

MURDERED!

High Prices by

THE FAMOUS CLOTHING HOUSE

Since our advent into the city of Alliance there have been many closing out sales of Men's Clothing and thus far, strange to relate, only one has closed out. We have the Purchasing Power to undersell either the real closing out sale or the fakir. We have "let slip the dogs of war" and the cry of havoc resounds in all departments.

Remember We Discount All Other Sales.

All Kinds of Competition Look Alike to Us.

Compare Prices with the others

Men's Sox	3c
Men's Overalls	39c
Jumpers	39c
Knit Gloves	19c
Leather Gloves	17c
Calf Gloves	39c
Engineer and Firemen's Sisterhood Gloves	65c
Winter Weight Underwear	19c
Men's Cheviot Overcoats	$1.98
Men's Long Ulsters	$2.48
Men's Heavy Sweaters	45c
Men's Arctics	89c
Men's Shoes	95c
Boys' Knee Pants	17c

These prices are subject to change without notice

We can afford to sell any article we carry cheaper than others and we give you new merchandis such that has not been vaccinated by age or hireling ads. Pass up the side shows and come to the main tent.

The Famous Clothing House

Two Doors South of the Postoffice.

ALLIANCE, NEB

Boys' School Shoes.

They are perfect fitting latest styles and up to date footwear.

All sizes and prices anywhere from $1.25 to $3.00.

Alliance Cash Shoe Store,

THOS. OLSEN, Proprietor.

The News at Hemingford.

KEITH L. PIERCE, REPORTER.

[Keith L. Pierce is fully authorized to solicit subscriptions and job work and collect and receipt for same, and transact all other business in connection with his position as an accredited representative of this paper.]

B. & M. TIME TABLE.

Passenger trains leave Hemingford, daily, as follows: No. 41, west, 9:40 a.m.; No. 42, east, 3:44 p.m. All regular trains carry passengers.

Mrs. Ford and children spent Thanksgiving at the ranch.

Luke Phillips returned Wednesday from his visit to the Hot Springs.

Geo. Osborn has been suffering this week with a severe attack of grip.

E. S. Wildy of Alliance made Hemingford a business call Wednesday.

Mrs. Bliss spent several days last week on her homestead south of town.

The little folk at Emory Abley's home are reported as being upon the sick list.

Mrs. Furman living near Marsland had a severe stroke of paralysis last week.

Gail Price had an attack of grip last week, but is now able to be in school again.

Verne Burk went over to Bridgeport last Sunday where he will remain this winter.

J. T. McGrew left last Friday for Denver where he expects to spend the winter.

The little child of Ole Moe, who was seriously ill last week, is steadily improving.

Thanksgiving services were held in the Methodist church. The services were union.

Miss Hetrich returned last Friday from her visit east and is now the guest of Mrs. C. J. Wildy.

Little Maggie Killeen is able to be in school again after several days of severe illness with cold.

The baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hall who has been so ill the past week is now improving rapidly.

Mrs. A. S. Enyeart is confined to her bed this week with a cold that threatens to develop into the grip.

Lee Roland was so unfortunate as to have his horse fall upon him while riding. Severe bruises was the result.

Luther Neeland was a visitor in town Monday, having made the trip in the interests of the Malinda ranch.

Those who entertained Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fosket and Mrs. McChandless.

Herman Perlick drove to Alliance last week for a supply of lumber to use in the house he is building near Marple.

Katie Bame came up from Alliance Wednesday and will remain and assist in the care of her mother who is quite ill.

H. H. Rensvold, who has been very ill for the last two weeks, is much better and all danger from pneumonia passed.

Sheriff Reed and family come up from Alliance Thanksgiving and will remain the remainder of the week visiting friends.

Miss Mary Bushnell returned last Thursday from a visit to Chicago and several points in Ohio. She reports a very pleasant trip.

Frank Liska came down from Hay Springs Saturday for several days' visit with his parents. He will spend the winter at Hay Springs.

Prin. H. H. Fusk went to Crawford Thursday to attend the Northwestern Teachers' association. His name is on the program for a paper.

The dinner served Thanksgiving day by the ladies of the Methodist church was well attended and the dinner itself a triumph of culinary skill.

Rev. Gardner accompanied by Mr. Sherwood drove down to the Carpenter neighborhood Saturday, so that Rev. Gardner might hold services there Sunday.

Mr. Hall moved his family into rooms in the Uhrig building Monday, where they will live during the winter and give the children the benefit of the schools.

James Mrachek returned last Sunday from Lincoln where he has been in the hospital for some time. He is now so much improved that he can continue his work.

Mrs. Clark Olds entertained the ladies' club last Saturday afternoon. The program was very interesting and the afternoon pleasantly spent, as is usual when Mrs. Olds entertains.

Mrs. John Kuhn returned Sunday from Alliance where she went to attend her aunt, Mrs. Dunn, in her last illness and death. Mrs. Dunn was one of the early Hemingford settlers.

E. L. Everett has purchased the building owned by W. K. Herrick and will fit it up as a first-class barber shop. The men in town will be glad to get a good shave once more.

Rev. Connell drove to Marsland Wednesday to perform the wedding ceremony of Miss Addie Poole and Mr. John Bennett, both of whom are well known in this place. May happiness and prosperity attend them in this life.

The party who went to Alliance to attend "Queen Esther" were greatly pleased and felt amply repaid for the trip. Those who attended were Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Rustin and Misses Blanch and Almeda Fosket.

A Thanksgiving program was given Wednesday afternoon by the pupils of Mrs. Ford's and Mrs. Rustin's rooms. The pupils in the school have always taken a great interest in the holiday programs. The school was dismissed until Monday, giving the teachers an opportunity to attend the association at Crawford.

Will Walker had a narrow escape from "confiscation" last Sunday morning. Mr. Walker arose at an early hour and proceeded to start the fire before dressing. In some manner he applied the match to his night robe as well as the kindling and about three yards of outing flannel was totally destroyed before the blaze could be extinguished. Will says it was the closest call he ever had and we don't dispute his word for a minute. In fact he looks scared yet.

Alice Leora, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Carter, passed away Sunday evening after a short illness of a few days' duration. The cause of death was pneumonia. This dread disease made such rapid strides that the delicate little life was gone ere the friends scarcely realized that she was ill. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Gardner preaching the sermon. The flowers were presented by the Mission Band, Baby Carter being the youngest member. The family have the sympathy of all.

FAIRVIEW FILLINGS.
Ladies Aid meets with Mrs. Hadley December 3.
Tommy Lawrence has his new soddy nearly completed and will move in as soon as his wife is able.
Joey Heath has been somewhat indisposed for the past two weeks.
Mrs. M. P. Nason has a white chrysanthemum with one hundred and forty-four blossoms. Let us hear from some one that can beat that.
Harry Smith of Alliance is working for Herbert Nason.
Mrs. Susie Smith of Slater, Missouri, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. West.
Mr. Trimble is building a brick house. The masons and carpenters are pushing the work as fast as possible.
Corn shucking is nearly over in this vicinity. Those that are through have been improving the time during the fine weather hauling wood from Pine Ridge.