DEMOCRATS TO HOLD STATE CONVENTION IN BUFFALO ON SEPT. 25

Hearst Victory in Choice of Place for Making Nominations.

SARATOGA IS SHUT OUT.

Cord Meyer Permitted to Continue as Chairman of the State Committee.

The radical or Hearst wing of the Democratic State Committee won a pronounced victory at the meeting held at the Hoffman House to-day to select a date and place for the next State convention. Buffalo was chosen as the city for the convention, and Sept. 25 as the date. The choice is regarded as indicating that William J. Conners, Norman E. Mack, James K. McGuire, Frank Campbell and other up-State leaders who are working to have William Randolph Hearst nominated by the Democratic State Convention are going some.

The selection of Buffalo was a compromise, agreed to by the conservative members of the committee in order to avoid a line-up of strength. The conservatives wanted to hold the convention in Saratoga early in October and to retain Cord Meyer as chairman of the committee until the convention is called. The radicals wanted to oust Meyer, select William J. Conners as chairman and declare for Buffalo as the place for the convention.

Sheehan for Compromise.

Conners and the Hearst men were willing to go to the floor on their propositions. They were so confident that the conservatives felt sure they would have the backing of Charles F. Murphy and the Tammany members of the committee. William F. Sheehan, after looking over the ground, suggested a compromise.

By the terms of the compromise Cord Meyer was allowed to retain his chairmanship until the convention is called and a new committee is selected and the radicals were allowed to name the date and place for the convention. All hands expressed themselves as satisfied with the outcome.

The committee was called to order at 12.40 o'clock and the proceedings were open to the public. Chairman Cord Meyer presided and Secretary Mason called the roll. Mr. Mason read a communication from the Commercial Club of Buffalo, inviting the Democratic party of the State to convene in that city and setting forth in glowing language the climatic and other advantages of Buffalo as a convention city.

Thomas F. McAvoy, one of Charles F. Murphy's right-hand men, promptly offered a resolution calling the convention at Buffalo on Sept. 25. The resolution was seconded by Joseph Cassidy, of Queens, who has recently come out for Hearst, and Thomas F. Smith, secretary of Tammany Hall. It was adopted unanimously. Nobody uttered a peep about Saratoga.

F. J. Ryder and Maurice Featherson, Tammany leaders, were appointed to vacant places on the committee and the meeting adjourned after a session lasting about ten minutes. The next meeting of the committee—unless one should be called in the interim—will be held at 8 o'clock P. M., Sept. 24, at the Iroquois Hotel, Buffalo.

The attitude of Charles F. Murphy and the Tammany members of the committee bore out The Evening World's announcement a few days ago that Murphy had arranged a deal with the up-State radicals by which he is to deliver a Hearst delegation if Hearst will recognize his leadership and agree to remove Mayor McClellan in the event of his election.

Murphy's Shrewd Game.

Murphy is playing sharp politics and some of the men who are forced to follow him, but hate Hearst, are working to arrange for a compromise that will allay the Independence League and the regular Democratic organization. These semi-conservatives believe that Hearst will withdraw in favor of Judge Gaynor, of Brooklyn, if the Democrats nominate Judge Gaynor.

Murphy had planned to force the resignation of Cord Meyer as Chairman to-day and the election of Joe Cassidy, of Queens, or William J. Conners, of Erie, to the place. Murphy asked Senator McCarren last night to request Meyer to resign. McCarren refused. He advised Meyer to stick.

McCarren is convinced that Murphy has gone over to the Hearst side in the hope of strengthening himself with the organization. A combination with the Hearst Independence League would be a great help to Murphy in the primary fights against the McClellan aspirants for leadership this fall.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Partly cloudy and cooler to-night; Thursday partly cloudy; fresh northeast to east winds.

MORE OF CZAR'S SHIPS MAY JOIN THE MUTINY

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—It is feared here that a mutiny in the squadron of warships hurriedly sent from Reval to storm the forts held by the mutineers at Helsingfors may defeat the object.

It is known that a summons to revolt was issued to the sailors of the fleet at Cronstadt, and it is probable that the main body of the Baltic fleet, which the despatched squadron comprises, has also been urged to join the general revolt, of which the seizure of the strongholds at the Finnish capital is a premature manifestation.

It is believed that the military conspiracy involved the seizing of the fortresses of Sveaborg, Cronstadt and Sebastopol as bases for the revolting Black Sea and Baltic fleets.

The squadron sent to Helsingfors consists of a battle-ship and three cruisers. It is understood to be under the personal command of Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, brother-in-law of Emperor Nicholas.

A telegram claiming to be from the commander of the fortress at Helsingfors has been received here, but its meaning is not clear. The despatch says:

"The entire crews of four warships have mutinied."

