Seven Lost with Barge.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., DEC. 19.—All hope of finding the whaleback barge Bath, lost by the steamer Bayview off Winter Quarter Light during a storm last Friday night, has been given up, as it is almost certain that the vessel foundered near Cape Henry and went to the bottom with Capt. McKenzie, his wife and five seamen.

Steamer Given Up as Lost.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., DEC. 19.—The German steamer Andes is now forty-eight days overdue from this port for Guanta, Venezuela, and she is to be posted in Lloyds' register of shipping as lost. Since the Andes passed out of the Virginia capes, on the morning of Sunday, Oct. 22, she has not been seen or heard of.

Woman Hermit Murdered.

RICHMOND, VA., DEC. 19.—Miss Eliza Read, an eccentric woman, who lived alone on the mountain three miles from Pocahontas, Va., was found murdered in her home, apparently having been struck on the head with an axe or club. Miss Read had a good income from royalty on coal lands, and robbery is thought to have been the motive of the crime.

Horror Forced Suicide.

HUNTSVILLE, ALA., DEC. 19.—After accidentally killing his wife Saturday, William Monroe McCarty, a Madison County farmer, choloroformed himself at his home where he was found dead yesterday. A note found in his room stated that he was showing his wife how to use a pistol; that it exploded accidentally and killed her, and that he was so horrified that he, too, must die.

COURT BALKED ON BEING FUMIGATED

Justice Smith Dismisses Order to Produce a Supposed Scarlet Fever Patient.

Justice Wilmot N. Smith, sitting in the Brooklyn Supreme Court, decided to-day that he would not take any chances on being fumigated with formaldehyde and bathed in a chloride solution, as the Health Department warned him would be the case if a habeas corpus writ he had granted was executed.

The writ had to do with Otto Van Gipper, a boy who is now a patient in the Kingston Avenue Hospital for Contagious Diseases. The boy was pronounced by a Board of Health diagnostician to be suffering from scarlet fever. Dr. Walter T. Slevin, of No. 386 Union street, Brooklyn, asserted that the lad was a victim of blood poisoning.

Thereupon the parents of the boy, through Attorney John Daly, went before Justice Smith yesterday and obtained a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was returnable to-day. An Assistant Corporation Counsel announced to the Court that if the boy was produced Health Commissioner Darlington would order that the Justice and all his attendants be immediately fumigated, sprinkled with formaldehyde and bathed in chloride. The Court decided to dismiss the writ, and ordered that a physician, selected by counsel for the boy's parents, and a representative of the Board of Health, make an investigation into the exact nature of the youth's malady and report.

Pistol in His Mouth.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 19.—James S. Box, aged twenty-six, of North Adams, Mass., a student at Bowman's Technical School, yesterday committed suicide in his bedroom by shooting. He held the revolver muzzle in his mouth. Illness was the cause.

WATERS PIANOS.

The Waters pianos have been well and favorably known for sixty years, and have steadily maintained their position in the foremost rank of high-grade pianos. They are unsurpassed for beauty of finish and solidity of construction, but especially excel in sweetness and power of tone—a tone which is rich and deep, with a fine singing quality. Although the "Waters" are high-grade pianos they are not fancy priced. No other pianos of equal high standing are offered at such low prices and on such easy terms. By a new three-year system purchasers obtain pianos on three years' time without interest. There are three Waters piano warerooms in Manhattan: No. 134 Fifth avenue, near Eighteenth street; No. 127 West Forty-second street, near Broadway, and No. 124 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, near Eighth avenue. All three warerooms will be open evenings until Xmas.

GAS NEARLY KILLED TWO.

A defective gas burner came very near causing the death of two men at the boarding-house, No. 692 Tremont avenue, early to-day, when Joseph Moss, sixty years old, and Henry Siegler, forty, were found unconscious and removed to Fordham Hospital in a serious condition. The men occupied adjoining rooms and Moss went to bed about 8 o'clock last night. The door connecting the rooms was open, and when Siegler retired at midnight he turned off the gas. The stopcock did not close properly and the gas poured into both rooms until at 7.30 this morning Mrs. Brady, the landlady, found them. They are expected to recover.

TRUNK ROBBED OF JEWELRY.

The police of New York and Albany were asked yesterday to look for two gold hair combs, a pearl brooch pendant, gold necklace, gold pen, gold cuff buttons and a pair of diamond earrings belonging to Miss Edna McMurray, of No. 331 West Seventy-sixth street, which were stolen from a trunk somewhere between this city and the State capital last Saturday.

Miss McMurray went to Albany Saturday afternoon to visit her brother, Edward Easton, jr., of No. 805 State street. In her trunk was a Dutch silver jewel box, containing the jewelry. When the trunk reached its destination it had been rifled.

The Strength and Greatness of The Big Store.

This vast institution is made up of little things which combine into a volume that is simply astonishing, but the attention we pay to details is proved by our efficiency at such a time as this.

Our organization stands the holiday strain wonderfully and our corps of employees is working as smoothly as the parts of a huge machine. The public is evidently delighted with our showing, and consequently we are doing the largest volume of business in our history.

In spite of the enormous throng which has surged through all departments, every one has been very good-natured and has shown an inclination to do everything possible to help our salespeople in this most trying period.

Many are generously offering to carry small parcels with them, thus relieving our Delivery Department of a portion of its great load. There is a spirit of good will, which we appreciate and are attempting to return in kind.
