CRACK YACHTS IN SPRING REGATTA

June Event of Atlantic Club Will Bring Out Good Entry List.

Interest of Eastern yachtsmen is being centred on the regatta of the Atlantic Yacht Club scheduled for June 12, which is not only to be the first big event of the season, but for special reasons will be of particular importance to them, as this will also be the first appearance in races of several new yachts built with special ideas of speed, and what they may do against the crackajacks of other seasons will be demonstrated.

J. Rogers Maxwell has received assurances from the builders that his new 90-foot schooner The Queen will be ready in time, arrangements having been made so that her top equipment may be on the Bristol dock ready to be set up the day following that when she goes over, which is now set for May 20. If ready for delivery by June 3, as now seems probable, the skipper would have a full week to tune her up for the races on the 12th.

Another expected entry is the Eclipse now building at Gloucester for E. J. Callahan, which boat will be launched during the present week. F. M. Smith's Effort, just off the ways at Jacobs's yard and designed by Gielow, will soon be ready for her trials and will make her debut in a fast class. It has been expected that Commodore E. Walter Clark, of the Corinthian Yacht Club, would receive his new 60-foot Herreshoff creation in time to enter the race of the Atlantic Club. The work, however, may be delayed. The name of the new boat will be Irolita II., after the 70-footer which he raced so successfully.

Among the boats that will meet the newcomers will be the Corona, Elmina, Rainbow, Yankee, Nesiah and the crack Westamor of last season. From this bunch of fliers the regatta on June 12 is given a significance rather unusual in the early events of the season, which promises to be the most important of years in local waters.

Entries from the smaller classes give added interest to the regatta because of the fact that among them will also be a number of new boats or of boats handled by new skippers, who will endeavor, of course, to make their debut impressive. This is true of the Gardenia, the new boat designed by Gardner for A. H. Morris, and the Vivian II., that will appear under a new rig. The new Sue, Jigstep and Crescent, 27-footers, will try their paces against the Hanmi and Maid of Meudon, sailed by new owners.

NEARY DEFEATS BRIGGS IN BATTLE

BOSTON, Mass., May 1.—For the third time Charley Neary, of Milwaukee, was declared the winner over Jimmy Briggs, of Chelsea, last night. The battle, which was one of the hardest and fastest fought in this section in a long time, was held at the Lincoln Club at Chelsea.

Though it went the limit, fifteen rounds, there were times that the end looked near at hand. Neary did no fancy sparring, but crouched and bored in. He never backed away, but kept on top of his man all the time.

It was the body punching he gave Briggs that won the battle. Toward the latter part of the fight there was not much steam in the Chelsea boy's punches. Briggs did not show as well as he has in previous bouts. He made no effort to protect himself when coming out of a break. Seldom did he try to get over his favorite punch when breaking away. He lost distance at times very poorly and received some bad wallops in consequence of his misjudgment.

GOULD WINS AT TENNIS.

LONDON, May 1.—Jay Gould easily won the first round in the amateur court tennis championship played at the Queen's Club here yesterday. His opponent was Joshua Crane, jr., of Boston, and young Gould won three straight sets by 6—1, 6—1, 6—0.

Crane worked in one or two good forcing strokes, but Gould held him safe at all stages. At that the winner did not play in anything like his best form. The light was bad and with his defective eyesight he was handicapped.

Jack Powell Suspended.

ST. LOUIS, May 1.—Jack Powell, of the St. Louis Browns, was suspended yesterday for failing to report for duty when the team departed for Cleveland. Manager McAleer announced Powell's suspension for not maintaining himself in condition to play baseball.

BOXING BOUTS AT CONEY.

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

Boxing bouts will be brought off again at Coney Island this summer. The old Sea Beach Palace, where so many important championship fights were decided during the Horton law days, will be the scene of these encounters. The first show of bouts will take place on the night of May 30. The club which will conduct them will be the Marlborough A. C., which is at present holding its contests in New Amsterdam Hall, in West Forty-fourth street, every Monday evening. The club officials, realizing that it would be impossible for them to hold bouts in their present quarters during the summer, secured a lease on the Sea Beach Palace last night. All the prominent boxers will be secured to box in bouts.

Britt Will Not Fight for Some Time.

Jimmy Britt, the light-weight champion of California, will not fight again for months. The death of his sister as a result of exposure following the earthquake in San Francisco has had such a serious effect on him that he has declared off his bout with Kid Herman, which was to have been fought at the Pacific A. C., of Los Angeles, Cal., in June.

Good Bout for Marlborough A. C.

