BROOKLYN BOY WINS THE JERSEY CYCLING DERBY

W. Raleigh First to Cross Line and F. W. Eifler Gets Time Prize.

(Special to The Evening World.)

HILTON, N. J., May 30.—With a handicap of six and one-half minutes, W. Raleigh, of Brooklyn, to-day captured the Irvington-Millburn 25-mile cycle road race in 1 hour 14 mins. and 55 secs. Clinton Ayres, of Newark, was second, with seven minutes start, and F. Montville, of Newark, was third. F. W. Eifler, of New York, won the time prize, his time being 1 hour 11 4-5 mins.—four minutes behind the record.

The fourth man was B. Petterson, Newark; T. Bizzarri, New York; H. Gottschalk, Newark; F. L. Foster, Brooklyn; B. N. Buschafer, C. James, G. Nussman, C. Lange and P. Schmidt finished in the order named.

Thousands of men and women lined the course. It was the eighteenth annual running of the race.

Just before the start of the Irvington-Millburn 25-mile cycle road race the Racing Committee of the Bayview Wheelmen decided to accept the entries of nearly two score riders whose names had been received too late for the programme. This increased the number of starters to 130, much above the average. Among the late comers were Bray, Rhodes and Ericsson, three Long Island riders who had been cleaning up everything in the road racing line on the Merrick Road this spring. They were not looked upon favorably by the handicappers, however, as the only Long Islander to be placed on the post of honor at scratch was Edgar Van Veltsers, of Oyster Bay, who has frequently scored in the road races on the Coney Island cycle path. His mates at scratch included William Hofses, last year's winner; Jimmy Zanes, a colored racer; George Wiley, L. J. Weintz and J. G. Halgin.

Bill Pitman was referee as usual. In fact, there are many who think the cycle-derby would lack its usual zest if "Old Happy Days" was not the court of final resort for the numerous protests that are lodged with the racing committee.

With such a large field the limit men were given a handicap of seven minutes over the back markers. The presence of a round score of racers from Boston and vicinity gave promise of a hard fought race. The record for the twenty-five miles is 1 hour 7 3-5 minutes, and it was expected these figures will be lowered.

The first squad of riders, headed by Clint Ayres, of Newark, was sent away at 11.46. The others in groups of ten or so followed at 30 seconds intervals. A cooling breeze sprang up just before the start and this was hailed as a godsend by the riders. Although there were men stationed every mile along the route to keep the riders cooled by spraying water on them, this was insufficient under a hot sun.

Before the first lap was covered the riders were covered with dust to an extent to render them almost unrecognizable except for their numbers. The racing jerseys, alternately drenched by attendants and then coated with dust, soon assumed a universal drab color relieved only by the number painted on a square of oil cloth on the riders' back.

As usual, before the first quarter of the race was over, broken wheels and cut and bruised riders began to appear at the finish line.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CELTIC PARK, L. I., May 30.—An immense crowd attended the opening of the outdoor athletic season on the grounds of the Irish-American Athletic Club this afternoon. The presence of the Olympic athletes proved to be a great attraction.

The candidates for the boys' relay race were weighed by Inspectors E. Hart, Mohawk A. C., and J. Stumpf, Grace A. C. They found Mason and Stang, of P. S. 19, a trifle over a pound too heavy; Tillman, P. S. 25; R. McAuliffe, No. 18, and J. Pruss, No. 14, were also found too heavy, and the inspectors sent them on the track in the hope of running off the extra weight.

Lawson Robertson, of the Irish-American A. C., wearing the colors of the American team at Athens, finished second in his heat in the 100 yards. A brisk breeze blew against the runners up the homestretch, which made fast time impossible.

There were three heats in the 440-yard novice, with sixteen starters in each. When Martin Sheridan, of the Irish-American A. C., world's champion discus thrower, appeared on the grounds he walked lame with his knee, which was injured at Athens, bandaged. He received an ovation as he entered the field.

60,000 AT BELMONT TRACK; RACE CROWD RECORD IS BROKEN.

lowed by Racine II. and Gallant. They ran this way to the stretch, where The Cricket closed and quickly raced into the lead. In the run home the Cricket clearly stalled off a rush by Colossal in the last furlong and won by 1 1-2 lengths. Colossal was three lengths in front of Racine II.

