MURPHY CAN'T KEEP THEM FROM DINNER

District Leaders Say They Will Attend Whether He Likes It or Not.

It is declared to-day at the City Hall that Charles F. Murphy's withdrawal of his acceptance of an invitation to attend the Jefferson day dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Monday night, because Mayor McClellan had been assigned to talk to the subject "Democracy," has effectually killed all chance of reconciliation between the leader of Tammany and the Mayor.

It was also stated that the movement to restore friendship was actually underway when Murphy's break spoiled the plan.

Some of the Tammany district leaders have openly expressed their disfaction over the attitude of Murphy and have broken away from his direct leadership. They declare they see no hope of a reconciliation because of "Murphy's stubborness" and that they must cast their die with the Mayor for the saks of self-preservation if nothing else.

It was predicted in political circles to-day that the turn out of Tammany district leaders on Monday night would surprise even the McClellan men, who had believed that the district leaders would follow Murphy and not appear at the dinner.

"I am going to the dinner, whether Murphy likes it or not," said one district leader to-day, "and there are many other district leaders who will do likewise. We have reached an understanding in the matter and have decided to present ourselves irrespective of Leader Murphy's likes and dislikes."

TRAIN HIT ROCK SLIDE ON WEST SHORE ROAD.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 13.—A north-bound milk train on the West Shore Railroad ran into a rock slide at Blue Point, across the river from the southern end of this city, to-day and was wrecked. None of the train crew was injured.

The engineer and fireman jumped just before the engine struck the great pile of stone which had slipped down from the embankment and blocked both tracks. The locomotive and four cars were thrown from the track by the force of the impact and badly wrecked.

Passengers are being transferred around the great heap of rock and overturned cars to special trains

GORKY WITH SOCIALISTS.

May Make a Radical Speech at Murray Hill Lyceum To-Night.

Maxim Gorky, the Russian author and revolutionist, has accepted an invitation to attend a reception and banquet in his honor at Murray Hill Lyceum to-night.

The leading spirits in the affair are adherents of the Social Democratic party, and they expect that Gorky will be extremely radical in his remarks.