Matchmaker Joe Palkey has arranged a splendid bout for the star attraction at the next card of the Marlborough A. C., on Monday night. He has secured Amby McGarry, the husky light-weight, of the Bronx, to meet Joe Younger, of Buffalo, in a six-round bout. As these men put up a slashing fight for four rounds at the Long Acre A. C. a few weeks ago, the chances are that both will be in condition, their coming battle will be one of the hardest fought seen in this city in many a day.

Neil Flicks Out of Attell Fight.

Frankie Neil, the California featherweight, who was matched to box Abe Attell twenty rounds before the Pacific A. C., of Los Angeles, Cal., on May 4 for the feather-weight championship of the world, has flunked out of the match, and is on his way to Chicago. After learning that Neil had disqualified, Matchmaker McCarey signed Kid Herman, of Chicago, to fight Attell twenty rounds on May 11 for a purse of $3,500. They will box at 128 pounds.

"Chick" Tucker to Box Rice.

After much trouble Matchmaker Johnny Oliver, of the Twentieth Century A. C., has finally secured an opponent for "Chick" Tucker, the hard-hitting feather-weight of the Avenia A. C. The pugilist engaged is Austin Rice. He will meet Tucker for four rounds in the semi-wind-up to the Marvin Hart-Mike Schreck contest to be fought at the club's opening stag on Thursday night. Tucker is training for the bout, and will be in fit shape when he meets Rice.

Another Boxing Club for New York.

Another new club has been formed in this city for the purpose of holding boxing stags. It is the Critic A. C., and will give its opening show in Lyric Hall, Forty-second street and Sixth avenue, on May 10. Tommy Murphy, the Harlem fighter, will meet some good boy in the star bout of four rounds. An effort is being made to get Johnny Allen, of Philadelphia, who beat Murphy so easily, to box Murphy. The club ought to be one of the best in town, as the people behind it are well acquainted with the sport.

Boxing at Ulmer Park in Summer.

The Bernard A. C., which is the best club holding boxing stags in Brooklyn, has secured a lease on Ulmer Park, where the club will hold its shows during the summer. These shows will be pulled off every Friday night and some of the best boxers in the profession will be matched to meet in four-round bouts. The main event for the opening star will probably be between Amby McGarry and Charley Seager.

CONFEDERATE—Seven furlongs in 1.31 3-5, breezing; 110 pounds up. Looks well and ready any day.

GREEN ROOM—Five furlongs in 1.04, breezing; 110 pounds up. Has plenty of speed, but seems to lack courage. May want a soft track.

DAINTY—Six furlongs in 1.18, breezing; 110 pounds up. Training well and almost ready to go to the post.

PROPER—One mile in 1.50, breezing; 115 pounds up. Doing well and can start any day wanted.

GALLOPS AT SHEEPSHEAD.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, May 1.—The storm of yesterday left the track at Sheepshead Bay decidedly heavy for this morning's work. In fact, the track was unexpectedly bad, showing that it must have been drenched with an immense quantity of water.

In such going fast work was not to be looked for, and in most cases the trainers were content with simply breezing their horses.

Under such trying conditions the best workouts follow:

DON ROYAL—One mile in 1.55, breezing. Is improving with every work.

CHRYSOLITE—Three furlongs in 0.39 2-5, handily. Does not appear to be of much account.

PRINCE FORTUNATAS—Three furlongs in 0.37 2-5, easily. Like his full brother, Major Daingerfield, he is a great mud runner.

MONNING—One mile in 1.53, galloping. Very ordinary.

TILING—A half-mile in 0.52 3-5, handily. Any kind of going suits this fellow.

CEDARSTROM—Six furlongs in 1.29 4-5, breezing. Oil in the can when he goes.

RAINY HOURS—Four furlongs in 0.51, breezing. Not very impressive.

HAZELWOOD—Three-quarters of a mile in 1.18, handily. Tab this fellow as being a good mud runner.

HAMBURG BELLE—Six furlongs in 1.17 4-5, easing up. All tricks look alike to her. This mare is the one all will have to beat in the Metropolitan Handicap. She is as good as she ever was at any time last season, and 122 pounds, her impost in the classic, will be no burden for her to carry one mile.

MY FAIRY—A half-mile in 0.58, breezing.

THORNBRUSH — Four furlongs in 0.53 1-2, galloping.

BRINDOORAN—Six furlongs in 1.27. This is nothing.

KIAMESHA—Three furlongs in 0.39, on the bit. Must is her long suit.

