ALL DAY EXPRESS TRAINS ORDERED ON THE EAST SIDE

State Railroad Commission Directs the Interborough Company to Maintain the Fast Service in Both Directions from Battery to West Farms.

An order requiring the Interborough Rapid Transit system to maintain on the east side "L" lines an all-day express system in both directions between the Battery, West Farms and Tremont was issued to-day by the State Railroad Commission. Additional tracks are ordered on both the east side lines.

At the office of the Interborough Company surprise at the order was expressed, but according to the statement of the Railroad Commissioners they knew all about it.

An official of the Interborough said that the order would prove to be far-reaching and have an important effect upon the tunnel projects mapped out for the east side. The Interborough management has been fighting for the right to build express tracks on the east side lines ever since the Belmont interests got hold of them, but the work has been slow. An express track was recently completed on the Third avenue line from Sixty-seventh street to Forty-second street, and has been found to be a great improvement.

Property owners along the east side "L" lines have persistently fought a third track on the ground that it would cut off light and air. The additional Third avenue track was completed in spite of these protests.

Result of Complaints.

The order is the result of a complaint by the Property Owners' Association of the Twenty-third Ward, Bronx, in reference to the conditions of travel during certain hours at the One Hundred and Forty-ninth street station of the Third avenue line. A hearing was held on March 16.

The Board caused conferences to be held between representatives of the people of the Bronx and officials of the railroad company, as a result of which an agreement was reached which, it is believed, will relieve the congestion.

This agreement includes the third tracking of the Second and Third avenue lines, which the Board believes absolutely necessary to provide for the present and increasing traffic on these lines.

The recommendations of the Board are:

That the Interborough Company extend the spur of the elevated structure now ending near the junction of Willis avenue and One Hundred and Forty-fifth street through Willis avenue to Bergen avenue to Westchester avenue, there connecting with the tracks of the elevated extension of the subway system.

That a third track be placed on the Second and Third avenue lines from the Harlem River a fr south as practicable.

That an additional track or tracks be constructed from One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street north to Bedford Park.

That when these tracks are constructed an express service shall be installed on the Second and Third avenue lines which shall be operated during the entire day, a portion of which trains shall be run to and from West Farms.

Expresses to West Farms.

The Board suggests to the Interborough Company that it institute an express service to be operated all day between West Farms and the City Hall via the Subway.

While this communication with its findings, suggestions and recommendations is primarily intended for the Interborough Rapid Transit Company a copy is forwarded to the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners, with the suggestion that such action as is necessary to make the recommendations effective be taken.

(Special to The Evening World.)

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, ST. LOUIS, June 6.—The Highlanders and Browns had a sizzling day for their third encounter of the current series. Griffith, singing under yesterdays defeat, which came from New York's own bat playing more than Smith's good pitching, had his braves out a full hour and a half before game time. The practice was certainly lengthy and spirited.

Elberfeld remains on the disabled list and Conroy tarried at short. Delahanty was again in left.

First Inning.

Keeler popped to Hartsell. Rickey got Conroy's weakling in front of the plate and touched out "Will." Chase fanned. NO RUNS.

Stone singled through Conroy. Chase made a sensational stop of Hemphill's swift grounder, his throw to Conroy getting Stone. Jone dropped a single over Conroy's head. O'Brien hit into a double play, Conroy to Williams to Chase. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Laporte popped to Wallace. Stone ran back for Williams's long drive. Delahanty singled to left, and was out stealing second, Rickey to Wallace. NO RUNS.

Wallace out on Chase's fast assist to Orth, who covered the bag. Niles singled to centre and stole second. Hartsell lined to Delehanty. Rickey out, Orth to Chase. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Hoffman fanned. Kleinow grounded to O'Brien. Orth fanned. NO RUNS.

Howell singled. Stone sacrificed, Orth to Chase. Hemphill out, Williams to Chase. Jones popped to Williams. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Keeler hit by a pitched ball. Conroy singled, Keeler going to third. Conroy went to second on Stone's late throw to catch Keeler. On a squeeze play Chase failed to bunt, and Rickey touched out Keeler. Chase fanned. Laporte out, O'Brien to Jones. NO RUNS.

