MANY KILLED BY BOMB THROWN AT KING'S WEDDING

wounded will die. They include spectators who were cheering the royal cavalcade as it passed.

Two of the horses attached to Grand Duke Vladimir's carriage were blown to pieces.

A number of witnesses on the opposite side of the street saw the bomb thrown. They report that the person who hurled the missile was a beardless boy. The house from which the bomb was thrown was invaded by soldiers within a few minutes and all the inmates, numbering five, were arrested.

Among the prisoners is a fourteen-year-old boy, but witnesses say he is not the actual assassin.

KING AND QUEEN GUARDED.

King Alfonso and the Queen were close to the scene of the explosion. They carried themselves admirably, although there was great confusion. A guard closed around them immediately to guard against any attempt that might be made upon them. They reached the palace after some delay without further incident.

The city is wild with excitement to-night. Wholesale arrests of Anarchists are contemplated. It is believed that the Russian assassins were working in sympathy with a group of local Anarchists and that had the slaughter of the Grand Duke been accomplished an attempt would have been made to kill Alfonso and his Queen. The assassins were dismayed when they saw the awful ruin they had accomplished among innocent persons, and the conspiracy, if one existed, was not carried out.

MICHAEL DAVITT'S WILL.

DUBLIN, Ireland, May 31.—Michael Davitt left the following pathetic and characteristic will:

"To all my friends I leave kind thoughts, to my enemies the fullest possible forgiveness, and to Ireland my undying prayer for her absolute freedom and independence, which it was my life's ambition to try to obtain for her."

BOTANIST, AT 40 TO 1, HITS BOOKIES HARD.

ed badly hitting Lord of the Forest and Wes. The stewards promptly disqualified Toots Mook.

Radtke had a mount in the second race, but it was not backed. The other two horses, however, probably cost the public something like $50,000. Mailer won on Lord of the Forest through the disqualification and on Inquisitor. The latter won mainly because Bedell on First Premium put up a remarkably bad ride which some of the crowd characterized as a "sweep." It was probably incompetency, however. All the races were closely contested save the second, in which Botanist made a runaway race of it. The track was fast and the weather pleasant though cloudy.

While success attended the tactics of the Brighton Beach aggregation, Millionaire J. A. Drake lost $2,000 in cold cash on his gelding Just So in the fifth race.

Ordinarily Mr. Drake would have lost $20,000 or more on his horse, but he has recently expressed a regard for the injunction of the stewards against betting. "Whitey" Langdon placed the $1,000 commission for Mr. Drake. Just So was beaten by an eyelash, the Drake horse running over the others in the stretch.

Players Went Wrong.

Smart players started badly in the first race. They went to Lolus with confidence in Radtke, who had the mount, and the race looked a good thing. Radtke got away badly with the favorite, however, and made no effort to catch his field. Monet raced to the front at once and cut out a fast pace, followed by Tea Cross and Pater, this order holding to the stretch, where Pretension closed. In the run home Monet and Pater drew clear and in a hot drive Monet won by a head. Pater was a length and a half in front of Pretension.

Long Shot Wins Race.

Botanist rushed to the front at the start and cut out a clipping pace followed by the Star of Runnymede, Punky and Flowaway. The red-hot favorite, Charles Edward, was off poorly and was not in the running to the furlong pole, where he took second place. He could never reach Botanist, who won by three lengths. Charles Edward was six lengths in front of Punky. Botanist was a 20 to 1 chance. He had never started but once before, and that at Washington, where he was backed for a killing.

Toots Mook Disqualified.

Toots Mook, heavily played in the third race, won through swerving and carrying Lord of the Forest and Wes wide in the last furlong. Toots Mook had the speed and showed the way into the stretch by a couple of lengths, followed by Lord of the Forest and Wes. In the stretch Lord of the Forest and Wes closed and Toots Mook, under a drive, carried Lord of the Forest and Wes to the outer rail. Toots Mook was disqualified and Lord of the Forest placed first, Wes second and Hot Toddy third.

Romp for Inquisitor.

Inquisitor went to the front at the start, made all the running and won cleverly by a length. Old Guard was second to the turn, where First Premium moved up on the outside and took second place in the stretch. He could never reach Inquisitor, however, and was beaten a length. Bedell rode like a novice. Old Guard was ten lengths away.

Bill Phillips in a Drive.

Battle Axe cut out the running. Bill Phillips went to the front with Just So and in a drive won by a head. Just So was two lengths in front of Battle Axe.

