In the case of E. J. Smith and others vs. the Homer school district, tried in district court here Monday and Tuesday, the court enjoined the collection of taxes in excess of 35 mills on the dollar. A levy of 100 mills had been made for school purposes, and some of the taxpayers of the district thought the levy was illegal.

Private James J. Harty, who was killed in action during the Chateau Thierry drive, in France, and his sister, Mary L. Harty, who died Sunday after a serious illness of several weeks, were buried Tuesday at Hubbard, Neb. The deceased young people are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Harty, of Hubbard. The double funeral was held at 10 o'clock Tuesday from St. Mary's Catholic church. Ex-service men acted as pallbearers for the soldier, while young women from St. Catherine's academy, of which the sister was a graduate, were pallbearers for her. Private Harty was a member of Company G, Fourth infantry, and was killed by a machine gun bullet on July 27, 1918. Miss Harty was 23 years old and her brother 20.

A quiet wedding took place on Thursday evening, December 29, 1921, at the Cathedral rectory in Sioux City, Iowa, when Miss Lela Francisco and Mr. Bernard B. Asbra, of Wynot, Neb., were united in marriage. The beautiful ring ceremony was used, Rev. Fr. McCarty officiating. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell of Sioux City, cousins of the bride, attended the wedding couple. Those present during the ceremony were, the bride's mother, Mrs. Roy Chamberlain, and daughter, Alta Francisco, of Wynot; Mrs. Arthur Schreve and Mrs. Margaret Hagan and the Misses Edna and Olive Mitchell of Sioux City. After a short visit with relatives at different points in Nebraska and Iowa the happy couple will depart for Wyoming, where they expect to take up their future abode.

The Consumers Ice Co. began work harvesting ice at their Crystal Lake plant Monday, with a full force of men. The present thickness of the ice is about 12 inches, with fair prospects of its being considerably thicker before many moons.

The current issue of the Bell Telephone Company's monthly magazine—a copy of which was presented us by Manager F. H. Forrest, is replete with pictures taken of the big doings at Homer on December 18th, when medals were presented to Mrs. Millie Lohrop, operator at Homer, and to Mr. Forrest, areal manager for this locality.

A. B. Cownie, age 56, an old resident of South Sioux City, and the father of five veterans of the World War, died in a Sioux City hospital on Tuesday morning following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Cownie was born in Scotland, and came to America about 25 years ago. He located in this county in 1900. Mr. Cownie's wife died five years ago.

Don Forbes of this place carried off first honors at the state corn show held at Lincoln January 3rd and 4th. He won the grand championship in the ten ear exhibit of yellow corn, and also in the single ear exhibit, the prize money amounting to $30. The Griswold Seed Co. Trophy and the Rudge Trophy cup and ribbon also went to the winner. This makes about five out of six times Mr. Forbes has won the big prizes at the state corn show, which speaks well for Dakota county as a corn producing locality, and for Mr. Forbes as a corn raiser.

MRS. MARY L. GOODWIN DIES

Death claimed another of Dakota county's pioneer women last Wednesday evening, when Mrs. Mary Lucretia Goodwin passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Thos. Graham, north of Dakota City.

Mrs. Ralph Goodwin, nee Mary L. Whitehorn, daughter of Samuel and Sarah Whitehorn, was born at Pen Yan, N. Y., November 11, 1846, and died at Dakota City, Neb., January 4, 1922, aged 75 years, 1 month, and 23 days. At the age of nine years she came to Nebraska, where she grew to womanhood, and where she has since made her home. For forty-six years her home has been on the farm from which her body was borne to its rest.

March 21, 1865, she was married to Ralph Goodwin, who preceded her to the Great Beyond, eight years ago. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Nellie Sayre, of Kadoka, S. D.; a brother, George C. Whitehorn, of Pasco, Wash.; by her only daughter, Mrs. J. T. Graham, of Dakota City, and by eight grand-children.

Mrs. Goodwin was one of the oldest pioneer residents of the county, and had always been a familiar figure at the meetings of the Pioneers and Old Settlers association of Dakota county. She was loved and respected by her many friends and acquaintances for her kindly manner and deeds, and her motherly disposition. She always had a smile and a pleasant word for those she met, and her memory will be fondly cherished by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, conducted by Rev. E. C. Moore, pastor of the M. E. church in Dakota City, of which the deceased had been a lifelong member. Interment was in Graceland Park cemetery, Sioux City.

COUNTY HYGIENE AND WELFARE BUREAU ORGANIZED

Delegates from over the county met at the Dakota City M. E. church Monday, January 8th, to organize a county Hygiene and Welfare Bureau to co-operate with the State and National Bureaus in securing legislative measures for the betterment of child welfare.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. F. B. Williams, from the State Bureau of Child Welfare. Mrs. Mary McBeath, of South Sioux City, was appointed county chairman; County Supt. W. E. Voss was appointed vice-chairman and Mrs. J. T. Schmalus, secretary. The following standing committees were appointed: Committee for canvassing—J. J. Eimers, Rev. E. C. Moore and Mrs. Don Forbes; Campaign committee—John Sivill, D. M. Neiswanger, Mrs. Matilda McArthur and Mrs. Frank Lean. Publicity Committee—Mrs. E. T. Antrim, Mrs. W. P. Warner and Mrs. C. R. Young. Rev. E. C. Moore and Rev. E. T. Antrim were appointed as local chairmen.

