Elton Waisner, who resided with his parents near Hemingford for many years, visited friends and schoolmates in this city Friday and Saturday on his return from Omaha where went with several cars of sheep. He is now residing near Sheridan, Wyo., where his folks have a sheep ranch and are prospering.

A couple of horse buyers from Indiana were in Alliance Wednesday and in company with M. A. Shay drove out to Jos. Manion's ranch north of Alliance. Mr. Manion sold them three head and Mr. Shay disposed of nine head, a pair of two-year-olds being extra fine. They weighed about 1,200 and brought $200. Raising good horses is much more profitable than cattle at the present time.

Louis Buechsenstein received quite a surprise yesterday. He received the largest order for cigars that he has ever had since commencing business in Alliance when the town started, 10,000 Alliance cigars are to be smoked in Sheridan. Every cigar will be an advertisement for the metropolis of western Nebraska and for the enterprise of its citizens. H. C. Armstrong ordered the cigars for his place of business which will open in Sheridan next month. Armstrong advertises Alliance wherever he goes.

PROSPECTS FOR NEW CITY HALL

City Council Will Consider the Matter at Next Meeting.

PURCHASED A LOT

Adjoining the one on which the Fire House stands and the two lots will form a suitable location.

The question of erecting a city hall for Alliance was brought up for consideration at the meeting of the city council this week. The report of the committee on this matter states that plans had been submitted for a city hall and that a petition was to be presented to the council for an election to vote bonds for the purpose of erecting such a building. It was moved by Molling and seconded by Snow that the question be deferred until the next regular meeting at which time the council will be ready to receive such petition.

THE HERALD is in favor of this project. As we stated last spring it is unbecoming for a city as progressive as Alliance to have its city offices and council meetings in a cellar when for a very moderate outlay respectable quarters may be provided that would be a credit to the city both from the standpoint of the citizens and visitors. The plans as submitted provide suitable offices for the city officials besides a city bastle and quarters for the apparatus of the fire department. Lot 5 in Block 22 which adjoins that on which the fire house stands has been purchased from the Lincoln Land company for $300. These two lots will form a very suitable location for the future city hall. It is to be hoped that the citizens will act prudently and that before a year from now we may point with pride to our new city hall "above the ground."

Halloween Entertainment.

Lately Lodge, No. 162, Degree of Honor, has set aside Saturday evening, October 31, for a genuine old-fashioned Halloween jubilee and to that end are making extensive preparations. Invitations will be issued soon, bearing a close resemblance in color to "mother's pumpkin pies." Refreshments will be partaken of in the early part of the evening followed by dancing. Calico dresses are desired to predominate among the ladies, and yellow decorations profuse will adorn the hall. The "Witches Drill" will enliven the occasion to such an extent that all will be glad they attended. Supper 25 cents; dancing 50 cents. The following committee are in charge: Arrangements—Mrs. Lunn, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Reynolds, Decorations—Mrs. Burris, Mrs. G. E. Davis, Mrs. C. B. Hancock, Mrs. B. F. Lockwood, Mrs. A. Wolvorton, Messrs. L. H. Mackey, L. B. Johnson, C. L. Pfeiffer, Messrs. Buechsenstein, B. F. Lockwood, Geo. Darling, Joe Thornton. Refreshments—Messdames C. A. Gleason, A. L. Park, T. B. Shrewsbury, L. E. Cook, L. B. Johnson, C. L. Pfeiffer, Misses Emma Kulper, Zita McFall. Program—A. T. Lunn, W. O. Barnes.

Serious Accident.

Charlie Matthews, a popular B. & M. conductor, met with a serious accident Monday last at Hyannis. While switching cars in the yards there he fell from the top of a refrigerator car. Fortunately he was caught on the draw bars and that saved him from being mangled under the train. However he was bruised quite seriously but according to last reports there is every hope for his recovery.

He will be accompanied home the first of the week by Mrs. Scharf who has been visiting her parents at Kearney. Mrs. John Brennan is filling the position of book-keeper during Mr. Scharf's absence.

Mrs. J. G. Beck entertained a number of friends informally Thursday afternoon from two until six at her home at 306 Wyoming avenue. In a word contest Mrs. Betzold and Mrs. Zehring were the successful ones, each finding twenty-five words that spelled the same either forward or backward.

It is expected that most all the candidates, who are making any canvass at all, will conclude their labors in Alliance this week, therefore our citizens should be prepared for "hold nps" at all times.

Joe Yanders is a tailor—but that's not all—he can do anything from repairing an eight day clock to operating a threshing machine. Last week he fixed Engineer Jim Devlin's pump, made the well as good as new and we would not be surprised to hear of him taking Mr. Devlin's run on the B. & M.
