 401 East Twenty-ninth street, this city, was drowned and three companions, one of them his son Lawrence, had narrow escapes. They were rescued after having spent half an hour in the chilly water.

The men were out in a row boat which dragged its anchor and drifted into a whirlpool. In trying to get out of the current the boat capsized and all fell into the water. Reese was the only one of the party who could not swim and the others held him up and called for help.

The drowning men after a struggle righted the boat and put Reese in it only to have it capsize again. This time Reese got his feet fastened under the seat and was drowned. The other men were rescued by Policeman Alber Brown and John Garfield who ventured into the whirlpool with a boat at the risk of their lives.

Bell Telephone and Marconi Wireless

$100 invested in Bell Telephone Stock in 25 years increased to over $200,000. The only difference between the Bell Telephone opportunity you MISSED and the MARCONI opportunity you need NOT MISS is in the name. The time to buy is while Marconi stocks are cheap.

Your chance for profit is in finding out that the investment is a good one before everybody else knows it. If Bell Telephone stock were offered now at the price it was sold to original investors it wouldn't last a minute. You would telegraph the money. Bell opportunity is one opportunity worth regretting. Marconi Wireless Telegraph is just as good to-day. Every one knows that MARCONI WIRELESS is TO THE OCEAN WHAT THE BELL TELEPHONE IS ON LAND, and is, if anything, a greater monopoly.

The Marconi System is now in daily operation between both sides of the Atlantic and all transatlantic steamships and war vessels at sea. These securities offer the greatest investment opportunity in the world and will LAY THE FOUNDATION OF YOUR FORTUNE.

The Company is now OPERATING and paying, and the profits will soon be large enough to pay large dividends and make the market value of the stock several times the present selling price. The future of the MARCONI SYSTEM is as safe and more fully assured than was the Bell Telephone. The stock is continually advancing in price and going fast. It won't last much longer. Soon everybody will want it. It will be no better then than now, but it will COST MORE. Your chance at the present price will be GONE. You will see that day SOON if you don't act NOW.

Through an agreement with Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd., we are able to offer a limited amount of the full paid, non-assessable stock of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of Canada at $5.50 per share, for immediate application.

Subscribe to-day and save the profit of next advance, which will be to $6, which will take place during this month.

We also offer a limited amount of the certificates of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of America.

From those who desire we will accept subscriptions on the partial payment plan, as follows: 25 per cent. with application, balance in three monthly payments.

On request we will send you 16-page illustrated pamphlet on the Marconi system and a free copy of Mid-Ocean Daily, a newspaper published on board the large passenger steamers on the Atlantic.

Write now before you forget it. Address all communications and make all checks payable to

Black Camel's-hair CHEVIOTS

$1.50, $2 and $2.50 Qualities at 75c a Yard

There is just one draw-back to this extraordinary offering—we could only get three thousand yards. The makers would not have made such a radical cut on the price per yard, if the yards had been many more.

Handsome lustrous all-wool Cheviots, in the effective camel's-hair finish—with the weight, warmth and tailoring qualities of broadcloth, at this insignificant price—75 cents a yard. And the cheviots measure 44 to 50 inches wide.

An eight-yard pattern costs only six dollars; and it will make a superb holiday gift, worth $12 to $20, according to how promptly you get here to make your selection.
