SEEK NURSE WHO SAW BROUWER'S WIFE AT DEATH

Woman Present with Doctor at Last Moment Is Out of State.

TOMS RIVER, N. J., May 25.—Although Dr. Frank Brouwer is in jail here, charged with having murdered his wife by administering arsenic and ground glass, Prosecutor Theodore J. R. Brown is not satisfied that others are not implicated in the case, and, in an effort to get all the evidence available, he will go to Trenton to-day and ask if one witness cannot be extradited from Pennsylvania.

The witness is Miss Alice Horlock, a trained nurse of the highest reputation, who was with Mrs. Brouwer when she died in agony. Miss Horlock is now out of the jurisdiction of the State and she refuses to return. It is believed that the young woman simply shrinks from notoriety. Miss Horlock lives at No. 250 West Logan Square, West Philadelphia.

Miss Horlock was the nurse who attended Mrs. Brouwer after the Long Branch nurses, Miss Emma Dudley and Miss Anna Lippincott, had been dismissed. Mrs. Brouwer at that time was said to be on the road to recovery, and at 9 o'clock on the night of Sept. 24, the second day of Miss Horlock's services, Dr. Brouwer went to his wife's bedside and told Miss Horlock to go to bed and get some rest.

She did this and was awakened at midnight by the shrieks and groans of Mrs. Brouwer. The husband and nurse were alone with the patient for three hours and forty-five minutes, during all of which time Mrs. Brouwer was shrieking and clutching her breast. These symptoms immediately preceded her agonizing death. No physician was called.

The prosecution will endeavor to prove that ground glass was the cause of the several hours of excruciating suffering immediately preceding Mrs. Brouwer's death.

Dr. Frank Brouwer has been visited by his aged mother, Mrs. Ann Caverly, and his brother, Frederick Brouwer, of Forked River.

The doctor's mother assured her son of her belief in his innocence, and pledged herself to spend the last dollar of her fortune, estimated at about $60,000, to bring about his acquittal.

The Long Branch Memorial Hospital nurses, Emma Dudley and Anna Lippincott, whose appearance before the Grand Jury was voluntary, and Dr. H. H. Cate, who signed the death certificate, were served with subpoenas directing them to appear at the trial in September.

Miss Stella McClenahan, who has suddenly come to the front as an eager witness against the alleged murderer, is the woman of whom Mrs. Brouwer was jealous and about whom the couple quarrelled just before the wife met her death. She was the doctor's patient before his wife died. After that he brought her into his home as governess for his children.

Although report all along has linked her name closely with the events attending Mrs. Brouwer's death Miss McClenahan has held aloof from the authorities. Until yesterday Prosecutor Brown said he had never spoken to her. Her attitude had been regarded as favorable to Dr. Brouwer, but now she is like others of the doctor's neighbors who formerly avoided the investigation. Hers is among several tongues that the Grand Jury's action has untied. Prosecutor Brown, of course, would not reveal the details of her disclosures.

"I must refrain at this time," he said, "from giving the story. I cannot afford to arm the defense by making known what I have learned. I will say, however, that this new evidence has removed all possibility that our case against Dr. Brouwer may fail."

REV. DR. HENRY VAN DYKE

ADDS VERSES TO "AMERICA"

Reunited Presbyterians Sing Dr. Van Dyck's New Lines with Fervor.

I love thy inland seas,
Thy capes and giant trees,
Thy rolling plains;
Thy canyons, wild and deep;
Thy prairies' boundless sweep,
Thy rocky mountains steep,
Thy fertile mains.

Thy domes, thy silvery strands,
Thy Golden Gate that stands
Afront the West;
Thy sweet and crystal air,
Thy sunlight everywhere—
O land beyond compare,
I love thee best!

At the closing session of the General Presbyterian Assembly at Des Moines, Ia., Dr. Henry S. Van Dyck, of New York, making an eloquent plea for the California sufferers, recited the above verse which he had added to the old "America." The original hymn, he said, seemed intended exclusively for New England, and he had endeavored humbly to make it more comprehensive.

The Assembly sang the new verses with fervor, when a resolution was passed sweeping away the differences with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which makes a united Presbyterian Church all over the United States.

ABRAHAM AND STRAUS. BROOKLYN

Store Opens 8.30 A. M., Closes 6 P. M.

750 Beautiful New Silk Dresses at $9.75

Made to Sell at $15 to $29.75.

If ever there was a sale characteristic of Abraham and Straus this is the sale. It is significant of the great economies possible to all women who follow the advertisements of Brooklyn's Great Store. Manhattan stores have heralded sales of Silk Dresses at Underpricing—and they are remarkable. But these beautiful effects are not only easily better value, better made and more generously made than the dresses they sold, but are STILL LOWER IN PRICE.

In the first place there are yards more material in the skirt alone—more material in the Suit than could be purchased to-day at $9.75. No skimping anywhere and the material is infinitely better in quality, the styles smarter and more correct. Very excellent taffeta silk and the colorings are the favored shades for Summer, including navy blue, reseda green, gray, brown, coral, light blue, pink, and black, with plenty of smart stripes and checks. There are not enough of any one style to make it common and the majority are accurate copies of Paris models—daintily trimmed with bands of silk braid, laces, buttons, etc. Sizes 32 to 42.

We hold this Sale on Saturday at the request of many teachers who requested that the next extraordinary sale of Suits be held on a day when they might take advantage of it. Special space has been prepared in rear of Rotunda, Second Floor, Central Building. None sent C. O. D.

MEN'S WEAR

How Experts Regard That Famous $9.85 Serge Suit for Men.

The Daily Trade Record of New York, an independent trade critic, carries the following editorial comment:

Brooklyn—A "Leader" Indeed—A few days ago we noted a serge suit offering at $9.85 by Abraham & Straus, which, they said, was made up of "the celebrated Peace Dale serge," positively worth every cent of $12.50. An authority said yesterday that this Peace Dale serge which Abraham & Straus are offering in these $9.85 suits would to-day cost $1.40 a yard. Abraham & Straus are acquiring a very general reputation for selling clothing close. This $9.85 offering has been a leader with Abraham & Straus for several years.

The "Record" might have added that the Suit is better than ever for this Summer.
