COP AND THIEF IN CHASE CLIMB HOUSE FRONT

Caught at Sixth Floor Fire-Escape, Crook Fights Desperately.

BURGLARIZED STORE.

Lively Chase After Criminal Culminated in Sensational Attempt at Escape.

A dark man departing with a bundle aroused the suspicions of Cigar-Storekeeper Samuel Keapitozky, of No. 1656 Amsterdam avenue, just before daybreak to-day. The stranger had leaped from the sill of the rear window of Keapitozky's store at the foregoing address and there was something familiar in the appearance of the bundle. The cigar man had seen it before, having given a receipt to an express company for its delivery at his store yesterday. It was chuck full of high-grade cigars, so Keapitozky raised a cry as he started in pursuit. The man with the bundle was swift and led a merry chase, clinging to the package.

But it was a handicap. He dropped the hurdle and Keapitozky, rejoiced, picked it up just as Patrolman Stackhouse took up the running. Catlike, the fugitive, hotly pressed, leaped to the portico over the stoop of No. 503 West One Hundred and Forty-second street, and evidencing the qualities of a veritable steeplejack, began to crawl up the front of the building. First, second and third story were reached, the thief making a fine ascent.

Stackhouse had never stacked up against such a bold front before, but undaunted he essayed chase in similar fashion, although handicapped by inexperience in the line of climbing up the front of a building like a fly. He got the hang of the game presently and being full of nerve and a desire to gain added laurels, followed the fugitive to the sixth floor, which point the pursued reached before stopping to take breath.

Cop Stackhouse got there too in time to find his man trying to get through a window leading from a fire-escape. The fugitive, cornered like a rat, prepared for battle. The crook tackled the bluecoat when the latter's head projected above a ledge and tried to kick Stackhouse in the face, but the latter managed to use his club with good effect until he got on the level with the pursued man. Then a battle royal in midair raged.

Finally the virtue of the club was asserted and the man gave up. He described himself as Jacob Randall, of No. 510 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street. He and several accomplices had broken through the rear of Keapitozky's store and had packed large bundles when the timely arrival of the owner caused the bunch to flee. Randall was held for examination.

Special Notice About FREE STAMPS.

We find that the expense of occasionally giving free Dividend Stamps (without a purchase) is very great, and therefore have determined, after this month, to give no more of these stamps this season, except with purchases. The usual number given being one with each 10c. of a purchase and double (2 for 1) stamps on Wednesday and Saturday. This will be continued, but the 10 or 20 or 30 Complimentary Dividend Stamps we often give to visitors to the store will be discontinued for the Summer and perhaps for all time, after the present month of June. (This does not refer to S. & H. Green Stamps.)

Therefore, as a grand wind-up celebration of Free Dividend Stamps, we will, to-morrow and all this week, give to each Woman Visitor to the store (none to children or men)

Fifty Free Stamps,

without requiring any purchase whatever, in addition to the stamps you get on your purchase. (Stamps on purchases as usual.)

This being your last chance to get any Complimentary Dividend Stamps, you will do well to get a set each time you are down on Fulton Street this week. Distribution closes at 10 P. M. Saturday.

The Free Stamp Desk Is in the Centre of the First Floor.