Desert Chief Fell.

Desert Chief, the imported steeplechaser, set a terrific pace in the steeplechase. He killed off Balzac, who attempted to keep pace with him and the others were carried at record clip. They ran this way for the first mile, when Balzac quit and Ray closed up with Good and Plenty. At the end of a mile and a half Desert Chief began to tire and quit a mile from home he fell. Good and Plenty then went to the front and stalling off Ben Crockett's challenge won by half a dozen lengths from Ben Crockett, who was thirty lengths in front of Delcanta.

Burgomaster Romps In.

Burgomaster and Pegasus, coupled, were favorites in the Belmont at odds on, and the public eagerly accepted the price. Burgomaster went to the front at once and never relinquished the lead. Accountant held second for the first few furlongs, when Pegasus joined Accountant, and the pair passed Burgomaster into the stretch, where The Quail also joined the second division. Pegasus then dropped out of it, and The Quail closed in on Accountant. Lyne was not worried on Burgomaster except in the last furlong, when he sailed on the great colt and he came away winning by four lengths. The Quail outgamed Accountant and snatched the place by a nose. The race was worth $20,700 to the winner.

AUTO PLUNGES WITH OWNER OVER 40-FOOT INCLINE

Reuben J. Taylor, Superintendent of the Continental Insurance Company, Fatally Injured on Riverdale Avenue.

A big touring car driven by Reuben J. Taylor, superintendent of the Continental Insurance Company, to-day fell over a forty-foot incline, turning turtle in midair and fatally crushing him.

Mrs. Taylor had just alighted from the car to let her husband attempt the steep grade of Riverdale avenue at Two Hundred and Thirty-second street and so saved herself.

Mr. Taylor, a hale man of sixty-eight years, who lived at the San Remo Hotel, Central Park West and West Seventy-fifth street, left the hotel with his wife for a spin in their thirty-horse power touring car. Going up Riverdale avenue the grade became so steep that the car made it with great difficulty, occasionally sliding back.

At Two Hundred and Thirty-second street there is a big hollow beside the avenue and no hand rail on the upgrade side. Mrs. Taylor concluded she did not care to attempt to pass the danger point in the car, and was accordingly allowed to get out. Mr. Taylor then prepared to start up the incline.

Car Backed Swiftly.

Whether he made a mistake and reversed, or whether the gear worked wrong, is not learned. The car instead of going up backed swiftly across the sidewalk and fell before Mr. Taylor could jump out. The automobile turned over in mid-air and pinned the owner on the rocks forty feet below.

Policemen Beekman and McNally were called by John Green, who, with Charles Bolte, Andrew Dow and Charles Halberfel, lifted the machine from Taylor and carried him to a drug store. Mrs. Taylor had been prostrated by the terrible spectacle of her husband falling and had been taken to the pharmacy.

Dr. Bourke came in an ambulance from Fordham Hospital, and said that Mr. Taylor was suffering from fractured ribs, concussion and internal injuries.

Taken to Hospital.

Surprise was expressed that he was taken from the wreck alive. He was taken in a dying condition to the hospital, his wife riding in the ambulance with him. She needed attendance on arriving at the hospital.

At the San Remo it was learned that Taylor was superintendent of the Continental Insurance Company, and it was said he had no other relatives in New York.

ATLANTIC YACHT CLUB REGATTA

With the opening and first regatta of the season of the Atlantic Yacht Club to-day was a gala one at Seagate. All the morning there was a constant stream of yachts arriving in the harbor and of automobiles on the mainland. More than fifty new members were taken into the club.

At 12 o'clock a gun boomed from the flagship, Rheclar, and the pennant on every yacht dipped in salute. From then until 1.30 o'clock Commodore Daniel G. Reid received visitors from the other yachts. Among these were the steam yachts Seneca, E. B. Webster Alert, William D. Hoxie; Norman, Vice-Commodore Frank Tilford; the sloops Athlone, J. D. Probst; Lakshire, G. G. McIntosh; Maydick, W. H. Childs; Nymph, W. C. Towen; the schooners Lasca, R. P. Doremus; Andromeda, C. W. Mason; the yawls Lotawana, E. E. Malcolm; Kate, J. I. Negus, and Sekana, Haviland Brothers.