$100,000 MARRIAGE DOWRY NOT ASKED

PITTSBURG, May 31.—Because of a statement that has been published about the country that Baron Riedl, who is to marry Louise Magee, niece and ward of the late Senator Chris L. Magee, had demanded a dowry of $100,000 much unpleasant notoriety has resulted, and to-day the family of the late Senator caused to be given out a denial that any such demand was ever made.

It was also stated that Mrs. Magee would under no circumstances consent to the payment of a marriage portion, were such a thing possible, as it would be at variance to her principles.

The payment of a dowry, however, is made impossible for the reason that the Magee estate was left in trust by the Senator at Mrs. Magee's suggestion.

HIGHLANDERS WIN HANDILY BY A FAST FINISH.

field on third and Chance on second. The kid scored a moment later on Laporte's line drive to Hartsel. Chase died trying to steal third. Williams died out to Hartsel. TWO RUNS.

Second Inning.

By a remarkable run into left field, Elberfeld got Murphy's Texas leaguer. Griffith put a quick finish to Monte Cross on a bounder. Laporte threw out Powers after a one-handed stop. NO RUNS.

Conroy, after ripping off two fouls, was called out on strikes. Hoffman waited for four balls and walked. Hoffman was out stealing second. McGuire expired on a grasser to Cross. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Elberfeld was waiting for Dygert's grounder, which went over Grif's head, and nailed him at first. Williams got Hartsel without trouble, but Armbruster surprised himself by driving another single into centre. It nearly prolonged the agony. La Porte threw out Knight. NO RUNS.

Griffith popped a high foul to Powers. Keeler's drive looked safe, but Armbruster pinched it just back of second. Elberfeld negotiated a pass to first. Knight threw out Chase and the chance was lost. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Davis used lots of steam, but could not get his grounder past Elberfeld. Seybold lifted a high fly to Hoffman. Murphy sent the next one on a dead line to left field for two bases. Grif made a fine catch of Davis' fly, avoided danger by quickly disposing of Cross. NO RUNS.

Laporte soaked a long single into centre. Williams tried to bunt, but fouled two and then struck out. Conroy sent a bounder to Murphy, which advanced Laporte one base. Hoffman neatly swerved. McGuire was called out on strikes. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Powers drove a fly straight into Conroy's hands. Williams quickly put the quietus on Dygert. Laporte threw out Hartsell, Chase making a great stop at first. NO RUNS.

Griffith struck out. Cross threw out Keeler at first. Elberfeld sneaked a Texas leaguer into right for a base. Elberfeld was out stealing second. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Armbruster died on a grounder to Williams. Keeler, the boy wonder, took three swings and sat down. By a quick dash into the field Chase got Davis's foul. NO RUNS.

Murphy disposed of Chase without trouble. Laporte got a pass to first and advanced to second as Dygert threw out Williams at first. Conroy was there with the necessary wallop and whipped a neat single, which sent Laporte home in a canter. Conroy promptly stole second, but it was no use, as Hoffman struck out. ONE RUN.

Seventh Inning.

Seybold bumped a line drive against the fence for two bases. Murphy followed with a neat sacrifice to Chase, and Seybold went to third. Cross drove a grounder to Williams and Seybold was nipped at the plate. Cross was out stealing second. NO RUNS.

McGuire whacked a single to left. Griffith forced McGuire. McGuire was out for running out of line and a throw to first got Griffith. Keeler bunted in front of the plate, but Dygert's throw got him at first. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Powers's hit to short was too warm for Elberfeld. Dygert bunted, but Chase was on the ball like a flash and threw Powers out at second. Hartsell struck out. Armbruster got a pass. Knight lined out to Conroy. NO RUNS.

Elberfeld drove a long one to Hartsel. Chase drove a hot single into left field. LaPorte sharpened one into the same place for another hair. Chase going to second. Williams then mopped up with a three-base smash to left, which sent Chase and LaPorte home. Conroy flied out to Seybold. Hoffman soaked another one to the score board for three bases and Williams strolled home. McGuire shot a fine drive to left for a single and Hoffman scored. Grif popped out to Davis. FOUR RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

LaPorte threw out Davis at first. LaPorte threw Seybold's bunt over Chase's head and he went to second. Murphy singled to centre. Cross forced Murphy at second. Seybold scoring. Powers flied to Conroy. ONE RUN.

Umpire—Mr. Johnstone.