O'Brien out, Conroy to Chase. Wallace walked. Williams ran back for Niles's pop fly. Orth had Wallace caught off first, but Chase let the low throw get past him and Wallace raced to third. Hartzell doubled, Wallace walking home. Hartzell advanced to third on a wild pitch, Rickey popped to Conroy. ONE RUN.

Fifth Inning.

Williams fanned. Delahanty out, Hartzell to Jones. Hoffman tapped to Howell. NO RUNS.

Howell out, Williams to Chase. Stone drove deep to Hoffman. Hemphill singled to centre, the hit missing Orth's head by inches. Jones out, Orth to Chase. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Hemphill ran back for a great catch of Kleinow's drive. Orth singled over Hartsell. Keeler forced Orth, Wallace to O'Brien. Conroy out, Hartzell to Jones. NO RUNS.

BRIDE'S FATHER NOW TELLS WHY WEDDING IS OFF

Charge Is Made That Downes Is Married and Has an Alias.

CHILD WAS BORN, TOO.

Miss Walker, of Mount Vernon, Was to Have Become His Bride This Evening.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., June 6.—Herbert E. Walter, of No. 180 North Fulton avenue, who startled society people here by announcing yesterday that the wedding of his daughter Edna, which was to have taken place this evening, had been indefinitely postponed, to-day gave an explanation of his action.

Miss Walter was to have been married to Robert H. Downes, a lawyer, of Middletown, Conn. Mr. Walter now says he has been informed that Downes has a wife living from whom he has not been divorced. He says that yesterday he received a letter from Philadelphia by special delivery conveying the information that Downes was already a married man. The writer signed himself "John L. Thompson."

Mr. Thompson, who is a prominent resident of Philadelphia, and President of the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company, said that Downes, under the name of Henry Robinson, had married his daughter, who was now living in Philadelphia with her six-year-old son. Robinson, the writer said, left Philadelphia two years ago and was said to have gone to Middletown, Conn., where he was known as Robert H. Downes. The letter said further that the writer had learned of the contemplated marriage of Downes, or Robinson, and Miss Walter, and he had thought it his duty to inform the young woman's father of the true state of affairs.

Mr. Walter said to-day that after he had read the letter he communicated with Downes, who declared he had understood that his wife had obtained a divorce from him and that he was free to marry again.

Downes is thirty-two years old, and besides practicing law is secretary-treasurer of an automobile manufacturing concern. The wedding was to have been an elaborate affair and about 700 invitations had been sent out, all of which were recalled yesterday. Many handsome and costly wedding presents had been received by Miss Walter.

FOUR HEAT VICTIMS SENT TO HOSPITALS

New York Gets First Real Taste of This Summer's Temperature.

The full penalty of summer heat was inflicted on New York to-day. The temperature had gone up to 84 degrees at 3 o'clock. Four persons were overcome so seriously they were removed to hospitals. Horses suffered very much, and already the straw bonnets that are the equine mode were in evidence.

The most serious case of heat prostration was that of Ida Anderson, twenty-one years old, of No. 199 Prospect avenue, Brooklyn. She became violent in the Grand Central Station and was taken to Bellevue.

Elizabeth Burgess, thirty-five years old, of No. 227 West Sixty-first street, and Carrie Brown, forty-eight years old, of No. 126 West Sixty-third street, were both removed to the Roosevelt Hospital.

Walter Kane, fifty-five years of age, was overcome at Broadway and Mail street. He was taken to Hudson Street Hospital.

Harry Rosenblass, fifty-two years old, of No. 224 Delancey street, was prostrated in front of No. 131 Sheriff street and died shortly after in Union Market police station.

150 TO 1 SHOT WINS FORTUNE FOR M'GUINESS

"Lucky Jack" Has Good Bet on Welbaurne in Opening Event.

SMASHES TRACK RECORD

Old Gentleman Wagers Eleven Dollars on Wife's Selection and Cashes $1,650.

BY T. C. PIPER.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BELMONT RACE TRACK, June 6.—The result of the first race here to-day, with Welbourne winning at odds in several books at 150 to 1, netted one man at least a small-sized fortune, coined within the period of the arrival of the horses at the post and the finish—three minutes.