Among the visitors on Commodore Reid's yacht were Fleet Captain M. Whitlock, Fleet Surgeon J. A. Irwin, Alfred W. Booth, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and Rear-Commodore E. B. Havens.

Visitors on other boats were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mix, J. F. Narus, W. H. Redwick, J. Bradley Cummings, F. J. Havens, A. V. Cortelyou, Bartow S. Weeks, A. W. Booth, J. D. Beeg, R. W. Bartram, Louis F. Jackson, F. Franklin, E. L. Prentiss, George H. Church and Messrs. James Dunne, Edgar F. Luckenbach and J. B. O'Donnell.

The races were called at 3 o'clock. They were for all craft below Class K.

BIG OVATION FOR CORNELL'S TRAINER

(Special to The Evening World.)

ITHACA, N. Y., May 30.—Hundreds of Cornell students gathered at the East Ithaca Station to welcome back to Ithaca "Jack" Moakley, the trainer of the victorious track team. Moakley stayed over in Boston to escape the welcome that was awaiting him Sunday, but the students got word that he intended to steal in this morning and were waiting for him. When the trainer alighted from the train a shout went up that was heard away down across the campus and over the hill into the town. Such yelling has never been heard at Ithaca.

Upon the shoulders of the cheering men they carried the trainer and placed him on a pile of stones, where he spoke to the crowd. He said that the men won the victory, that it was not his but theirs and that it was because each man did better than he had ever done before that Cornell won. Moakley was lifted into an automobile and made a triumphal entry into the city.

HIGHLANDERS AGAIN DEFEAT THE SENATORS

pushed a fast roller to Williams, who tossed the ball to Chase in time to retire the twirler. Altizer swung at three slow ones and the Senators took the field. NO RUNS.

Keeler's fly to right was muffed by Stanley, allowing Wee Willie to get two bases on the error. Elberfeld then smashed the ball to the score board in deep left for two bases, scoring Keeler. Chase bunted safely along the third base line, promoting Elberfeld to third. Laporte was thrown out at first by Altizer, Chase reaching second. Williams flied out to Anderson, Elberfeld scoring and Chase reaching third. Conroy sent up a fly which Jones nailed. TWO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Schlafly's high one was gathered in by Conroy. After a hard sprint. Slugger Hickman also banged out a skyscraper, which Moriarty pulled in. Cross was the third Senator to send up a cloud breaker and Moriarty was there when it fell. NO RUNS.

Moriarty's hot grounder was snatched by Hickman, who got the ball home a trifle in time to retire him. Kleinow laced out a two-bagger along the third-base line and crossed the plate a minute later on LeRoy's safe hit just inside the foul line to right. Patten was taken out of the box and Schmidt substituted. Keeler made a pretty bunt in front of the plate, promoting LeRoy to second. Elberfeld singled to right, sending LeRoy over the plate and advancing Keeler to third. Chase singled to the infield, Keeler scoring. Laporte was called out on strikes. Williams singled to left, but Elberfeld was caught at the plate on Anderson's throw to Patten. Elberfeld then abused the umpire and was put out of the game. THREE RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Yeager replaced Elberfeld at short. Anderson flied out to Conroy. Stanley reached first on a hit to the infield. Jones singled to right, promoting Stanley to third. On Keeler's throw to Laporte, Jones reached second. Hayden went out, Williams to Chase, Stanley scoring. Schmidt sent a grass-cutter to Williams and perished at first. ONE RUN.

Conroy slammed the ball to the fence in right centre for three bases. He laid too far off third, however, and was finally run down and touched out by Hayden. Moriarty walked, but was thrown out stealing second. Kleinow was a victim on strikes. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Altizer drew a pass to first. Schlafly tore off a single to left, sending Altizer around to third. Hickman laced out a single, scoring Altizer and sending Schlafly to third. On the throw in Hickman reached second. Cross was called out on strikes. Anderson flied out to Conroy, Schlafly crossing the plate. Williams made a sensational one-hand stop of Stanley's hot grounder and threw him out at first, the crowd loudly applauding. TWO RUNS.

