GLASGOW LIVERY STABLE.
NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The subscriber begs to announce to his friends and the public that he has purchased the interest of his late partner in the Glasgow Livery Stable, and will continue the business at the old stand, where he will at all times be prepared to accommodate the travelling public, or pleasure parties, with SADDLE HORSES, BUGGIES and CARRIAGES.
The stock and vehicles are good, and constant additions will be made, as the business may require.
A GOOD HEARSE
and carriages always ready to attend Funerals in the place or vicinity.
☞ Accounts with permanent citizens kept as usual, but in consequence of recent heavy losses, transient persons and young men about town will be expected to deal on the CASH principle.
A. A. PUGH.
Glasgow, March 2, 1854.

HORSES CURED.

The subscriber will give particular attention to the diseases of Horses, such as Big Head, Poll Evil, Fistula, Ring Bone, Spavin, and all other diseases, warranting a cure or no pay. Having engaged the services of a gentleman experienced in horses and their diseases, those having diseased animals would do well to give him a call. Horses left in his charge will be grain fed or pastured, as the nature of the case may require, on moderate terms. A. A. PUGH.

Lands for Sale or Lease.

I have for sale or lease, on accommodating terms, both improved and unimproved farms in Howard, Chariton, Linn, Carroll and Saline counties. For particulars apply at my residence near Glasgow.

BRUNSWICK HOUSE.
By N. Harry.

THE subscriber has removed his Hotel to the two large and commodious buildings on Main street, a few doors below Isaac Brinker's Store and nearly opposite that of N. & A. Johnson where he will be pleased to see his old friends and the public generally, pledging himself to use every exertion to give satisfaction.
He has a good Stable, and Lots for cattle and horses. A Bar, elegantly fitted up and supplied with the choicest liquors, is attached to the Hotel.
The Stage Office for the Western and Northern Mails is kept at his house; and all persons travelling on either line will receive prompt attention.
The public are assured that he is not a Blue, but a "true blue," and by stopping at his house they will find it to their interest.
Although my opponent of the "City Hotel" has endeavored to monopolize the trade, by renting my late stand over my head, I hope the traveling public will give me a call and test my ability to cater to their wants. N. HARRY.
