WHAT DO YOU THINK I OUGHT TO DO?

Thousands of times this question has been asked by people really anxious to find out how much money they ought to invest in Liberty Bonds.

Ask the question of a dozen friends and you will receive a dozen varying answers.

Here is an honest attempt to give a clear-cut answer to the question.

General Pershing's soldiers are allowed enough to wear, enough to eat, and a few dollars weekly to spend on tobacco and little necessities—the balance of their earning power is devoted as a gift to the Government.

Here Is Your Standard

In the matter of saving for the Liberty Loan your standard has been set. Those men who are making if need be the supreme sacrifice for you, for our country and for humanity, have established a clean-cut standard. They have a right to believe that you will allow yourself enough money to purchase the bare necessities of life, and conduct business essential to the war, devoting the balance of your earning power to your Country in the form of subscriptions to Liberty Loans.

A man who gives up salary or income in order to fight for you and yours has the right to expect that you will at least

Lend As He Has Given

The man who endures without complaint the heartache of parting from those he loves, has the right to expect that you will at least sacrifice and save, even to the point of discomfort, in order to supply him with fighting necessities.

It calls for some courage. It means working at some productive essential industry harder than ever before, and the giving up of every luxury. But will you not do these things and do them cheerfully, in order to place at the disposal of our fighting men the very substantial sum you will save by adopting such a course? You will gain mentally, morally, financially.

What MUST I Do?

The yearly income of all the people in this country is estimated at fifty billion dollars.

It has been made clear that twenty-four billion dollars must be raised for war purposes during the next twelve months.

It follows that nearly half of our national income must be set aside for the payment of taxes, and subscriptions to Government loans.

Nothing short of the heroic measures of economy and saving called for by the Government will avail—measures such as our soldiers have adopted in their complete surrender of self to the cause of winning the war.

The man of moderate income will have to give or lend to the Government in the form of taxes or subscriptions to Government Loans, about one-third of his income during the next twelve months. Of course, the larger the income, the greater the percentage that must be lent or given. One-third of their income is the share of the average family. Many will be called upon to do far more.

In mathematical calculations then is to be found the answer to the question "What MUST I Do?", but in the example of our fighting men is to be found our standard, our inspiration and our guide, and the answer to the question "What Do You Think I Ought To Do?".

Let us store in our hearts the words of our President:

"The shadows that now lie dark upon our path will soon be dispelled, and we shall walk with the light all about us if we be but true to ourselves."

Your standard has been set. Be true to that standard. Keep faith with your country, your soldiers, and with yourself.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

That for the purpose of constructing and completing an addition to the present Capitol Building at Santa Fe, New Mexico, the Governor shall appoint three reputable citizens of New Mexico, not more than two of whom shall belong to the same political party, as a commission, with full power and authority to employ an architect, and to let contracts for the erection of such building to the lowest and best responsible bidder, upon thirty days public notice, setting forth the same in such contracts or portions thereof to different contractors, as in the judgment of the commission may be most advisable.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any member of such commission to become or be, directly or indirectly, interested in any contract or lien, or to make any profit, directly or indirectly, out of any such contract or to furnish or supply, directly or indirectly, any labor, material or other commodity used in and about completing any such contract or contracts. The members of such commission shall be entitled their actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in and about such work, but shall receive no further or additional compensation.

Sec. 4. For the purpose of providing funds for the erection of said addition to the Capitol Building, there is hereby authorized and created a bonded indebtedness of the State of New Mexico in the sum of two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars, and there shall be issued one hundred (100) bonds of the denomination of one thousand (1,000) dollars each. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four and one-half per cent per annum, which said interest shall be payable semi-annually in gold coin or its equivalent as legal money of the United States, on the first day of January of each year at the office of the State Treasurer of the State of New Mexico. The principal of said bonds shall be made payable to the bearer in gold coin or its equivalent as lawful money of the United States twenty years after the date of issue, shall be payable by said bonds that they may be redeemed at the option of the state at any time after ten years from their date. The said bonds shall state when and where payable, rate of interest, and when and where the interest shall be payable, and shall be signed by the Treasurer and Governor, and shall be attested by the Secretary of State and bear the seal of the state and shall be known as the "Capitol Addition Building Bonds." The faith and credit of the state is hereby pledged for the prompt payment of said bonds and the interest thereon as herein provided. In the state shall ever have the right to redeem any of said bonds after ten years from their date, and in advance of maturity, notice thereof shall be given by publication in the State Treasurer, in a newspaper published in Santa Fe, New Mexico, once a week for four successive weeks next prior to the date fixed for redemption, and if a bond so called for payment shall not be paid at the time designated, it shall cease to bear interest after such call, and interest shall be paid only to the date so fixed for redemption.