By JOHN POLLOCK.

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 31.—The Brooklyn aggregation of ball tossers captured the first game of the series from the Bostons at these grounds this afternoon by a score of 1 to 0.

Donovan's crowd secured their only tally on Casey's two-bagger and Bridwell's wild throw to third to catch Jimmy on Batch's infield grounder.

Both Eason and Dorner pitched good ball.

First Inning.

Bridewell drew a pass to first. Tenney drove out a low line fly which Maloney fastened. Dolan passed a grounder to Lewis, who let the ball go through his legs, both runners being safe. Howard hit to Alperman, who threw to Lewis, forcing Dolan, at second, Bridewell reaching third. Howard stole second. Brain rolled a slow one to Alperman, who threw him out at first. NO RUNS.

Casey laced out a fly which Bates caught a few inches off the ground. Batch made three swipes at the ball. Lumley lifted a high one back of third base, which Bridewell collared after a sprint. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Bates was deadheaded to first by Eason. Strobel was hit with a pitched ball. Needham hit to Lewis and a double play resulted, Strobel and Needham being the victims. Dorner's high fly back of second was captured by Alperman. NO RUNS.

Jordan bounced one into Dorner's hands and went to the bench. Maloney bunted to Dorner, who retired this fleet-footed outfielder by a quick throw to Tenney. Ritter was retired by Strobel and Tenney. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Bridewell pasted a grounder to Casey and died at first. Tenney bunted, but Alperman, by a fast pick-up and throw to Jordan, nailed the Beaneaters' relief by a few inches. Dolan sent up a sky-scraper, which Maloney got under. NO RUNS.

Alperman slapped a bounder over Dorner's head. Bridewell grabbed it and threw him out. Lewis was the next victim, Strobel and Tenney taking care of his slow bounder. Eason was retired by Tenney and Dorner, the latter covering the bag. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Howard made three healthy swipes at Eason's high shoots and went to the bench. Brain shot a fast grounder to Lewis and died at first. Bates made a Texas League hit over short. Strobel walked. Needham raised a pop fly to Lewis. NO RUNS.

Casey was retired by Tenney, unassisted. Batch's high foul was easy for Tenney. Lumley's low line fly was muffed by Howard. Jordan followed with a drive to centre for a bag, promoting Lumley to third. Jordan made a bluff steal of second on Needham's throw, and on Strobel's return to Needham, Lumley was nailed at the plate. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Dorner pushed a slow bounder to Alperman and was out at first. Bridewell sent a fly to Maloney. Alperman made a neat stop of Tenney's hard hit grounder and threw him out. NO RUNS.

Maloney's infield fly was collared by Brain. Ritter was an easy victim, Dorner throwing him out. Alperman hit safely to the infield. Lewis went out, Bridgwell to Tenney. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Dolan hit in front of the plate and was nailed at first by Ritter's quick throw to Jordan. Howard lifted a foul fly into Ritter's mitt. Brain smashed to left for two bags. Bates was retired by Jordan unassisted. NO RUNS.

Eason fanned out, like an amateur Casey tore off a hit to left centre which was good for two bases. Batch hit to Bridewell and on the latter's wild throw to third to catch Casey Jimmy scored and Batch reached second. Lumley out, Strobel to Tenney. Batch going to third. Jordan walked and stole second. Maloney out, Strobel to Tenney. ONE RUN.

Seventh Inning.

Strobel was thrown out at first by Casey. Batch made a great catch of Needham's foul fly. Dorner's high fly was taken by Lewis. NO RUNS.

Ritter went out, Brain to Tenney. Alperman flied to Bates. Lewis rolled one to Bridewell and perished at first. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Bridewell's grounder was well handled by Lewis and Jordan. Tenney banged out a fly, which Maloney smothered. Dolan out, Lewis to Jordan. NO RUNS.

Eason was the first victim, Strobel to Tenney. Casey flied to Strobel. Batch out, Dorner to Tenney. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

Dolan singled to right. Brain sacrificed. Bates fouled out to Casey. Strobel walked. Needham forced Strobel at second. NO RUNS.

WRIGHT MAY NOT BE ABLE TO PLAY

LONDON, May 31.—The French tennis players cabled to-day a definite announcement that they will not participate in this year's contest for the Davis Cup. As the Austrians also have retired the preliminary contest for the honor of challenging the holders of the trophy has narrowed down to the Americans and Australasians, who will meet here at Newport June 7, 8 and 9.

