You Wouldn't Think Mutt Could Do It, Would You? — By "Bud" Fisher

It's Good Enough for That Anyway

A workman called at the home of President Taft's brother Charles in Cincinnati to perform some odd job, and noted the priceless paintings in the private gallery. He was attracted to a small original Van Dyke. "Ah!" he exclaimed. "I've got that same thing down home. My wife got it some place here in town. Are they worth much?" "That one is worth $35,000," he was told. "Hum!" he murmured. "I guess I'll have ours framed."

Morris Williams HORSE MARKET

BIG SPECIAL SALE NEXT WEEK—FRIDAY OCTOBER 18.

Draft Horses and Feeding Colts.

This is to be the first big special sale of the fall season, and I am giving it a very large amount of advertising among both consignors and shippers. Through our Des Moines market we are adding a new list of buyers to our regular customers and I will distribute circulars among all these buyers advertising this special at Ottumwa for next week. While we will handle all classes of horses, we will, on this particular occasion, specialize on choice draft horses, heavy coal wagon horses and big boned feeding colts. I will have a lot of the best of buyers for these classes, including a number of Ohio and Pennsylvania feeder buyers. Get together a bunch of good stuff for this big special.

Our buyers are billed at the following places on dates named, to buy horses for this sale. Take your stock to them and turn it into cash.

On Monday, October 14 at Truro; on Tuesday the 15th, at Murray, Moulton and Moravia; on Wednesday the 16th, at Osceola, Lucas and Bloomfield; on Thursday, the 17th, at Albia, Russell and Eddyville. If you prefer you can ship your stock with them and sell direct in this big sale.