Other despatches mention the crews of the torpedo-boat destroyers and other ships as revolting, while another despatch says:

"For a time, with a portion of the crews locked below decks, the loyal members of the crews fired upon the mutineers."

If the Reval squadron joined the mutineers there is little hope of regaining possession of Sveaborg fortress, where, it is claimed, six companies of loyal troops are holding out on Commander Ieland against the mutineers on Michaelovska, Artillery, Engineer and other islands composing the group on which the fortress is built.

Telephone communication with Cronstadt has been restored. And at 6 o'clock this evening a telephone message to the Associated Press announced that no disturbance had occurred there during the day.

The blow, coming suddenly from an unexpected quarter, has caused dismay in Government circles, and the feeling of alarm is increased by the bad news from the interior. The strikes are spreading rapidly.

BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, Aug. 1.—Fountain Blue was scratched out of the Sunshine Stakes at Brighton this afternoon because he was sold to "Diamond Jim" Brady for $25,000.

Matt Allen does not run high-priced horses in mud, at least not for cheap stakes. Penarris was added and heavily played, but Shaw got up one of his bunging rides and Penarris was badly beaten. Gallant Dan made all the running and won easily from Frank Gill.

Mud changed all the calculations in the first race. Anneta Lady was touted as a pure mudder in the first race, and she simply tin-canned home in front of Mollie Donohue, who was equal favorite with Banner. The latter could not untrack herself in the going.

The fall of rain was so heavy, just after this race that the water poured into the betting ring. Two layers, Cabe and Pearsall, soon found themselves marooned on the middle of a large lake and could do no business on the jump. The water encroached on

GIANTS FASTEN GRIP ON SECOND PLACE BY THEIR SEVENTH STRAIGHT WIN

Seymour Great Help Since Joining Giants.

CY. SEYMOUR.

In the purchase of Cy Seymour from Cincinnati for $10,000 New York drove a good bargain. Since joining the Giants in St. Louis Seymour has figured conspicuously in every victory. On four occasions he has driven in enough runs to win, and on numerous other occasions he started off rallies with long hits. His batting since joining the Giants is about .350.

PIRATES HIT IN VAIN AT THE BENDERS OF M'INTYRE

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, Brooklyn, Aug. 1.—With the first game of the series won, Donovan's Trolley Dodgers lined up against the Pittsburg nine at noon, confident of a second victory. Donovan chose McIntyre to do the pitching act while Wagner's selection was Leifield. Although it looked like rain there were close to 3,000 restless people when the bell rang. Two games will be played to-morrow. The first one will start at 2 and the second immediately afterward.

First Inning.

Leach lifted the first ball pitched and Lumley stalked it. Beaumont was sent in to Lumley. Ganley's long fly fell in McCarthy's hands. NO RUNS.

Maloney out, Bresnahan to Nealon. Casey's slow roller to Wagner was safe at first. Lumley strolled. Jordan's grounder to Wagner was thrown to POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—New York and St. Louis players were in mourning to-day over the probable loss of Hank O'Day to the game. He has been suspended, fined and has resigned all in one chunk. Hank says that while he can stand for roasting, cussing and other abuse, he'll be durned if he can stand for being punished for a crime he didn't commit. Hank was supposed to umpire here to-day, but didn't. Six straight victories have given the Giants all kinds of confidence. There were 5,000 people in the stand when the game started.

The Giants by winning fastened their grip on second place.

First Inning.

Burch flied to Dahlen. Bennett popped a high foul to Bresnahan. Barry singled. Mertes struck out. NO RUNS.

Bresnahan got a base on balls and stole second. Mertes got Browne's high fly. Shannon struck out. Seymour walked. Bresnahan and Seymour made a spectacular double steal. Beebe threw out McGann. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Brady walked, but was out trying to steal second. Crawford out on grounder to Dahlen. Marshall's high foul went to McGann. NO RUNS.

Devlin out on strikes. Holly got Dahlen's slow rap. Gilbert out on strikes. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Holly's grounder got tangled up with Gilbert's feet and the batter was safe. Beebe sacrificed. Burch singled and stole second. Gilbert got Bennett's grounder and nailed Holly at plate. Barry's drive was captured by Shannon. NO RUNS.

Wiltse walked. Bresnahan singled, sending Wiltse to third. On a passed ball Bresnahan took second. Browne struck out. Shannon singled, scoring both Wiltse and Bresnahan. A throw to the plate got past Marshall and Shannon went to third. Seymour walked. By a double steal Shannon scored and Seymour took second. McGann's rap to Holly killed Seymour at third. McGann went out stealing second. THREE RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Mertes sent a sky-scraper to Seymour. Grady shot a hot one to Devlin. Gilbert's great stop finished Crawford. NO RUNS.