CHARLES SHEENEY—A half-mile in 0.54, breezing. Asked as if he could run in the mud.

LEO SWATTS—Four furlongs in 0.54 4-5, breezing. All that was asked of him.

"YOUNG CORBETT" BEATEN IN ANOTHER BATTLE

Dick Hyland Hands Little Denverite Fearful Lacing, and Police Stop Bout in Fifth Round to Save Him from Knockout.

OGDEN, Utah, May 1.—"Young Corbett," the Denver pugilist and ex-feather-weight champion, was beaten again in a battle here last night. He met Fighting Dick Hyland, the sturdy lightweight of California, and was so badly punished in the fifth round that the police in order to save him from being knocked out jumped into the ring and stopped the one-sided battle.

From the beginning of the contest until it was interrupted Corbett did not have a chance to win from his much younger opponent. He was overweight, and besides was not in as good shape as it was expected he would be. Hyland was in splendid condition, and the moment the bell sounded for the opening round he rushed at Corbett and began to send in terrific blows to his body and jaw. Corbett fought on the defensive.

In the fourth round a series of wallops to the stomach and jaw made Corbett groggy and the bell saved him from being put out. Hyland started out to finish Corbett in the fifth, but the interference of the police prevented him from doing so. A large crowd of spectators witnessed the battle.

HOW IT ALL HAPPENED OVER IN BROOKLYN

By HARRY BURKE.

(Special Correspondence from Brooklyn.)

We are sorry to relate that the Philadelphia Baseball Club was in our midst yesterday. No hard feelings, Hughey, but you certainly browned us to a turn.

Among our prominent citizens who saw us get buried was our well-known sexton, Mr. William J. Burrill. You don't miss many funerals, do you, Bill?

Our Democratic near-Czar, Mr. Patrick McCarren, was not at the game. He was busy at home building some new fences. What color are you going to paint 'em, Pat? The Standard color nowadays is gold.

Mr. Duffy, who says you hail from Sleeptytown? We are a city of cemeteries, but you didn't give us a ghost of a show.

In our town we are a quiet, easy-going, slender people. We take the obesity cure at the bridge, play tag with the trolley juggernauts and swap yarns at the general store, but at 4 o'clock once in a while of a sunshiny day we try to throw off the effects of our sleeping potion at Washington Park. But—

Mr. Patsy Donovan!

Why didn't you have the berths made up yesterday?

Mr. Casey was at the bat again. Our hats are off to you, Mr. Casey. We have called you roly-poly and we have intimated that you waddle, but you certainly know how to swat the Spalding.

And right here let us remark that Mr. Hummel took the lemon in one swallow. His wagon in the seventh was a beauty, but we would like to know why he beat it to second on Mr. Bergen's fly and go stung by the busy bees, Messrs. Magee and Doolin?

Our former Sheriff, Mr. Buttling, was on the rooters' bench as usual. Pretty hanging execution, Sheriff. You've done better yourself.

And our dramatic purveyor, Mr. Corse Payton, missed it all. Fixing up another stolen menu, Course?

Mr. H. Marcell and Mr. Hoxie, of our Union League Club, saw us go down to defeat. Touch not, O Lucky Sequens.

But our worthy president, Mr. Ebbets, took his medicine graceful like. You're pretty much used to it, Pres.

Mr. Ward, Mr. Magee and Mr. Bransfield, of the Quakers, must be the leading elders. They pass the plate nearly every time they come to the bat.

Mr. W. Stevens was in the land. We recall that it was Mr. Stevens who tipped Mr. Ebbets off regarding Ames and Scanlon. Mr. Amos, where wert thou? Mr. Scanlon was in the very centre of our midst.

Mr. Patrick H. McLaughlin, formerly our esteemed police inspector, saw us get it. Didn't you have any left-over warrants Pat?

PIRATES DECLINE CATCHER RITTER

Catcher Ritter, of the Brooklyns, is evidently suffering from religious mania. He recently joined a religious society, and now positively refuses to play Sunday baseball. Charlie Ebbets is not so scrupulous and can't afford to carry a player who won't wear a uniform seven days a week.

Ebbets offered Ritter to Pittsburg, but the Smoky City club declined the offer with thanks, notwithstanding the fact that they are in want of a backstop, having but two available catchers fit for service. Ebbets has not as yet decided what he intends to do with Ritter.

ASHLEY AND COTE DRAW.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 1.—George Ashley, of Fall River, and Arthur Cote, the Maine champion, fought a twelve-round draw at the Valley Falls A. C. last night. For ten rounds it was a toss up, with neither boy hurt at any stage. In the middle of the tenth Ashley's left was rendered helpless from an injured forearm, and the bout ended tamely, with Cote loth to take advantage of his handicap over the Fall River boy.