Beals C. Wright, of Boston, whose right hand was injured before he sailed, is still detained in the Nursing Home and the doctors are doubtful if he will be able to play at Wimbledon in the event of the Americans defeating the Australasians. The tendons of his fingers are still septic and the healing cannot begin until the poisonous matter is withdrawn.

was safe on a corking single over Dahlen's head. Gilbert fumbled Bransfield's grounder, and the bases were filled. Doolin died, McGinnity to McGann, Magee scoring. Bowerman failed to touch Titus on Doolin's bunt, and Titus scored, Doolin being safe on first. Pittinger flied to Devlin. Doolin was out stealing. Bowerman, McGinnity to Dahlen. TWO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Strang drew a pass. Bowerman flied to Gleason. McGinnity and Strang were doubled up on the Iron Man's bounder to Gleason, Bransfield to Doolin. NO RUNS.

Thomas hit in centre for two bases and reached third on Strang's fumble. Gleason took the air route to Mertes. Courtney was easy. McGinnity to McGann. Magee's double down the right-field line scored Thomas. Titus died, Gilbert to McGann. ONE RUN.

Fourth Inning.

Browne grounded to Bransfield. McGann was hit in the back with an inshoot. Titus got under Mertes's long fly. Dahlen was hit by a pitched ball. Devlin drew a pass, filling the bases. Gilbert flied to his fellow Jerseyman, Gleason. NO RUNS.

Bransfield flied to Strang. Doolin's grounder past Devlin reaped two sacks. Dooin died, Devlin to McGann, advancing Doolin to third. Pittinger was an easy mark, McGinnity to McGann. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Strang's single was a beauty. Bowerman lined safely to left. McGinnity flied to Gleason. Browne forced Bowerman. Gleason to Doolin. Browne was run down trying to work a "squeeze play," Gleason to Bransfield to Doolin. NO RUNS.

Thomas fanned out. Gleason was safe on Gilbert's fumble. Courtney sided to Mertes. Magee was a cinch, McGinnity to McGann. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

McGann fell an easy victim, Courtney to Bransfield. Mertes flied to Thomas. Magee made a good catch of Dahlen's fly after a hard run. NO RUNS.

Titus hit for two sacks to Brownevile. Bransfield sacrificed, McGinnity to McGann, advancing Titus to third. Doolin singled, scoring Titus. Doolin was out, Gilbert to McGann, advancing Doolin. Pittinger skied to Browne. ONE RUN.

Seventh Inning.

Devlin hit to the centre field bleachers for three bases, crossing the plate on Gilbert's safe drive to left. Strang flied to Courtney and Bowerman did the same thing. Gleason squeezed the "Iron Man's" fly. ONE RUN.

Thomas was put out of the running. McGann to McGinnity. Gleason went into retirement, Bowerman to McGann. Courtney fell a victim, McGann to McGinnity. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Browne died on Doolin's good throw to Bransfield. Courtney to Bransfield sent McGann back to the bench. Mertes was out, Doolin to Bransfield. NO RUNS.

Magee hit the right-field booze sign for a couple of sacks. Titus sacrificed, Devlin to McGann. Bransfield scored Magee with a corking two-bagger to centre. Doolin's foul fly fell into Bowerman's mitt. Doolin singled to left. Mertes's throw to Bowerman nailing Bransfield at the plate. ONE RUN.

POOL HAS PASSED ON 128,000 CASES

Magistrate Pool, who resigned two weeks ago after charges had been preferred by the Bar Association, finished his term on the bench this afternoon in the West Side Police Court. Speeches were made by both white and black lawyers who had appeared before him, and the Magistrate answered in a five-minutes' talk.

"am retiring after nine years of service," he said. "I am feeling a great relief. I am going back to practise law, and believe I will be better satisfied than I was in the years I have acted as a Magistrate. In all this time 128,000 prisoners were arraigned before me."

John S. Halligan, William Bohn and Ezekel Thompson spoke on behalf of the white lawyers. Frank Wheaton, Lewis Leavell and James Smith represented the negro members of the bar, while Emil Junzil spoke for the court officers.

COURT SAYS HE'D SEND AUTOISTS TO PRISON.

Presiding Justice Zeller in the Court of Special Sessions to-day, warned seven automobilists who had pleaded or were found guilty of speeding their cars, that another similar offense would mean imprisonment.