Lucky "Jack" McGuiness, horse owner and trainer and having the contract for Notter's services, who rode Welbourne, placed $10 straight on the gelding at odds of 150 to 1, awarding McGuiness with a neat win of $1,500. Only the other day McGuiness won more than $12,000 on the success of Aeronaut.

It was the ideal spot for the piker, too. Many small bettors, including women, wagered from one to five dollars on Welbourne at the juicy odds, and their hysterical screams of delight as Welbourne flashed under the imaginary wire a winner resounded throughout the grand stand. One gray-haired old man hurried into the telegraph office, beaming but trembling. It was with difficulty he addressed this telegram to a woman, presumably his wife: "Played your selections, dear, for the eleven dollars and win $1,650 on Welbourne."

Incidentally a complication among bookmakers writers' sheets followed the race. Many bettors who claimed they had bet on Welbourne found themselves recorded on the sheets as having played Melbourne Nominee, another 150 to 1 chance. In abbreviating Melbourne Nominee to Welbourne is calling out the bets the man holding the slate created the confusion.

If bookmakers offered odds on horses which finished fourth in races Davy Johnson would have wagered the ring on his colt Tim O'Toole to-day and Davy would have added thousands to his bank roll. He made several circuits of the ring before the running of the Eclipse Stakes, placing a $500 wager with every book that would take it on Tim O'Toole thirty at 7 to 5. Tim O'Toole finished fourth.

Millionaires James R. Keene and Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., quarrelled to-day over who between them was entitled to the services of Jockey Radtke for their respective entries in the classic Eclipse Stakes. Keene had Superman entered, while Hitchcock started Colville. Neither of the gentlemen could agree. Each claimed the right to Radtke, and each declared he would have Radtke ride, else the entry would be scratched.

Mr. Keene insisted that he had first call. In fact, he was very insistent, and only when an intermediary suggested that the case be carried to the stewards for decision was there any likelihood of even a compromise. Mr. Keene was willing, so was Mr. Hitchcock. The two millionaires climbed into the stewards' stand and presented their case. The stewards decided in favor of Mr. Hitchcock. Thereat Mr. Keene stamped out of the stand and in a great huff declared he would scratch Superman, his great colt, which he did. Superman would have been favorite for the big, class race, and in the estimation of good judges would have won. August Belmont was one of the stewards who declared on the case. The incident created a deal of commotion in the clubhouse.

SLATER KILLED BY FALL.

NEWARK, N. J., June 6.—Robert H. Zimmerman, sixty-two years old, of No. 451 Springfield avenue, a slate roofer, was killed by falling from a tower at Krueger's Brewery, at Belmont avenue and West Kinney street, to-day. Zimmerman, who was a slater, was repairing the tower roof. He fell seventy-five feet.

WORLD'S RECORD EQUALLED BY WELBOURNE

Smashed All Eastern Marks and Equalled Time Made by Dainty.

By FRANK W. THORP.

Those who were looking for getaway "good things" at Belmont Park this afternoon saw one in the opening race in the shape of Welbourne, a three-year-old maiden. Welbourne was a 9 to 1 chance. He is by Freak, and he ought to have been named "Sensation," for he is both freakish and sensational.

On the occasion of his first appearance at Washington this spring he threw his rider, ran away and jumped the paddock fence by way of preliminary to his race. Then he was brought back to the post and ran third. To-day he tin-canned from start to finish, smashed all Eastern records at the distance and equalled the world's record, made by Dainty in Frisco. The next performance of Welbourne will be watched with interest. One bookmaker will always remember Welbourne. This was the "humming bird" Tyler, who laid $8,000 to -100 in one bet. The name of the fortunate bettor could not be learned.

Favorites fared badly during the afternoon. Orun, a heavily played favorite in the Eclipse Stake, was easily beaten by Water Pearl, a big son of Watercress. He was the second choice. He went to the front half-way down the chute, and at the end was only breezing. Oran ran to form, easily beating Colville for the place. Saracinesca, favorite in the second race, was beaten by Golf Ball and Royal Breeze.

