GIRL KILLED BY A B. R. T. TRAIN

Miss Florence Warren Trips Over Lumber Pile on Station and Falls to Death.

That Miss Florence Warren, of this borough, met a distressing death to-day is attributed to the criminal negligence and lack of regard for the safety of passengers by the officials of the B. R. T.

Miss Warren was instantly killed under the wheels of a Brighton Beach motor train, having stumbled over a pile of lumber in the dark, the lumber being used in the erection of a station at the point of the accident and lying immediately in the path of passengers boarding and alighting from trains. Miss Warren's stumble projected her beneath the wheels of the second car, which passed over the middle of the young woman's body, almost severing it at the waistline.

The accident occurred at Boulevard and Park place. There the company has been erecting one of its flimsy way stations, the flooring being strewn with lumber.

Motorman Patterson was arrested and will be arraigned in the Sheepshead Bay Police Court to-day.

COULDN'T FUMIGATE RAINES LAW HOTEL

They Tried It on Notorious "White House" and It Burned Up.

The White House, at Lexington avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, for many years a notorious Raines Law resort, was destroyed by fire to-day. For the safety of surrounding property two alarms were sent in.

Capt. Burns closed the place two months ago, and it has been unoccupied since. The fire to-day was accidentally started by some men who were fumigating the property for the occupation by a new tenant.

During the fire a cat appeared on the roof of the house, which is two stories high. A fireman saved the nine lives of the animal at the risk of his own.

The blaze was next door to the Morningside central office of the New York Telephone Company, and subscribers in Harlem were not served with the usual neatness and despatch while the fire lasted, because the telephone calls were greatly excited.

FIRE ROUTS 24 FAMILIES IN AN EAST SIDE TENEMENT

Suspicious Blaze Starts in an Airshaft and Men and Women with Children Take to Fire Escapes and Roof in Wild Panic.

Just before dawn to-day the twenty-four families in the six-story tenement No. 163 Allen street were thrown into a panic by cries of fire, the appearance of active bluecoats and the presence of flame and smoke, the latter shooting up the airshaft from cellar to roof like an immense chimney.

The average of each Allen street family is ten, and fully that aggregate number of men, women and children were housed in the fire-visited tenement to-day.

Roundsman Hackett and Patrolman Gunnison, first on the scene, ran to the top floor of the doubledecker, arousing the sleeping tenants. In several instances, receiving no response from apartments, the bluecoats battered in the doors with their clubs and routed out the sound sleepers.

In a short time the halls and fire-escapes were filled with excited men and women, with children in arms, on shoulders, wrapped in blankets or tugging at night robes, all screaming.

The smoke-charged halls stayed many who attempted to reach the street by the usual means, and these made their way to the roof in groups, the scuttle opening being frequently jammed by the crush of the excited people.

On a top fire-escape Hackett found Mrs. Sarah Wein, her seven-day-old baby clasped to her breast, preparing to jump into the abyss below. Hackett grabbed the frantic woman and took her to the roof. Gunnison was having similar experiences on other fire-escapes.

On a lower escape Hackett found Mrs. Gussie Amberg with little Molly and littler Davy in her arms trying to surmount the railing as if going to leap into the street, thus baby burdened Hackett caught her, too, and led her to the street.

All of the tenants were aided out of their threatened danger by the time the firemen arrived and the flames, which did not extend beyond the airshaft, were subdued.

There was talk of incendiarism following the outburst, and things looked so suspicious that the fire marshal has been asked to investigate. The fact that only yesterday a new lessee took possession is being investigated as a possible means of showing motive.

Alexander Grushersky, the new lessee, had an exciting time of it. He was among the imperilled ones routed out by the police. It was the first night he slept in the house.

TURKISH MUTINEERS ROUTED

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 20.—Marshal Feizi Pasha, commanding the Turkish troops in Yemen Province, whose hands are already full in attempting to subdue the rebellious Arabs, has been obliged to deplete his slim stock of ammunition in employing his artillery against his own mutinous soldiers.

