SPORTING EDITOR'S ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Will you please let me know through the columns of The Evening World how the Washington team stood at the end of the season? Also, who finished last and third and if Washington ever was in first place any time during the season? By doing so you will oblige me very much. A CONSTANT READER.

At the end of the season the American League clubs stood thus: Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Cleveland, New York, Washington, St. Louis. Washington was in the lead for four or five days.

Will you please decide this bet? Mr. David Powis bets that man has been up in the air seven miles. Will you please tell him the record of the highest balloon ascension? Trusting that it will not be too much trouble to send a paper with the information I thank you in advance for your kindness. Very truly, JOE WOLLEY.

No. 172 Orange street, Newark, N. J.

Apply to the Aero Club, 753 Fifth avenue. Some baseball pitchers we have known have soared high, but there is no altitude column in the scorer's book.

Would you kindly settle an argument as to who is the best 105 pound boxer now boxing before our local clubs? The boxers in question are George Kilson, Young Frenchie, Charlie Goldman, Phillie McGovern, Battling Chester or Bennie Franklin. In your opinion who do you think is the best fighter, and who is the cleverest boxer? A. G. L.

Schumacher is considered the best at this weight. Matter of opinion about those you mention.

McGann Did Play with Brooklyn.

A few days ago it was stated in this column that Dan McGann never played with Brooklyn. This was a mistake due to the fact that writer was under the impression that query referred to last five years. McGann did play with Brooklyn a short while several years ago. After which he went to St. Louis, where his career really started.

Will you kindly publish the ages of the players of the New York National League team? A bets that the youngest is nineteen and the oldest is thirty-five. B bets that the youngest is twenty-two and the oldest thirty-four. By publishing this you will greatly oblige A CONSTANT READER.

See Evening World of April 25, sporting page. Contains ages of every member of the club. "Hans" Mathewson is youngest, being nineteen years of age.

Please let me know if I can get the Morning and Evening World of Oct. 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 1905. You will greatly oblige J. F. M.

SHERIDAN WINNING DISCUS THROW AT ATHENS.

ELECTRIC TINGLE IN THE ATHENS CHEER, SAYS EDGREN

Evening World's Special Correspondent with the American Athletes at the Olympic Games Tells of His Experiences.

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

ATHENS, April 26.—An idea of the enormous crowd that gathered to witness the opening of the Olympic games may be gathered from a photograph I send herewith. Greater crowds have assembled in the United States on numerous occasions, such as the Dewey parade in New York or the World's Fair opening in Chicago, but these great crowds were scattered. In and around the Stadium on the opening day there were grouped fully 100,000 people, and you could see them all from a good point of vantage.

Every spectator could see the contestants in the Stadium, too, but few could recognize the colors of the athletes. To those seated on the high tiers the competitors appeared to be slow-moving midgets. A bulletin board would have been useless, because not half the crowd could have made out the letters had they been ten feet tall. Even the stentorian voice of our Charlie Harvey would have been lost in the immense space before it got away from him. A system of signalling, with flags of the countries of the winners, communicated the identities of the victors to the crowd with satisfactory promptness.

Roar of 100,000.

On the opening day there were 70,000 spectators in the Stadium and between 20,000 and 30,000 on the hill behind. The presence of this great multitude and the subdued roar of their voices gave an electric tingle to the otherwise heavy air.

Another photograph I send with this letter is that of Martin Sheridan getting into motion for his winning throw with the discus, free style. The snap was made a few seconds before he poised himself for the throw that the foremost athletes in the world at that line of sport could not equal.

This event was not contested in the Stadium. The great crowd would have made it dangerous should the saucer-like missile have slipped from the hand of any of the contestants and spun off at a tangent. A tap on the head with a discus impelled with all the force of a strong arm might possibly be followed by a funeral.

The discus, free-style throw, was held in a gymnasium or athletic ground near the Stadium. Sheridan's throwing in this style in practice had attracted the attention of all of his rivals, and every man who could get around him, crowded to see his work. His chief rival, Georgantas, the Greek, was palpably nervous, for he had been depended upon to sweep the board in the discus-throwing events.

There was tremendous enthusiasm when Sheridan won. He was almost knocked off his feet by a throng of French, Greek, German, Italian and English press photographers anxious to get his picture for their various publications. Martin good naturedly posed in half a dozen attitudes until all the ambitious snapshotters were satisfied.

They Needed the Money.

Our Hellenic friends were quite thrifty in their management of the games. The photograph privilege was held for the money there was in it. The fee for taking a camera into the Stadium was heavy enough to buy a photograph gallery.

We invented all sorts of sports and pastimes to while away the tedious hours on our voyage from New York. I send you a snapshot of Ray Ewry and his wife with the boxing gloves on. Mrs. Ewry knows how to handle herself in a boxing bout, but she could not get near her limber husband when he took a notion to jump. He leaps backward as though he had springs in his feet. Martin Sheridan can be seen dancing around the Ewrys vs Ewry contest, acting as referee.