"You men have got to stop making Jerome avenue a race course for automobiles," he said. "I was up there a week ago in an automobile and scores of other automobiles passed my car as if we were standing still."

CHAUFFEUR "GUESSED" HIS SPEED 20 MILES.

"I guess I was going between fifteen and twenty miles an hour," said William McGurck, a chauffeur, of No. 26 East One Hundred and Ninth street, when arraigned in Westchester Court to-day by Bicycle Policeman Donahue with speeding on Jerome avenue.

"Oh, you do, eh?" answered Magistrate Cornell. "We only allow ten miles an hour in New York. Special Sessions in $500 bail."

There were two others in the car with McGurck when he was arrested.

NEW AMENDMENT TO MEAT INSPECTION BILL.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Chairman Wadsworth, of the House Committee on Agriculture, said to-day that a substitute for the Beveridge amendment is now being drawn.

This substitute, he said, would provide for a complete inspection of every phase of the preparation of meat for the table; that it would be drawn so as to meet the views of the President and also the packers, who he said were as anxious for an adequate inspection as being one.

PRIZE-FIGHTING MUST STOP, SAYS GOV. HIGGINS

which has been giving boxing exhibitions in Madison Square Garden, laughed when told by an Evening World reporter of the Governor's action.

"The Governor is laboring under a delusion," said Mr. Goldsmith. "Somebody has been talking foolishly to him. We are holding no prize fights in New York City.

Legal, Says Lawyer.

"We are not violating the law and have no intention of doing so. Our exhibitions—I am speaking for the Twentieth Century Athletic Club—are given before members of the club and their friends. The contestants engage in an exhibition of sparring. No admission fee is charged, directly or indirectly. Section 365 of the Penal Code gives us the legal right to hold these exhibitions and we will protect our rights under the law.

"The Governor might as well try to prevent the New York Athletic Club from giving a boxing exhibition in its clubhouse. Let him try it. You can say for me that the exhibition advertised by this club to take place next Monday evening at Madison Square Garden will go on."

Harry Pollok, of the Twentieth Century Athletic Club, said that acting under Mr. Goldsmith's advice he would go right along making arrangements for the exhibition next Monday night regardless of the action of Gov. Higgins.

What the Mayor Said.

Mayor McClellan was asked this afternoon what he thought of Gov. Higgins's action.

"I have the highest respect for Gov. Higgins," said the Mayor, "and have no comment to make on the subject. As for the police, they have made 155 arrests for prize fighting since Jan. 1 last. Twelve cases are now pending, and all the arrested men were discharged. No single conviction has been made. These are the facts. I make no comment."

Bingham Blames Courts.

When Commissioner Bingham was asked what he would do about tonight's fights, in view of the Governor's message, he handed out this prepared statement:

"There have been 110 arrests since the first of January and twenty-one arrests for aiding and abetting prizefighting.

Most of these cases have been turned out of court, and in two instances the presiding magistrate gave decisions allowing the law had not been violated. The trouble seems to be mainly over the interpretation by the courts of the law regarding prize-fighting.

Asked if he was surprised that Gov. Higgins had called Sheriff Hayes's attention to prize-fighting the Commissioner answered gruffly:

"Well, my attention hasn't been called to anything."

"Wasn't it a surprise that the Sheriff was called into the matter?"

"I have nothing to say," answered Gen. Bingham.

P. T. Powers, president of the Twentieth Century Athletic Club, said that the contests given under the auspices of his organization were strictly within the law.

"A prize fight, according to my idea, which I believe is the accepted one," said Mr. Powers, "is where two men sign articles of agreement to knock each other out for a percentage of the gate receipts. The Twentieth Century Athletic Club has never promoted such an event, and never expects to.'

FIGHTERS ON TRIAL FOR GARDEN BOUTS

Terry McGovern, James Edward Britt, Harry Pollock and other principals and accessories to the fights in Madison Square Garden last Monday, were arraigned late this afternoon before Magistrate Breen, in his chambers at Jefferson Market Court.

Deputy Commissioner Mathot appeared for the Police Department and summoned as his first witness Inspector Max Schmittberger.

The Inspector said that he went to the Garden on Monday night and gained admission without opposition. He said that he was in plain clothes and nobody tried to stop him. He said he saw three bouts of three rounds each and then a ten-round bout between McGovern and Britt.

"They wore trunks," said the Inspector "and were nude except for shoes and gloves."

At this description the crowd of fight followers in the court-room laughed until the Magistrate rapped for order.