MELLODY DID NOT APPEAR.

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—Honey Mellody, of Boston, was billed to meet Harry Lewis at the Washington Sporting Club last night. On Saturday he accepted two round-trip tickets from Boston to this city, and not only failed to appear here, but sent no explanation for his failure to honor his contract. As a result, the patrons of the club were disappointed, and Mellody was roundly denounced as a rank counterfeit.

SMITH-CARROLL BOUT VERY TAME

Men Boxed So Poorly at Marlborough A. C. that Spectators Left.

If there were a prize offered for pugilists who could furnish the tamest exhibition of boxing Sammy Smith, of Philadelphia, and Johnny Carroll, of this city, would win it so easily between them that there would be no need of any judges making the award. These two gentlemen pugilists met in the star bout of six rounds at the stag of the Marlborough A. C. last night and they boxed so lightly that there was not even a bead of perspiration on their foreheads when the bell clanged ending the tame encounter.

When announcer Joe Falvey introduced the principals before the bout began, and also added that it would be the final exhibition of the evening, he told the truth for once in his life. It was an exhibition all right, all right, and it is a safe bet of dollars to doughnuts that these fighters will never again be asked to meet each other in a bout in this vicinity. After the exhibition which they put up last night Carroll and Smith ought to take the first steamer to England, hunt up Peggy Bettinson, machmaker of the National Sporting Club, of London, tell him what a clever exhibition they had put up in America, and the chances are they would be signed to go through a fifteen-round bout at that club.

Without any exaggeration the contest was the tamest and most lovable one that the local sporting fans have witnessed in this vicinity in many years. Smith, with his usual cleverness, jabbed Carroll repeatedly in the face throughout the six rounds, and by side-stepping and clever ducking avoided Carroll's right swings for his jaw. In the second round, however, Carroll landed twice on Smith's jaw, and again in the sixth he nailed Sammy on the jaw again. These were the only good blows Carroll scored on his clever opponent. Smith easily outpointed Carroll, and was entitled to the decision if one had been rendered.

After the third round the spectators began to leave the hall, being disgusted at the tame boxing. At the end of the sixth round the spectators loudly hooted the boxers as they left the ring. If the bout had gone ten rounds the only persons in the hall to see them finish probably would have been the seconds of the men, Referee Charley White and the timekeeper.

In the other bouts Blink McCloskey bested Dick Miller, Bob Moore defeated George Kitson, Tommy Downs easily won from Owney Flynn, and Young French beat Harry Phillips.

BALDWIN WINS FROM M'NALLY.

WEBSTER, Mass., May 1.—Matty Baldwin, of Charlestown, made Young McNally, of New York, stop in the fourth round of a fifteen-round scheduled bout at a meeting of the Lakeside A. C. last night. In that round Baldwin floored McNally three times with right and left swings to the jaw. The last time McNally failed to continue.

"Kid" Abel, of Chicago, was scheduled to box Baldwin, but the club management reported Abel was not in condition to box.

Murphy to Box Attell in Garden.

Abe Attell and Tommy Murphy, the feather-weight of Harlem, are to meet in a six-round bout before the Twentieth Century A.C. in Madison Square Garden in the near future, Johnny Oliver, manager of Murphy, told the writer last night that he had decided to let his protege meet Attell, and as soon as Attell arrives in town he will clinch the match. The bout between these boys ought to attract a big crowd, as both have a big following.

MOTOR-BOAT FAD CATCHES NEW YORK

Builders Are All Busy, and Sport Promises to Break Records This Season.

The season of 1906 promises to be a record-breaker in the motor-boat line. All the shipbuilding yards around New York are rushing the August deliveries. Since the motor-boat show at the Garden most of them have been working night and day.

So far no definite plans have been made for races on the Hudson, but there will be a series of races at the Thousand Islands. E. Langdon Barclay, of the St. James Building, who is known as the Barney Oldfield of the motor-boat world, will race an Italia motor-boat at the Thousand Islands. He has taken the American agency for the Italia, Morse and Dalahai motors, and has just concluded an arrangement with the Milton Point Shipyards, at Rye, to supply the hulls.

"The motor-boat craze has taken a strong hold on the public," said Mr. Barclay to-day. "The marine architects and builders are overrun with orders. Nearly every New Yorker who has a country place is in the market for a boat. The boats this year will be better and faster than ever."