FAST TRACK BRINGS OUT RACE HORSES FOR TRIALS

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, May 11.—The training conditions at the Bay course this morning were most pleasant. The track had dried out considerably, and every man and his horse was out. There was considerable fair work indulged in, and the scene during the work hours was an animated one. The best workouts shown during the galloping hours follow:

LARABIE—Six furlongs in 1.24, breezing. Looks well after his race and is sure to repeat his victory at an early date.

GRENADE—Three-quarters of a mile in 1.20 1-2, galloping. His slight let up has done him good.

RAPPAHANOCK—Five furlongs in 1.10 2-5, breezing. Was on the bit all the way.

LADY VALENTINE—Six furlongs in 1.21, handily. Will do, but must be cheap company.

PRINCE FREDERICK—Three furlongs in 0.42, breezing. Looks well and a colt of which much is expected.

SOMMERS—A half-mile in 0.55 2-5, handily. Does not appear to be much.

ROYAL NIBS—Four furlongs in 0.56, breezing.

DESCEND—Six furlongs in 1.19, handily. Has filled out into a nice three-year-old filly.

HIGH RANK—Three-quarters of a mile in 1.20, driving. Was doing his best in the cuppy going.

JAMES N.—One mile in 1.45, galloping. Nice work for this maiden, taking the track into consideration.

TURBULENCE—A half-mile in 0.50, breezing. Was left at the post in his only start.

BELLE OF BRIGHTON—Four furlongs in 0.56 1-2, handily. Looks like a good filly.

GOLDEN WEST—A half mile in 0.56, breezing. A good filly; tab her.

SIR ANGELUS—Six furlongs in 1.22 3-5, driving. Does not appear to be much.

GOLDEN SHORE—Five furlongs in 1.07, breezing. De Mund has nothing in this fellow.

BLUETTE—A half mile in 0.53, easily. Can run for a short ways.

TIPPING—Six furlongs in 1.20, handily. A filly with a lot of early foot.

PRUDENTIAL GIRL—Six furlongs in 1.20 1-2, driving. Very ordinary.

HOLLOWAY—Three-quarters of a mile in 1.23, breezing.

ARTERY—A half mile in 0.51 1-2, very easily. Bear this colt in mind as he is a good one; started in the Futurity last season.

SNOW—Six furlongs in 1.26 1-2, breezing, just a common gallop, for this trick was in hand all the way.

SOUTHERN CROSS—Three furlongs in 0.39, under wraps. Is full of vim and anxious to extend himself.

KIAMESHA—Six furlongs in 1.20, breezing. This mare has not acted as well this spring as she did no-day. Tab her for her first appearance.

BLAIR ATHOL—Three furlongs in 0.40, handily. Has very bad underpinning.

GAMECOCK—One and one-eighth miles in 2.01 1-2, handily. Exceptionally good work for this jumper. Was in hand all the way.

DEL CANTA—One and one-eighth miles in 2.01, on the bit. Part of his preparation for the Whitney Memorial.

JIMMIE BRITT ARRIVES EAGER FOR BATTLES

Fat and rosy and eager for battles to fill his earthquake-shaken purse, Jimmie Britt arrived in New York this afternoon from San Francisco.

He will appear at the benefit in Madison Square Garden Saturday night, and at a later date he will try his skill against Terry McGovern before the Twentieth Century Athletic Club. His brother Willie accompanies him.

"All I saved was my Broadway clothes," said Jimmie. "I have them in this little grip. I am going to meet McGovern, and I hope to meet the winner of the Nelson-Herrera fight. Nelson was lucky to get the decision over me the last time.

"I was in bed in my home when the earthquake struck the city. Two days later I moved my sister to San Mateo, but the shock was too much for her."

Willie Britt could not explain how the story started that he had been shot by a member of the committee. He said the sporting men of 'Frisco did good work in relieving the suffering. He said:

"I was in the Majestic Cafe in Market street when the shock came. I hunted up Jim Coffroth and we threw open the Mechanics' Pavilion. Harry Corbett also threw open his grounds. The day after the disaster I was in the bread line with a lot of millionaires."

ATTEL AND HERMAN TO-NIGHT

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

An important fistic battle is to be decided in the ring of the Pacific A. C., of Los Angeles, Cal., to-night. The fighters who will clash in it will be Abe Attell, the feather-weight champion of the world, and Kid Hermann, of Chicago, who has certainly been doing some great fighting during the last fourteen months. They will box a twenty-round bout at 125 pounds. Attell is giving away about six pounds to the husky Chicago fighter. Hermann is the favorite in the betting, the sports out there offering odds of 10 to 8 on his chances.

McKeever to Box Sailor Burke.

