PROFESSIONAL.

CLAIMS AGAINST UNITED STATES.

FINLEY BIGGER, (late Register of the United States Treasury,) and CHARLES E. SHERMAN, Counsellors at Law, will devote their entire attention to the prosecution and settlement of demands against the United States, growing out of the present war, including the Accounts and Claims of States, Contractors, and Disbursing Officers; applications for the restoration of property illegally seized or captured, and for compensation for the use of private property for Government purposes, and for damages for the injury of such property by the army, for military pay, pensions, and bounty, bonds, and for distributive shares of money payable at the Treasury and due to sub-contractors and others.

They will also give legal advice to claimants, contractors and to unprofessional agents in pending cases; and prepare written arguments when required.

With non-resident Agents who may send them claims, an equitable division of emoluments will be made.

Unfounded Demands will be rejected, and promptly remitted for a commission of from a half to two and a half per cent., depending on the amount and negotiations with the Department conducted on moderate terms.

By strict attention, moderate charges, long experience, and a minute knowledge of the various regulations, rules, and precedents governing business of the Departments, they hope to render their services useful to claimants and public creditors.

References may be made to members of Congress and officers of the Government, and especially by permission, to the Hon. ELISHA WHITTLESEY, First Comptroller of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

This Firm, having a thorough knowledge of the Pension Business, and being familiar with the practice in all the Departments of Government, believe that they can afford greater facilities to Pension, Bounty, and other Claimants, for the prompt and successful accomplishment of business entrusted to them than any other firm in Washington. They desire to secure such an amount of this business as will enable them to execute the business for each claimant VERY CHEAPLY, and on the basis of THEIR PAY CONTINGENT UPON THEIR SUCCESS IN EACH CASE. For this purpose they will secure the services of Law Firms in each prominent locality throughout the States where such business may be had, furnish such with all the necessary blank forms of application and evidence, requisite printed pamphlet instructions, and Circulars for distribution in their vicinity, with Associates' names inserted, and upon the due execution of the papers and transmission of the same to them by their local associates, they will promptly perform the business here.

☞ Their charges will be FIVE DOLLARS FOR OFFICERS and FIVE DOLLARS FOR PRIVATES, for each Pension or Bounty and Back Pay obtained, and ten per cent. on amount of Claims for MILITARY SUPPLIES, or CLAIMS FOR INDEMNITY, and Collection of PRIZE MONEY.

☞ Soldiers enlisted since the 1st of March, 1861, in any kind of service, Military or Naval, who are disabled by disease or wounds, are entitled to Pensions. All soldiers who serve for two years, or during the war, should it sooner close, will be entitled to a $100 Bounty.

By a law of the last session of Congress, all soldiers discharged on account of wounds received in the service, since the Commencement of the War, shall receive the $100 bounty, and all revenue stamps heretofore required on soldiers' application papers are dispensed with. Widows of soldiers who die or are killed are entitled to Pensions and the $100 Bounty. If there be no widow, then the minor children, and if no minor children, then the father, mother, sisters, or brothers are entitled to the $100 bounty, and, in addition thereto, dependant mothers, sisters, or brothers will be pensioned.

MEDICAL.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask.
We answer, 'tis an easy task.
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day.
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN.
And like a watch, that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How?" you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS!" we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods, or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you, ply,
Nature you must assist—or die!
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent:
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To act as defence the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded workrooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strongest man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhœa, that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay,
That brings Death nearer day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness of the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

HEAR THE WITNESSES!

Worthless and pernicious articles are so often bolstered up in the advertising columns of the Press by fabricated letters, that the proprietors of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS rarely give quotations from their business correspondence, least the GENUINE OPINIONS of those who use and appreciate a GENUINE ARTICLE should be compromised by the unthinking with the PULSOMO, RIGMAROLE put into the mouths of MEN OF SCRAW by unscrupulous empirics and charlatans, whose double object is to SELL both their trash and the PUBLIC.

Believing, however, that FACTS IMPORTANT TO THE HEALTH AND COMFORT OF THE PUBLIC and which can be VERIFIED AT ANY MOMENT by addressing the parties who vouch for them, ought not to be hid under a bushel, the undersigned publish below a few communications of recent date, to which they invite the attention of the people, and at the same time ESPECIALLY REQUEST all readers who may feel interested in the subject to ADDRESS THE INDIVIDUALS THEMSELVES, and ascertain the correctness of the particulars.

READ REV. W. B. LEE'S LETTER.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 20, 1862.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith:

GENTLEMEN: I believe I used your Bitters during the last six weeks, and feel it due to you and to the public to express my hearty approval of their effect upon me. I never wrote a "puff" for any one, and I abhor everything that savors of quackery. But your Bitters are entirely removed from the level of the mere nostrum of the day, being proved alike to all, and exactly what they profess to be. They are not advertised to cure everything, but they are recommended to assist nature in the alleviation and ultimate healing of many of the most common infirmities of the body, and this they will accomplish. I had been unwell for two months, as is usual with me during the spring. I was languid, and suffering from indigestion and a general disease of the mucous membrane, and though compelled to keep at work in the discharge of my professional duties, was very weak, of a yellow complexion, no appetite, and much of the time confined to my bed. When I had been taking your Bitters a week my vigor returned; the sallow complexion was all gone, I relished my food, and now I enjoy the duties of the mental application which so recently were so very irksome and burdensome to me. When I used your Bitters I felt a change every day. These are facts. All inference must be made by each individual for himself.

Yours, respectfully, W. B. LEE,
Pastor of Greene Avenue Presbyterian Church.

READ R. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH'S LETTER.

PROSPECT COTTAGE, GEORGETOWN, D. C.,
April 2, 1862.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith:

GENTLEMEN: It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia and nervous headache, recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica. I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment. It required but one bottle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief it afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's Bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a Standard Family Cordial with us, and even as a stimulant we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious, and dyspeptic cases, from fever down to toothache. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours,
R. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.

READ JOHN W. BRONAUGH'S LETTER.

NAVY DEPT., BUREAU OF YARDS AND DOCKS,
December 30, 1862.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

GENTLEMEN: About four years since my attention was called to your celebrated Stomach Bitters. I being at the time a perfect martyr to dyspepsia, in all of its terrible forms. Indeed, I had not known for six years an uninterrupted night's sleep. I commenced the use of your bitters, taking them according to your directions, except that the dose was reduced to one-half, and found myself much, very much, benefitted by the first bottle; the second relieved me entirely; but I have ever since taken a dose in the morning immediately on rising, finding it to act as a tonic and appetizer of the most agreeable character. There is a peculiarity in the effect of your Bitters on me which it may be well to state: if from any cause I shall be suffering ever so acutely with the headache, a dose of your Bitters relieves me in fifteen minutes. In conclusion, I say with all sincerity and truth, I would not be returned to the state of health in which your Bitters found me, and from which they have unquestionably relieved me, for all the money in this world. I am, with great respect,

Your obedient servant,
JOHN W. BRONAUGH, Chief Clerk.