Leroy fanned out weakly. Keeler singled over Schmidt's head. Yeager was hit in the head with a swift inshoot and dropped to the ground. He was unable to continue and left the game, Hoffman taking his place and going to first. Chase was thrown out at first by Altizer, Keeler scoring by fast sprinting. Laporte was out, Cross to Hickman. ONE RUN.

Seventh Inning.

Conroy went to short and Hoffman played center. Jones singled to left. Hayden was a victim of strikes. Schmidt sent a hot grounder to Chase, the ball bounding off Chase's hands and going to Williams, who shot it back to Chase, retiring the batter. Altizer singled, scoring Jones, but in trying to reach second on the hit Altizer was cleanly caught, Leroy throwing the ball to Conroy. ONE RUN.

Williams struck out. Conroy was disposed of by Cross and Hickman. Moriarty fanned out weakly and the inning ended. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Schlafly ambled to first on four balls. Hickman's bounder struck Le Roy's hand and rolled to Conroy, who threw to Williams, forcing Schlafly at second. Cross singled to centre, and as Hoffman let the ball go through his legs Hickman scored and Cross reached second. Anderson went out, Conroy to Chase, Cross reaching third. Stanley struck out. ONE RUN.

Kleinow singled to right. Le Roy tried to bunt, but raised a pop fly, which Hayden collared. Keeler singled to right, promoting Kleinow to second. Hoffman sent a fly to Jones. Chase singled to right, scoring Kleinow and advancing Keeler to third. On the throw to third Chase reached second. La Porte flied to Schlafly. ONE RUN.

Ninth Inning.

Jones singled. Wakefield batted for Hayden and flied to Keeler. A wild pitch advanced Jones to second. Schmidt out, Conroy to Chase, Jones reaching third. Altizer singled over LeRoy's head, scoring Jones. Schlafly was hit with a pitched ball, Altizer going to second. Hickman flied to LeRoy. ONE RUN.

DRIVER OF FIRE ENGINE IS KILLED BY OWN MACHINE

Wheels of Huge Apparatus Pass Over McCarthy's Body.

While exercising the two gray horses of the West Hoboken (N. J.) fire-fighting apparatus to-day, Driver Joseph McCarthy was thrown from his seat on the engine and instantly killed. The wheels of the four-ton apparatus passed over his chest and the engineer, James Vance, who was on the rear step, was thrown out. He was seriously hurt, but will recover.

McCarthy left the Fire Headquarters at 7 o'clock and after a leisurely run was returning down the Hudson Boulevard at a lively clip. The horses were running along the centre of the roadway when, on passing Monastery street, the right animal shied at a scrap of paper.

Without warning both horses swerved quickly to the left, and their speed carried the driver off his seat. His body fell directly in the path of the right wheels of the heavy engine, both passing over his chest and crushing him to death.

Engineer Vance was thrown back full on his head. He was knocked unconscious and was taken to Hoboken Hospital for treatment.

The horses ran up Violet street, finally taking to the sidewalk and stopping. Joseph McCartney was driving Columbia truck at the time and passed the engine. Leaving his truck in charge of a citizen, he drove the engine over to the firehouse.

Fire Chief Anthony J. Trasso responded to a telephone call in his buggy. The body of the driver was removed to his home, No. 607 Malone street.

McCarthy became a member of the West Hoboken Fire Department when the town departed from hand-pump traditions a year ago and bought an up-to-date fire engine. The two big gray horses whose skittishness caused his death were his own selection and his great pets. He was always polishing up their sleek sides.

The driver was twenty-five years old and unmarried. He was one of the popular young men of West Hoboken—where a position in the paid fire department is one of distinction.

The death of McCarthy and the injuries to Vance came as a sad blow to the other members of the company, No. 3, commonly called "The Neptunes." The two were the only paid men in the company, the others being volunteers. All plans for Memorial Day festivities were abandoned by the members, and they draped the fire house in mourning, with a large sign in front bearing the legend "We Mourn Our Loss."

11 MORE DEAD FOUND IN THE 'FRISCO RUINS

Total Number of Victims on the Morgue Roll Is Now 418.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—Eleven more victims of the earthquake have been found, bringing the death list at the morgue up to 418.