The State Hygiene and Welfare Campaign under the direction of the National Hygiene and Welfare Bureau should have the enthusiastic support and co-operation of every church and pastor, as well as all civic organizations in this large and significant program. The welfare of all our youth, and homes, the church and school, and hence our state and nation is involved.

DAKOTA CITY SCHOOL NOTES

By Prof. H. M. Eaton

"None but such as are good men can give good things, and only such as are good things are delicious to a well-organized appetite."

Well, here we are again, ready and willing to be on the job. School began last Tuesday morning and we worked all day Saturday to make out the five day week.

Very few were absent from school on Saturday, which speaks well for both the parents and children.

Oh come now "have a heart," we want you to visit us. How can you expect us to do the best of work without your interest. How are we to know what you expect of us without you come to see us and talk over matters.

Mrs. Frank Lean visited the various departments of the school the latter part of the week. Mrs. Lean is doing a good job in her visits.

Mrs. Earl Frederick was with us as a visitor. We invite her to come again and bring a neighbor. Come on now, let us get the school and the home closer together.

Our basket ball team beat South Sioux City last Saturday night by a 24 to 18 score. The boys from our sister town certainly made us go the limit. They were a gentlemanly lot of fellows. Supt. Swett accompanied them on the trip.

Examinations for the close of the first half of the year will be given this week. Parents, see that you examine the grades and papers of your children. Talk to them about their work at school, show them that if they would be successful at this time that they must be fully equipped to meet the best minds everywhere. Let's do team work, what do you say? We are willing.

Miss Carrie Hansen will succeed Mrs. Elsie Neiswanger as teacher in the fifth and sixth grades. We regret very much to have Mrs. Neiswanger leave us, as her work has been of the highest type, and satisfactory in every way. We feel that Miss Hansen will be a worthy successor, and congratulate ourselves in securing her services. Miss Hansen will begin her work next Monday morning at the beginning of the new semester.

Names of those children who have been neither tardy nor absent for the month ending December 23:

PRIMARY ROOM Olive Larson, Bernice Snyder, Margaret Adair, Willard Sundt, Catherine Young, Helen Jones, Guy Sides, Willard Sides, George Sundt, Raymond Sierk, Harold Peterson, Waldo Phillips, Albert Jones, Eldon Morris, Charlotte Sides, William Triggs, John Smith, Lucille Frederick, Evelyn Waddell, Oscar Snyder, Vern Niebuhr, Helen Cain, Robert Nagel.

FIRST INTERMEDIATE ROOM Dorothy Leamer, Florence Frederick, Walter Sierk, May Messerli, Margaret Giese, Viola Jones, Alice Tague, George Foltz, Ruth Graham, Blanche Holbrook, Dorothy Fueston, Leona Todd, Louisa Neiswanger, Joe Jones, John Nagle.

SECOND INTERMEDIATE ROOM Martha Barge, Maurice Berger, Alfred Forbes, Helen Phillips, Marie Sunt, Leonard Sierk, Helen Foltz, Edgar Frederick, Glenn Waddell.

GRAMMAR ROOM Vira Sunt, Ruby Lovig, Walter Graham, Eldo Betcke, Dorothy Doolittle, Horace Graham, Phillip Warner, Dora Powell, Lawrence Lean.

HIGH SCHOOL Anna Berger, Joe Betcke, Hallack Mascn, Donald Ebel, Mildred Frederick, Edwin Morgan, Leona Smith, Nellie Triggs, Ted Graham, Ernest Giese, Eunice Larson, Warren Armour, Ralph Bliven, Chas. Blacketer, Erwin Bliven, George Berger, Gladys Frederick, Harry Larson, Maurice Niemeyer, Ernest Sierk, Helen Smith, Rosie Perry.

The high school again carried off the pennant as to per cent of attendance for the month just closing. The grammar room was a close second. Each of these rooms averaged above the 98% mark.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

W. E. VOSS, Superintendent

The next teachers' examination will be held in the court house in Dakota City on Saturday, January 21, and the one following on Saturday, April 15. All who do not have a schedule of the time when the subjects are given should get one from the county superintendent.

The teachers who have county certificates to expire in 1922 should find out what the requirements are for their renewal or for a next higher certificate. It is not at all too early to attend to these things, and to get all examinations possible out of the way by the close of the school year.

Since we have about two dozen qualified teachers still available, and the number of such teachers increasing week by week through former teachers being forced out of commercial positions, I am predicting that the teachers with certificates in force early in the summer will be the ones most likely to obtain schools, leaving those who renew their certificates at the eleventh hour on the waiting list. I hope that none of our best teachers will find themselves on the waiting list next August through any neglect to qualify in time.