Whole companies of regiments anxious to get home mutinied and decided to proceed to the coast. A stubborn fight between the loyal and disaffected troops ensued. The latter finally were vanquished by the fire of the artillery and surrendered after sustaining heavy losses.

"STEEPLE JACK" NOT DEAD.

"Steeple Jack" S. H. Hughes, who was reported dead, to-day made his appearance on the roof of the Park Row Building and painted the smokestacks there. Hughes looked very much alive as he swung aloft.

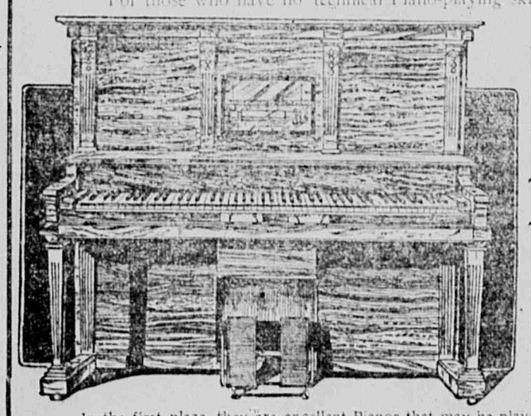
Pianos YOU Can Play. Two Instruments in One.

FOR THE MEMBERS OF YOUR FAMILY and your friends who are trained musicians—a splendid Piano always ready to be played by hand.

For those who have no technical Piano-playing skill, for the business man and woman, for the children who are developing a taste for music—a Piano that can be played by the music roll and that opens the door to the world's music to EVERYBODY who will enjoy it.



These instruments—combining the double usefulness in the one case—are

The Reiman Playerpiano at $475

The Heller Playerpiano at $550

For the manufacture of both of these instruments we are directly responsible. They are made for us. They may be bought nowhere else. And they are the equal in every sense and some respects the superior of instruments that cost $50 to $100 more.

In the first place, they are excellent Pianos that may be played by hand—sweet toned, sensitive and responsive instruments that satisfy the demands of thorough musicians. We know, too, that they are made of the best materials and made in such a way that they will last for many years.

In the second place, they may be played by the music roll—and any one can so play them. The player mechanism is the most sensitive and flexible that has yet been produced. It is the easiest to play. It produces the best results. And these are facts so easily demonstrated that the most cursory comparison will convince you of their truth.

If the Reiman and Heller Playerpianos cost as much as other instruments of the same general class they would still be preferable on account of their superior merit. But they actually do cost

$50 to $100 Less Than Inferior Instruments.

Our direct interest in their manufacture has eliminated middle profits and brought the prices down to a fair basis.

A Saving of 20 Per Cent. on Pianoplayer Music.

This is another feature in which the Loeser Store is giving special service. A full catalogue of Music Rolls is ready now, and the prices are at least twenty per cent. under the prevailing prices for Music Rolls of the first class—twenty per cent. less than even we were compelled to charge before we were directly concerned ourselves in the production of these instruments.

Easy Terms of Purchase If You Wish It.

It is not necessary to pay all cash in buying the Reiman or Heller Playerpianos. If you have a "dead" Piano that you would like to exchange for the Playerpiano we will take it at a fair valuation, and the remainder of the cost of the instrument you purchase may be paid in monthly or quarterly parts. Or for a small sum in cash the new Playerpiano will be sent home and you may enjoy it while you are paying the balance. We make no extra charge for this accommodation further than 4% simple interest on the deferred payments.

You can open the world of music to yourself and all the members of your family if you will. The cost is little. The full guarantee of the Loeser Store is back of the instruments we sell. To-morrow will be the best time to come in and hear the instruments and talk it over—to-morrow before you forget it.

PIMPLY FACES

The man or woman who has pimples and blackheads on their face and who allows them to remain there without making an effort to get rid of them cannot lay claim to the full cleanliness that goes with perfect health. Yet how discomfited they would become if they were called dirty. Their systems are being slowly poisoned. Their friends avoid them socially and in a business way. They are unhappy.
