SPORTING NEWS AND COMMENT

EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN.

R. Edgren's COLUMN

IT'S a long shot from St. Louis to New York, yet the faint pop of a pea-shooter fired in the former town has just reached me, thanks to an interested correspondent.

The man behind the popgun was sporting editor of the St. Louis Star Chronicle. If he had used a large calibre gun with a real bullet I might feel inclined to duck, but these wind-blown pellets only tickle one's sense of humor.

HERE'S the pellet:

"Robert Edgren, like all of The World sport writers, often sees things through smoked glasses. Edgren must have it in for Jack O'Brien. Edgren said that Berger made O'Brien look like a deuce, and that Jack was lucky he wasn't stopped. The entire press of Philadelphia makes Edgren out an idiot. Here are three headings:

"The Record—
O'BRIEN BESTS BERGER.
"The Inquirer"
JACK O'BRIEN WON.
"The Ledger—
GIANT SAM BERGER
DOWNED BY O'BRIEN."

The last of these is hardly calculated to make any one look idiotic (except the writer of it), as neither O'Brien nor "Giant Sam Berger" was "downed" at any time during the fight.

As for the others, they represent the regulation Philadelphia view of any scrap in which O'Brien takes part. Philadelphia goes blind as a bat when O'Brien loses. Philadelphia can't see it. Philadelphia couldn't see it if our friend Jack were knocked out cold. That's just how strong Jack is in his home town.

Consequently it takes an outside critic to size up O'Brien's fights correctly. There were a dozen or more from New York at the O'Brien-Berger fight. They all favored O'Brien's chances before the scrap, and they all agreed after it that Berger won by a big safe margin.

Read a few New York headlines, St. Louis, and come in out of the dark.

MARTIN SHERIDAN, yesterday noon, sat down at the training table at Celtic Park and ate two dozen scrambled eggs. This started the Celtic A. A. training season out most auspiciously, as Dennis Horgan, the greatest eater in the rival N. Y. A. C., has only a record of eighteen at a sitting.

Just before he ate these eggs I saw Sheridan throw the discus for half an hour, averaging from 120 to 130 feet to the throw. He put the 16-pound shot 39 feet from a stand and 45 with a hop. He tossed the hammer, high-jumped, broad-jumped, threw the 25-pound stone and offered to run anybody a 120-yard hurdle race or sprint 100. What he did afterward I couldn't wait to see.

They have a way of going at it out there in Celtic Park. Ernie Hertzberg, who is handling the Irish team, lets the big weight men train as hard as they want to. It's good for them. The lighter athletes need careful regulation, like so many delicate Swiss watches. And they get it. Ernie positively refuses to let Harvey Cohn throw the 56-pound weight while training for the five-mile run.

THE Celtic team will give the N. Y. A. C. a hard rub for the Metropolitan championships on Sept. 1.

Already nearly all of the men are training at Celtic Park. The weight throwers are a husky lot of giants. Flanagan, holder of the world's records in hammer throwing and fifty-six-pound weight throwing, is in great form. He is throwing the discus over 120 feet. Hoar, from Syracuse, intercollegiate hammer-throwing champion, is living at the park and training all the time. He is doing well. Hoar puts the shot over 42 feet. Sheridan is putting around 45 feet with the sixteen-pound shot, and is throwing the discus daily with the hope of meeting and defeating Garrells, of Michigan, in that event. Garrells's record is close to Sheridan's. Dick Sheridan, another big hammer-thrower, is doing about 150 feet in practice.

Among the other champions who will wear the green emblem are Myer Prinstein, who won the broad jump at Athens; Sheppard, who has the indoor mile record; Daly, who finished third in the five-mile event in Greece, but was disqualified for crowding; Bonhag, winner of the Olympian mile walk, and Robertson, Olympic sprinter and point winner. Sullivan, Cohn and Joyce make up the list of milers. Bromilow will run the half with Sheppard. Northridge, Prinstein and Colliton run the quarter. Young, of Syracuse, and Robertson, who won a heat in the hundred at Athens, as well as places in the standing jumps, will take care of the sprints. Castleman may hurdle and Allen, of Syracuse, is pole-vaulting. Altogether it is a husky crowd and one that will do some point winning when the Mets come along.

GYMKHANA GAMES ON STEEL ROLLERS

The amateur athletes of Gotham will meet in unique contests to-night at the Madison Square Garden roller skating rink, where they will test their speed as well as their dexterity on the rollers. There will be the usual gymkhana games, including the laughable obstacle race, a race in barrels, skating backward and skating blindfolded, and a great deal of sport is in store for the rink's patrons.

DANNY MAHER WINS STAKE ON OUTSIDER

The American Jockey Rides Chaucer, 8 to 1 Shot, to Victory in Liverpool Cup.

LONDON, July 27.—At the Liverpool July meeting to-day Lord Derby's Chaucer, ridden by "Danny" Maher, the American jockey, won the Liverpool Cup, a handicap of 1,400 sovereigns, one mile and three furlongs. Velocity was second and Dinneford was third.

Chaucer, who was a comparative outsider, won a hard fought race by a neck from the favorite, Velocity. Dinneford was three-quarters of a length behind. Nine horses started.

The betting previous to the race was 8 to 1 against Chaucer, 4 to 1 against Velocity and 6 to 1 against Dinneford.

Maher also won two minor races on mounts belonging to Lord Derby.

Olympic Field Sports.

The champion female baseball team, composed of players capable of putting up a good brand of ball, will play a game to-morrow (Saturday) at Olympic Field with the West End A. C. The game will be called at 4 o'clock.

DODGERS VS. THE CARDINALS

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, July 27.—"We'll get even with you to-day," yelled Patsy Donovan to Manager McGuckey, as he escorted his bunch of ball-tossers to their bench before the game with St. Louis to-day.

The misfortune which the Brooklyn team had in losing yesterday's game to the Cardinals was a hard blow to Donovan and his players. They went at the Cardinals determined to turn the tables on them.

There will be no Sunday games at these grounds this year. President Ebbets had a talk with Inspector Cross to-day and the Inspector informed him that if the teams tried to play the police would stop it.

WHITE DOVES AT YACHT LAUNCHING

Two white doves were released at the launching of Roswell Eldridge's new steam yacht Kohoiah at Lawley's Boston yard yesterday, this form of christening the $150,000 yacht taking the place of the usual breaking of a champagne bottle over the bows.

The boat was designed by Cox & Stevens, of New York, and is steel-plated, being 145 feet over all, 120 feet water line, 20 feet beam and 12 feet draught. Her engines are of 700 horse-power.

With the owner at the launching were a number of New York friends, including Messrs. Skidmore, Roome and F. W. Belknap. The boat will soon be added to the local fleet on the Sound.
