LOVE'S CHASE LED TO HIS ARREST

Ward Pursued His Sweetheart From California to Brooklyn—Got Locked Up.

Because he loved and came all the way from Redlands, Cal., to press his suit Cyrus Ward was to-day arrested in the library of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn. And now, he says, his love has turned to hate. The name of the girl in the case was not revealed, but at the Pratt Institute it was learned that Miss Mabel Lum, an art student and the prettiest girl in the class, came from Redlands, Cal., to study there.

Ward came in pursuit of a girl from Redlands. He is an ordinary appearing man of thirty-four years. Since arriving in Brooklyn two weeks ago he has been living at No. 149 Fort Greene place. When arraigned to-day before Magistrate Naumer, in Myrtle Avenue Court, he said that in Redlands he had become infatuated with a young woman. Her parents didn't like the idea, he said, and when he became persistent they brought the girl East.

Ward said he recently learned where the girl was and came to Brooklyn. He said he found she was an art student at the Pratt Institute.

The institute people to-day complained to the police, and Detective Sergt. Boyle found Ward in the library and arrested him on a technical charge of vagrancy in "hanging around and asking questions."

"Do you love the girl?" asked the Magistrate.

"I used to, but now my love has turnedto hate," said Ward, dramatically.

AMERICAN SLAIN IN CHINA BY ROAD MATE

Murderer Declared to Be a French Adventurer, Who Escapes.

PEKIN, May 31.—Reuben Morely, of Saginaw, Mich., was murdered on the border of Mongolia, 400 miles north of Pekin, on Sept. 2 by a French adventurer, styling himself Viscomte La Verger, with whom he was travelling.

John Morely, of Cleveland, O., returned to-day from an expedition, following his brother's route, during which he obtained convincing evidence from French missionaries and Chinese, showing that Reuben Morely left a Chinese inn on the morning of Sept. 2 to visit a lake ten miles distant.

The Frenchman returned at night with Morely's rifle and saddlebags and told the servants that Morely had proceeded alone to Mongolia. The Frenchman was seen burning Morely's papers and Mongols found Morely's pack horse, carrying his packs, among a herd of wild horses. Weeks afterward a man resembling La Verger cashed Morely's letter of credit at Colombo, Ceylon, and sailed for Europe. The presumption is that he ither shot Morely or drowned him in the lake.

THRASHED MAN FOR INSULTING HIS FLAG.

For resenting an insulting remark about the Stars and Stripes Walter Altieri, able seaman on the Missouri, was to-day arraigned in West Side Court. After he had told his story Magistrate Pool, who is a G. A. R. man, discharged him with a commendation.

Altieri was arrested on the complaint of Emmanuel Epstein, a paint store owner, of Ninth avenue, near Fifty-fourth street. Epstein, who was badly battered, said there was no insult to the flag and that the patriotic defense was a subterfuge of the sailor.

Altieri said that after the parade yesterday he went to a restaurant at Ninth avenue and Fifty-fourth street with his messmate Frank Melbourne. Epstein bumped into him, and then made some remarks about him, his uniform and his flag. Epstein landed on the sidewalk, his coat ripped and his face damaged.

"You did right," said Magistrate Pool, as he discharged Altieri, and had Sergt. Hughes give the sailor a note to the Missouri's commander explaining his detention on shore.

MANHATTAN BEACH OPENING

Manhattan Beach, despite an unusually early opening, proved its strong hold on popular favor by getting a big share of the holiday merrymakers. The opening day's programme consisted of a free exhibition of Pain's fireworks on the lawn and a performance in the theatre by Black Patti and her troop of entertainers.

The fireworks exhibition will be repeated for the next three Saturday nights and then the spectacle "Vesuvius" will be ready. Black Patti fills out opening week and will be succeeded by Duss and his band.

WANTS TO AVENGE WIFE WITH A CLUB

Hirschfield Asks Court to Let Him Take Baseball Bat to Tailors.

Mrs. Minnie Hirschfield, wife of a Harlem politician and real estate man, to-day exposed her arms in Harlem Court to show the black and blue marks which she said were caused by an assault on her by L. Rubenfield and S. Klein, tailors, at No. 969 Park avenue. After seeing the bruises and learning from Mrs. Hirschfield that there were marks on other parts of her body, Magistrate Walsh held the tailors in $500 for trial.

William J. Hirschfield, who lives at the fashionable Kings Court Apartments, Madison avenue and Eighty-seventh street, announced in court that if he were allowed to retire with a baseball bat into a room with the two tailors he would quickly settle all matters. Mrs. Hirschfield said that she went to the tailoring establishment on Tuesday to get a jacket which had been previously spoiled, but which, she said, the tailors promised to repair for $5. She had already paid $30 for the skirt belonging to the suit.