Detective Benjamin Mallon, attached to Headquarters, said he went to the Garden and purchased two tickets and two box seats. After getting the tickets he went to the home of Deputy Commissioner Mathot, where copies of them were made. The copies were entered in evidence. They certified that the bearer was a member of the Twentieth Century Athletic Club. Dues $125 a year, payable monthly in advance."

Mallon said he returned from Mr. Mathot's house and on presenting the tickets was admitted.

Policeman James Murphy testified that he bought an admission ticket from a sidewalk speculator for $2.75. He was admitted.

Calls it a Prizefight.

Roundsman Edward F. Howe also said he saw the event and declared he believed it was a prizefight. Asked by Lawyer Goldsmith what he called a prize-fight the roundsman said:

"It's where two men stand up with gloves and punch one another."

Magistrate Breen asked Lawyer Goldsmith if he had any defense.

"Yes," he replied, "we will show we have a charter and are duly incorporated."

Deputy Commissioner Mathot then said:

"I admit that there has been a corporation known as the Twentieth Century Athletic Club. I hold that it has passed out of existence, and that this claim now is a farce."

Lawyer Goldsmith called Harry Pollok, secretary of the club, to the stand. In reply to his counsel's questions he said that everybody in the Garden was a member or an applicant for membership "except the police."

Mr. Mathot took him in hand and said:

"You knew that Mr. Waldo and I were present and that we were not members. Were there any minutes kept of that meeting?"

"Yes," said Pollok.

Never Saw Minute Book.

Q. Did you ever see the minute book? A. No.

Q. How long have you been a member? A. About three months.

Q. How did you become a member? A. I paid my dues and was enrolled.

In the course of many questions to which he answered as briefly as possible, it was brought out that Pollok was invited to join by P. T. Powers, the president of the club. He said he was made secretary. He did not know who his predecessor was in that position and had never seen the minute book. He said he was not familiar with the by-laws. He got a copy of them from Lawyer Goldsmith. He hadn't had time to read it thoroughly. He said the office of the club was in rooms Nos. A and B on the twenty-first floor of the St. Paul Building.

Knew One Officer

Pollok said the only officer he knew at the time of his enrolment was President Powers. Asked as to the incorporators he was very hazy. He said one was a Scott McCormick, whose address he didn't know, but who was usually around the racetracks. Another incorporator was a man named Fahey, who used to live in Brooklyn. He said the directors were Powers, Tim Hurst and himself.

When asked how officers are admitted, Pollok said they must make application. He said if they did not pay their dues they were "temporarily suspended." This caused so much laughter that the officers threatened to put the crowd out.

Pollok also said that the Madison Square Garden was the "clubhouse," with the exception of the theatre.

At this point the case was adjourned until to-morrow.

COAST MARIE A SPEEDWAY VICTOR

President Gill's Pacer Captures Race from Effie Shannon in Brush.

SPEEDWAY, N. Y., May 31.—Coast Marie, the fast black pacer owned by Dr. H. D. Gill, President of the Road Drivers' Association, won her seventh victory for the special trophy in the Speedway matinee races this afternoon, but she had to split heats with A. Crawford's Effie Shannon to do it. The time of the second heat was 1.02, which for the heavy course was about the fastest of the season.

The matinee races drew out a large crowd of spectators, who lined the Speedway. All heats were a half mile, and the brushes were full of interest, with close finishes.

The special feature was the brush for Class A pacers, in which Coast Marie, Effie Shannon, May Hathaway and Susie G. were the starters. Coast Marie broke badly in the first heat and Effie Shannon won by two lengths from Susie G., with Coast Marie third and May Hathaway last. Coast Marie won the second heat on the post from Susie G., and Effie Shannon was fourth. The last heat was between Coast Marie and Effie Shannon, the latter having the lead at the first quarter, when Coast Marie came on and won. The time of heats was 1.03 1-2, 1.02 and 1.05.

Moronial won the brush for Class E trotters in the second and third heats, finishing second to Bessie Plaudit in the first. The time was 1.07, 1.06 1-2 and 1.08 1-2.

Rio Negro won the Class F brush for pacers in two straight heats from Ball Bearing. Best time—1.16.

Bud Stout won the Class D brush for pacers in two heats, with Harry Van second and Miss Mark third. Best time —1.07.

Lady Direct won the Class B pacing brush in the second and third heats, the first going to Bertha M. Best time —1.04 3-4.