CYCLE CRACKS IN VAILSBURG RACES

(Special to The Evening World.)

VAILSBURG, N. J., May 30.—The first big cycle race meet of the season in this part of the country was held here this afternoon. In addition to the half-mile novice race there were a half-mile open, one mile handicap and a miss-and-out race for the amateurs, and a quarter-mile open and a five mile handicap for the professionals. The absence of Frank Kramer, the national champion in Europe, took much of the zest out of the contest for money chasers, and Willie Fenn was picked by the talent to get the big end of the prize money.

Walter Raleigh, looking somewhat worn after his victory in the Irvington-Milburn road race, was a starter in the first heat of the half mile open for the Simon purse.

Frank Eifley, who won the time prize in the road race in the morning was also entered in the sprint races.

The attendance was fairly large, but not up to the average at the board track. There were many enthusiasts of the gentler sex in the grand stand, many taking advantage of the pleasant weather to don their brightest-hued frocks and stunningest hats.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH WHILE CRYING FOR AID

Mrs. Annie Rendskopf's Dress Caught Fire from a Gas Range.

Mrs. Annie Rendskopf was burned to death to-day in her flat on the third floor of No. 327 East Ninetieth street. She was alone at the time and was beyond hope when rescuers, summoned by her screams, succeeded in forcing an entrance.

Mrs. Rendskopf lived with her son, Hugo, twenty years old, who is in the wholesale jewelry business in Maiden lane. The young man went to Central Park to play lawn tennis and told his mother that he would be home at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Rendskopf was preparing the dinner on a gas stove, which was placed on the floor. A gust of wind from an open window blew the blaze against her gown, which was of flimsy material. It caught fire.

Instead of lying down and trying to smother the flames Mrs. Rendskopf ran around the kitchen until she was all afire. Her screams were heard by every one in the house. Robert Wassner, the owner, and Peter Becker, the janitor, ran in from the street, forced the kitchen door and found the unfortunate woman burned to a crisp on the floor.

They called Policeman Mangan, who sent to Presbyterian Hospital for an ambulance. Dr. Baird responded, but Mrs. Rendskopf was dead when he arrived. The son, in his tennis flannels, reached the house just as the ambulance was leaving.

UNCONSCIOUS, TIED TO CHAIR, GAS TURNED ON.

Alexander Mitchell, of No. 428 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn, was awakened during the night by an odor of gas. He traced it to the room of his son Alexander, and after forcing the door found the young man tied in a chair unconscious, with the gas flowing from an open jet. The father summoned the police and an ambulance took young Mitchell to the Cumberland Street Hospital, where he is held as a prisoner patient, charged with attempting suicide.

Young Mitchell is over thirty years of age. His family deny that he attempted his life, but the police say the windows of his room were tightly closed and that he had bound himself in his chair with sheets.

THREE DROWNED IN WRECK

LOUISBURG, C. B., May 30.—Three men of a crew of four were drowned in the wreck of the British schooner Thetis outside this port last night during a thick fog. The surviving seaman brought the news to this port to-day, after having been washed ashore by the breakers and spending the night on a bleak beach. The schooner has gone to pieces.

She was bound from Summerside, P. E. I., for this port with oats.

ECZEMA ON FACE AND HANDS

Troubled from Childhood With Skin Eruptions—In Winter, Hands Would Crack Open and Swell Twice Their Size—Skin Now in Splendid Condition.

CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"From childhood I had always been troubled with skin eruptions, more or less, and in winter my hands would crack open all over the back. You could lay a straw in any of them, but since using the Cuticura Remedies for the eczema about five years ago I have not been troubled in any way. At that time, I think, I got the eczema from handling imported hides at the Custom House stores. I doctored for it for over a month without relief. It was on my hands and face, and my hands were swollen twice their size. After losing time, I was told of a woman whose finger nails had fallen off and was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, so I tried them and I was cured, and my skin is in splendid condition now and does not crack in cold weather. I gladly give you permission to publish any part of my letter relating to the cure and use of the Cuticura Remedies. Henry O'Neill, 4949 Girard Ave., Philadelphia, Pa., July 2, 1905."