When she tried to take the jacket, she said, a demand was made for $19.15, which she refused to pay. Then she said she was brutally assaulted by three men, one of them beating her on the head with a stool.

According to her story Rubenfield and his partner attempted to throw Mrs. Hirschfield out on the sidewalk. She said she resisted, and ran through the living rooms into the work room in the rear. There, she said, an old man joined in the assault on her.

With the three men striking her, she says she fought her way to a window and called to a little girl to get a policeman and a cab. Her clothes were in tatters, she said, and her body marked. She escaped through a window and got Policeman Hildband to arrest the men.

Rubenfield and Klein denied striking Mrs. Hirschfield. Klein said he had been kicked in the shins by Mrs. Hirschfield while Rubenfield went for police. Alexander Fireman, Rubenfield's father-in-law, the old man mentioned by Mrs. Hirschfield, said she scratched and struck him.

William Hirschfield said the tailors had sent around a lawyer offering to settle, but he left all to his wife's discretion and preferred to settle with a baseball bat.

ADELE RITCHIE NOW ON THE SICK LIST

Actress Faints on the Stage, and Her Understudy Takes Her Place.

Acute indigestion is said to-day to have been the reason for Adele Ritchie's nonappearance during the first act of "The Social Whirl" at the Casino last night. She was awaiting the cue for her first entrance when she threw up her hands and fainted in the arms of a companion. Her understudy, Elizabeth Price, went on in her place, while Dr. F. C. Davis revived Miss Ritchie in her dressing room.

MILLIONAIRE TO BE COL. DUPONT'S RIVAL.

DOVER, Del., May 31.—On the eve of the Special Session of the Legislature to elect a United States Senator there has been a conference between the Democratic State Committee, the Democratic members of the Legislature and active party men generally to determine upon a course of procedure.

As the Senatorial caucus will not be held until June 11, the day before the first ballot for Senator, the question of a Democratic candidate was not decided.

Senator Allee predicts that Col. Dupont will be chosen in the Republican caucus "by a large majority." During the evening, however, a boom started for Harry A. Richardson, a millionaire of Dover, which may assume considerable proportions in the light of a compromise.

Everybody Knows What Constipation Is

But Not Everybody Knows What Hunyadi Janos Is

A large proportion of humanity suffer to a greater or less extent from constipation in one form or another. How really few there are who do not know the distress, pain and general discomfort resulting from failure of the bowels to move regularly. And does not this suffering seem foolishly unnecessary when we realize it is due simply to ignorance of the proper and simple remedy—HUNYADI JANOS—the great Natural Mineral Laxative Water, not only the most efficacious remedy, but also the most inexpensive. The cost of a large bottle is but a trifle and it contains many doses. One dose is ½ a tumblerful drunk on arising in the morning. The result is always certain, quick and thorough. A pleasant and natural relief without griping or purging. Try it. At all druggists.

Thus you can readily understand the genuine values you are guaranteed by the name "Walters," backed by the firm of Bloomingdale Brothers. We will be glad at any time to have you look at and examine pianos for sale elsewhere, and after inspecting them, with an expert if you wish, come here and see the Walters Pianos. "Beware of Stencilled Pianos," Says Expert.

From The New York Evening Telegram, Saturday, May 26, 1906.

Never buy a piano unless it has the name of a well-known reliable firm on the case. There are many stencilled instruments on the market that are put in attractive wood frames, with familiar artists' names in bright gilt letters, sold for prices ranging from $200 to $250, that do not cost more than $65 to $75 to make. They are absolutely worthless. It is just like throwing your money away to purchase one of these stencilled pianos. When a maker is ashamed to place his name upon a piano you can rest assured that there must be something wrong with it.

These stencilled pianos look nice from the outside; they have attractive, showy cases, but they are a snare and a delusion. They are made of the very cheapest material that can be purchased. The cases are simply a very cheap single veneer. The work is slipshod. Cheapness in quality is a dominant note in the important matter of hammers, poor quality of iron plate, cheapest quality of strings and backs, the sounding-board is a sounding-board in name only. In fact, the piano is a piano in looks and name only.

Walters. The name Walters on a piano stands for the very highest and best grade. One is just as safe in investing in a Walters Piano as they would be in purchasing United States gold bonds.

Exchange your old piano for a beautiful new Walters and pay any balance at the rate of $1 per week.

Upon request a representative will call. Warerooms, 3d Floor.
