SATURDAY MORNING ..... MAY 19, 1866.

(From the Boston Commercial.)

INVOCATION.

Come soon! Life's worry are almost o'er,
The lamp burns dim; the closed door
None opens;—but come back once more.

I feel death's dim hand reaching down;
Life's fitt'ring pulses slowly down
'Neath this unsoiling, relentless frown.

Dost thou not know my heart is riven?
With slow despair in vain I've striven,
And now by desperate wares I'm driven.

Still the long conflict; let me rest;
And, closely to thy bosom pressed,
Sleep the long slumber of the blest.

The Reconstruction Scheme Found Wanting in the Newspaper Press.

Congress may form a pretty correct estimate of what will be the fate of The Reconstruction Committee's scheme before the people by looking into the leading newspapers, especially those of the West. Not a paper in the whole country, besides Forney's Chronicle, professes to approve the scheme, and how little the Chronicle's approval is worth Congressmen understand of course. Some of the Radical Republican papers of the East affect to favor the scheme as the best to be had; but those of the West are decisively against it. The Chicago Tribune denounces the scheme as equally unprincipled and defective with that of the President. It accepts, the Tribune says, the Southern State Governments without further reorganization, and consigns the four millions of freedmen to perpetual disfranchisement. The Tribune declares that Congress is trimming to catch conservative votes, that the members had better consider whether they have not thereby lost the Radical vote of the country, and holds up for warning to them the parable of the withered fig tree.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

THE REPUBLICAN

under the present management, commenced in the midst of the Rebellion, January, 1860, and ever since has been the object it has been as earnest and sincere in its support of Abraham Lincoln and his War Policy, Emancipation Proclamation, and all, as any journal printed inside the Federal lines. Taking that ground, then, and finding Andrew Johnson standing firmly in defense of the same principles, we have no other duty to perform, or desire to gratify, than to "Fight it out on this line" until the rebellion, armed or unarmed, is wholly and permanently put down!

CORDIAL

OF THE

BENEDICTINE MONKS

OF THE

ABBEY OF FECAMP.

This Cordial, which dates as far back as 1510, is an anti-apoplectic tonic, digestive, and of an exquisite taste. The salutary plants which compose it, gathered on the slopes of the hills of Normandy, saturated with the vivifying emanations of a Northern sea, makes it one of the best cordials and one of the most efficaci preventives against epidemic affections.

Of late, the French medical corps has been almost unanimous in prescribing its use to the sick who, by their imperfect gastric disposition, were more liable to the attacks of fever and cholera.

A. LEGRAND,
Sen., Fecamp,

No. 19, Paris.

This Medicine is found at the Wine and Spirit Stores, Apothecaries, Confectioners, and Groceries, &c., &c., all over the world. my2-1aw3t

THE WASHINGTON MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

[CIRCULAR.] WASHINGTON, December, 1865.

Every one complains of the extortion and imposition practiced upon the people of this city in the matter of fuel, but no one proposes a remedy. A number of gentlemen associated with us own a valuable colliery in Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, producing now over 20,000 tons a year, of the best quality of white and red ash anthracite coal. The machinery and appliances are complete. Upon this property we propose to organize a company with a capital of $200,000, divided into thirty thousand shares of $10 each. The holder of each share of stock to be entitled to a ton of coal (one year's) at prime cost, and to his share of the profits on the sale of coal to outside parties.

The first cost of coal at present rates of transportation, delivered to the door of the consumer, would be $9; at the usual rates the price would be from six to seven dollars.

A party owning ten shares would pay for it $100. This would entitle him to ten tons at cost—say $3 less than dealers' retail prices—$30.

20,000 tons sold outside at a profit of $2 per ton would be $40,000
And deducting contingencies, &c. 14,000
Would leave $45,000

Or 15 per cent. on the entire capital, and added to the saving in the price of coal, $30, makes $45, or 45 per cent. on his investment.

The coal is much superior to and worth at least $2 per ton more than the coal brought to and sold in this market, and shipments and delivery can be commenced as soon as the arrangements are made.

No payment of any subscriptions will be required until the subscribers, at a public meeting, shall have appointed a committee of gentlemen of their own selection to visit and examine these mines, and report upon them, and that, if satisfactory, one half to be paid down and the balance in one, two and three months. The trustees and officers to be selected by the stockholders, and the title to be made to such trustees.

Gentlemen to whom this circular will be sent are requested to forward the project by obtaining subscriptions and sending them to Major I. K. Casey, No. 266 C street.

We shall be glad to give any further information.

JOSEPH CASEY,
I. K. CASEY.

This Company offers greater inducements for investments than any Stock Company now in existence.

The object of the Company is to afford facilities to the impoverished Cotton and Sugar Planters of the South to grow and get their crops to market, always taking good and satisfactory security by mortgage, on their plantation and crops, for money advanced in procuring supplies, paying labor, and other necessary expenses incidental to the development of the soil.

CAPITAL AND LABOR

are the universal requirements of the largest portion of the

SOUTHERN STATES,

and when judiciously applied, no matter by whom furnished, will restore that portion of our unfortunate country to its former prosperity, and make the South all that Nature designed it,

A NEW ILLUSTRATED PAPER!!

The undersigned have the pleasure of announcing that on the 4th of June they will issue the first number of a New Illustrated Journal, to be called

THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES.

Though there are already a large number of periodical publications of the kind we propose to issue, and there is therefore no positive necessity for the establishment of another, still we intend to fill a vacancy in this connection which has long been felt, to the injury of many meritorious sheets.

It is impossible at the present time to obtain any paper of the least merit for less than three dollars per annum, and an illustrated one for not less than four dollars. Our intention is, therefore, to issue a journal of the same size as "Harper's," or "Frank Leslie's," the contents of which shall be equal to theirs in merit, and to charge but half of their price, namely, two dollars per year. We shall aim to present a weekly history of passing events, illustrated by wood-cuts in the highest style of the art, and interspersed with Original Novels, Romances, Tales, Adventures, Concise Biographies, Anecdotes, Adventures, Wit, Humor, Sparkles, Infinite-ble Caricatures, Literary, Personal and Scientific Items, etc., etc.

In thus charging so small a sum for their paper, the publishers of the "Mirror of the Times" expect to be rewarded with a subscription list which shall amply remunerate them for their necessary outlay of both "mind and matter."

A NEW ILLUSTRATED PAPER!!

The undersigned have the pleasure of announcing that on the 4th of June they will issue the first number of a New Illustrated Journal, to be called

THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES.

Though there are already a large number of periodical publications of the kind we propose to issue, and there is therefore no positive necessity for the establishment of another, still we intend to fill a vacancy in this connection which has long been felt, to the injury of many meritorious sheets.

It is impossible at the present time to obtain any paper of the least merit for less than three dollars per annum, and an illustrated one for not less than four dollars. Our intention is, therefore, to issue a journal of the same size as "Harper's," or "Frank Leslie's," the contents of which shall be equal to theirs in merit, and to charge but half of their price, namely, two dollars per year. We shall aim to present a weekly history of passing events, illustrated by wood-cuts in the highest style of the art, and interspersed with Original Novels, Romances, Tales, Adventures, Concise Biographies, Anecdotes, Adventures, Wit, Humor, Sparkles, Infinite-ble Caricatures, Literary, Personal and Scientific Items, etc., etc.

In thus charging so small a sum for their paper, the publishers of the "Mirror of the Times" expect to be rewarded with a subscription list which shall amply remunerate them for their necessary outlay of both "mind and matter."

Subscription price for one year, $2 00.
