SPORTING NEWS AND COMMENT

EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN.

R. Edgren's COLUMN

JACK O'BRIEN says that he would like to fight Sam Berger to a finish. Nothing would please the Philadelphian better. He doesn't specify whose finish it would be, but no doubt he hopes to tack the tail on this Berger person.

Jack thinks Berger has a nerve to go on a ten-weeks' threatrical engagement. He has. So has any other fighter. But probably Jack's criticism is based on the fact that it was Berger and not O'Brien who was offered the engagements. Aren't these theatrical people the jealous things? Next thing we know "Gentleman Jack" will be knocking Berger's bath robe and his choice of a valet.

FRANK L. KRAMER is the greatest American cyclist since the world-famous "Zim." Old Zimmerman, the "Jersey Skeeter," was a hero in his day, but great as his performance were on his old Star wheel he had nothing in his class on this boy from Jersey. Kramer has been making good for a long time, and he seems to keep his speed year after year.

He is a businesslike, clean-living fellow, which accounts for his long strong hold on the championships.

A CORRESPONDENT wants to know whether or not John L. Sullivan was ever champion of the world and why he was.

He was.

If you had faithfully followed the columns of this paper for a year past you would have seen explained a dozen times just how John L. gained his title. It would be interesting to know how many times that old query has been answered in the columns of American newspapers. And yet people ask. After a while the question, "How did John L. become champion?" will be as historic as the ancient inquiry into the identity of the man who struck Billy Patterson.

SOME ANGLES AND CURVES AT AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK.

GANS DEFEATS DAVE HOLLY

SEATTLE, Wash., July 24.—Joe Gans, of Baltimore, was given the decision over Dave Holly, of Boston, in the twentieth round of their fight at Pleasant Beach last night. There was a large attendance.

The colored fighter weighed in at the limit, and came to the ring side in good condition. Gans had all the cleverness of his former fights, and those who watched the contest were frequently surprised by his marvellous ability to get out of tight places into which Holly had forced him.

Holly was the aggressor in many of the rounds, and behind his blows was considerable force. Gans, however, showed the greatest cleverness.

The fight was held at a point on the Sound opposite this city. In the crowd was a large number of prominent business men.

BASEBALL TEAM IN RIOT AFTER GAME

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 24.—Capt. Dick Harley, of the Providence Eastern League, was to-day convicted on a charge of disorderly conduct, but was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Following the game with Buffalo last evening, in which the decisions of a new umpire worked up the feelings of both teams to a high pitch, a free fight occurred on Ferry street, just outside the ball grounds.

Stung by the taunts of the crowd, a number of the Providence players jumped from their automobile and struck right and left. For a time Ferry street was the scene of a small sized riot. The police rushed in and arrested several of the belligerents, including Capt. Harley. One man in the crowd was hiton the head by a spiked shoe. His injury is not serious.

SPORT QUERIES ANSWERED BY ROBERT EDGREN.

Please answer the following questions. We have decided to abide by your decision:

Do you consider Hackenschmidt the equal of Sandow or Gruhn in strength and endurance?

Did Gans ever defeat Walcott, and how did Gans get the title of welterweight champion? W. WALTHER.

Yes.

Fought twenty rounds to a draw. Title fell to Gans on retirement of Walcott from ring.

A bets B that Tom Jenkins is the champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler of the United States. B says Frank Gotch is.

Please decide through your sporting column. A CONSTANT READER.

Gotch recently defeated Jenkins for title in a match at Kansas City.

A bets B that Terry McGovern's second fight with Young Corbett was for the light-weight title. B bets A that it wasn't. Which is correct?

J. P. MORAN.

B wins.

A bets B that Terry McGovern's second fight with Young Corbett was at 126 pounds. B bets A that it was at 133 pounds. Which is correct?

J. P. MORAN.

Fought at 130 pounds.

Please state the number of horses that are allowed to run in one race and the space allowed each horse at starting post. W. MILLER.

The number of starters is largely optional with the secretary.

A batter knocks a ball to left field, the centre fielder collides with him and between them they drop the ball. The batter got to home plate before the ball was field d. D bets it was not a home run, because the fielders made an error, and L bets it was a home run. Which is right? D. F. O'B., Mt. Vernon.

L wins.

Two readers of your paper who do not know anything about fishing would like advice as to what kind of hooks, baitline and sinker to be used from piers at Coney Island. We are to spend our vacation at said place and would consider any information in connection with this sport a big favor.

NEWARKERS.

Heavy bass line, weakfish hooks, heavy sinker; bait, sand worms, shedder crabs, blood worms or soft clams.

Will you kindly state where Sam Berger or his manager is stopping while in this city? M. G.

Berger is at Oceanic, N. J. His home when in New York is at the Hotel Wellington.

Being a constant reader of your worthy paper, I beg to ask which is right: A claims that first base is to the right of pitcher and B says first base is at left. Kindly let me know who is correct. RALPH GINSBERG.

First base is that at the left of the pitcher, it being supposed that his position faces the home plate.

Will you kindly tell me how I can gain admission to Travis Island to see the A. A. U. championships this fall? I know that Travis Island is owned by the N. Y. A. C., and at all its meets people are generally invited, but as this meet (A. A. U. championships) which concerns outsiders, I thought perhaps there is a different way of getting in. ED WOLFF.

An admission is charged.

Will you kindly answer the following question? How many cards are there in a regulation game of pinochle and what is the lowest card? C. H. S.

The deck is composed of two packs from nine spots up.

Please inform a constant reader as to the nationality of Willie Lewis, the welter-weight. This is to decide a bet. C. J. O'BRIEN.

Irish-American.

Kindly advise in The Evening World how many games the Chicagos are in the lead of the Giants. A CRANK.

Consult the daily standing of National League clubs.