Charley McKeever, the Philadelphia welter-weight, and Sailor Burke were matched last night to try conclusions in a six-round bout at the next stag of the Long Acre A. C., which is to be brought off on Thursday night. McKeever is still able to shoot in that famous left-hand jab of his which beat many a good one not so many years ago. As he stood Honey Mellody off for eleven rounds he ought to be able to give Burke a hard battle for six.

Hart Stabbed, Knocks Out Assailant.

Marvin Hart, the Louisville heavy-weight, scored a knockout in his town a few nights ago. He got into an argument with a man named Kelly in a saloon over his recent battle with Mike Schreck. Kelly suddenly whipped out a knife and stabbed Hart in the left thigh. Quick as a flash Hart swung his right to Kelly's jaw and knocked him completely out. It was fully ten minutes before Kelly regained consciousness. Hart refused to make a charge against his assailant.

Dick Hyland to Box Charley Neary.

The defeat of "Kid" Goodman by Matty Baldwin has resulted in Goodman losing his coming bout with Charley Neary, which was to have been decided before the Lincoln A. C., of Chelsea, Mass., on May 18. In his place Matchmaker Willie Pierce has signed Fighting Dick Hyland, the California light-weight, who recently defeated Young Corbett in five rounds. Neary and Hyland will box fifteen rounds at catch weights.

CLOSE CONTEST IN BOWLING TOURNEY

John Koster tightened his grip on second money in the Greater New York individual bowling tournament by defeating George Haller at the Harlem Circle alleys last night. Koster has now two series in a home-and-home schedule with Johnny Voorheis which he must win. Vooheis and Koster roll at the Morningside Saturday night.

Jimmy Smith will win first prize, he having won sixteen out of nineteen series to date. Voorheis, who has got several series to roll, is now second and Koster a close third. Scores last night:

Koster—210, 196, 227, 210, 224, 292, 267. Average, 219.

Haller—207, 182, 225, 195, 185, 218, 206, Average, 202.

Bowlers in New Body.

Failure of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws to make a report at a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Grand Central Alleys, Brooklyn, caused a postponement of any definite action in organizing a new bowling association as anticipated. The session was occupied in the discussion of a plan for individual registration of bowlers, under which, in order to compete in any tournament, it would be first necessary to join this organization, the fee being $1. The plan is similar to that of the old League of American Wheelmen. It was stated that the new body would not be antagonistic to the American Bowling Congress, the present National Association. No definite action was taken at yesterday's meeting, which adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

Match Bowling Contests.

Two match bowling contests have been arranged at Heissenbuttel's Broadway Academy, Brooklyn. Mack and Schrader roll the best six out of eleven games to-night for $50 a side, and Monday night Bert Allen and George Roechlau roll a similar series for $150.

GRAVESEND GALLOPS.

GRAVESEND TRACK, May 11.—The local track was somewhat improved over yesterday, but was still quite heavy. The weather was also cool. No fast work was attempted. The following being the best noted:

MISS OGDEN—Six furlongs in 1.23 1-5, breezing, 100 pounds up. Has quite a little speed and is fit.

JESSAMINE—Six furlongs in 1.23 1-5, galloping, 105 pounds up. Going seems to suit her.

GREETING—Four furlongs in 0.52 2-5, handily, 118 pounds up. Has not shown much.

TENEZ—Four furlongs in 0.52 3-5, breezing, 110 pounds up. Quite a nice colt and is fit.

LONSDALE—Four furlongs in 0.56, breezing, 100 pounds up. Looks well and is almost ready to race.

ORANGE AND BLUE—Four furlongs in 0.56, breezing, 103 pounds up. Has not shown much.

MARIUS CAIUS—Four furlongs in 0.52 3-5, breezing, 110 pounds up. Can go to the post any day.

BOHEMIAN—Six furlongs in 1.24 3-5, breezing, 110 pounds up. As fit as she can be made.

COMMUNIPAW—Four furlongs in 0.52 3-5, breezing, 110 pounds up. Has speed and should be a winner soon.

TRUE VERDICT—Four furlongs in 0.56 2-5, handily, 100 pounds up. Has not shown much.

POGHENIA BELLE—Four furlongs in 0.51 3-5, handily, 105 pounds up. Only a cheap plater.

CONVILLE—Four furlongs in 0.53 3-5, breezing, 100 pounds up. A nice colt and sure to win soon.

WATERFALL—Three furlongs in 0.39, breezing, 110 pounds up. Has shown very little.

ARKLIRTA—Three furlongs, 0.39 2-5, breezing, 105 pounds up. Is fit and has his speed.

UNCLE URIGH—One mile in 1.49 1-5, handily, 100 pounds up. Can be sent to the post any day.

GERANIUM—Five furlongs in 1.07, breezing, 100 pounds up. Seems good and has speed.

WHIMSICAL—Four furlongs 0.52 3-5, breezing, 100 pounds up. She is full of run and is at her best.