It was gossipd about the paddock this afternoon that at Gravesend to-morrow Mr. Cassidy would start the horses under the walk-up system. The win of Good and plenty in the Grand National was the first crumb of comfort to the talent. Good and Plenty won by half a dozen lengths in record time. Yes, he beat his own best record by 12 seconds.

BY BOZEMAN BULGER.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, June 6.—The Giants were simply snowed under by Chicago again to-day. It was nearly another shut-out, and only the lusting cry of Overall, who replaced Harper, averted nine zero marks.

The Giants scored only near runs until the eighth, when they tallied three, mainly on gifts by the pitcher.

McGraw hesitated for some time between Wiltse and Mathewson, and until the pitcher walked into the box the public was without information.

In the early morning gallops Pinkerton men were barred, and the clockers caught "Matty" going the full distance in good time. Matty and Wiltse, coupled in the betting on McGraw's entry, was the one best bet.

The crowd was a little late in arriving, but when the game started there were fully 7,000 spectators on the grounds.

At the last moment McGraw decided that he would hold Wiltse and "Matty" back for the next two games, and Taylor, as an added entry, started for New York.

First Inning.

Gilbert reached in the dust and found Slagle's grounder, which he tossed to McGann. Sheckard came up with his big bludgeon and sent out a line drive for a single. Schulte sent another one into the same spot, but Sheckard was compelled to stop at second. Chance's high fly was gobbled by Bresnahan, and there was no advance. On a double steal Sheckard and Schulte were both safe, but Steinfeldt petered out on a roller to Devlin and the chance was gone. NO RUNS.

Bresnahan popped a high foul to Moran. Browne died on a sharp bounder to Chance. McGann's drive, which went like a bullet, stuck to Harper's hand and Dahlen retired. NO RUNS.

Second Inning

Tinker singled over second. Evers helped it along with a rap to Devlin. Arthur's throw to second being too late to catch Tinker. Moran advanced both with a neat sacrifice. Kling, who batted for Harper, sent a long two-bagger into left, sending Tinker and Evers across the rubber. Slagle sent a long foul to Devlin. Sheckard went out, Gilbert to McGann. TWO RUNS.

In stopping McGann's drive Harper's thumb was split, and he went out. Overall took his place.

Mertes advanced the new pitcher by striking out. Dahlen's weak fly was gathered in by Evers. Devlin waited for balls and walked. Long-legged Arthur stole second. Gilbert was called out on strikes. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Schulte sent a single to left. Chance sacrificed, Schulte going to second. Gilbert threw out Steinfeldt, Schulte taking third. Bowerman then made a grand stand catch, dashing to the fence to get Tinker's high foul. NO RUNS.

Steinfeldt picked Bowerman off at first by a beautiful throw. Taylor then made New York's first hit, by slamming the ball into centre for a single. Bresnahan hit a long drive, which Sheckard got after a run, but Taylor had to scamper at first. Browne was put on a pitch and sent a long liner to front-field fence, sending Taylor to third. McGann was not equal to the opportunity and, to the dismay of the rooters, rolled out to Tinker. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Evers dropped a bunt in front of the plate and was safe, as McGann dropped the ball. On a sacrifice to Dahlen Moran forced Evers at second. Overall's grass-cutter was just right for Gilbert and he turned it into a double play. NO RUNS.

Mertes hit a high fly to Slagle. Schulte was camping under another one from Dahlen. Devlin was struck on the head by a pitched ball. The ball was not damaged, and Arthur went to first, and promptly stole second. Again Gilbert struck out and there was nothing doing. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

By a wonderful stop Dahlen got Slagle's slow grounder and caught him at first by an inch. Sheckard flied to Bresnahan. Schulte did his usual habit on and whacked a long single to centre, but was caught at the switch and Taylor got him out first. NO RUNS.

Evers disposed of Bowerman. Taylor worked Overall for a walk to first. Overall threw out Bresnahan, while Taylor went to second. Browne drove a long fly to Schulte. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Manager Chance socked one to the left field for two bags. Steinfeldt hit his regulation single, scoring Chance and taking second on the throw-in. Tinker beat a bunt, which sent Stein-