Sec. 5. Interest coupons shall be attached to the said bonds, and the said coupons shall be consecutively numbered and shall specify the number of the bond to which they are attached, and shall be signed by the Treasurer and be in general functional signature of the State Treasurer.

Notice of such proposed sale shall be given by the State Treasurer by publication in a daily newspaper published in the City of New York, and one issued in the City of New Mexico, at least ten days before such date, and bids shall be received at the office of the State Treasurer, which said notice shall be published once a week for three weeks in some newspaper published in the State of New Mexico, and in the same manner in the City of New York; the first publication of such notice to be made not less than seven days before such date, and bids shall be received at the office of the State Treasurer.

Sec. 7. Serially beginning with the date of said bonds, the first date for the payment of said bonds shall be the 30th day of September, 1925, and seventy-five (75) of said bonds shall be payable on the 30th day of September, 1925, and the balance of said bonds shall be payable on the 30th day of September, 1926. All of said bonds shall be sold at the same time and shall be issued and delivered at the times and in the amounts as specified in this act, and the proceeds received from the sale of said bonds shall be turned over to the State Treasurer to be kept by him in a separate fund for the purpose of the construction, furnishing, equipping and completing said Capitol Building Addition.

Sec. 8. That to pay the interest on said bonds as it shall become due, the State Auditor and the State Treasurer shall transfer to the interest fund which shall be used exclusively for said purpose, all the income derived from lands belonging to the state which were granted to the state by Act of Congress entitled "An Act to enable the people of New Mexico to form a Constitution and state government and be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, approved June 20th, 1910," for Legislative, Executive and Judicial public buildings heretofore erected in said Territory, or to be hereafter erected in the proposed state, and for the payment of the bonds hereinbefore and hereafter issued therefor," which said income shall be applied toward the liquidation of the interest on said bonds, and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof.

Sec. 9. To provide for the payment of the interest on the bonds issued pursuant to this act there shall be and there is hereby imposed and levied during each year any of said bonds shall be outstanding on all property in the state subject to taxation for state purposes, an annual tax sufficient to produce a sum equal to one year's interest on such bonds then outstanding, less the amount in the state treasury received by way of income from the land belonging to the state granted by Act of Congress as stated in Section 8 hereof, and to provide a sinking fund for the payment of the principal of said bonds the State Treasurer shall retain and use for said purpose all the proceeds derived from the sale of the land so granted to the state for the purposes in this act stated, which said proceeds or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied successively towards the payment of the principal of the bonds authorized in this act, and to further provide for a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds there shall be and there is hereby imposed and levied during each year after any of said bonds shall become due for ten years after the date thereof, among such year any said bonds are outstanding an annual tax on all property in the state subject to taxation for state purposes, sufficient in addition to income derived from the sale of said lands and held for said purpose, to pay the principal of the said bonds at maturity.

Sec. 11. The said Capitol Building Addition shall be not less than two stories high, not less than one hundred and fifty feet long and seventy feet wide, and shall be erected at the north end of the present Capitol Building, and not more than fifty feet distant therefrom, and shall be so arranged that the light in the second story of the present Capitol Building shall not be cut off, and such addition shall be so arranged that it may be heated from the heating plant supplying the present Capitol Building, and such addition shall be connected with the present Capitol Building on the ground floor by a passageway properly constructed, according to the plans and specifications of the architect; and such addition shall be fireproof as it is possible to make it, and when completed shall be occupied by the State Library, State Supreme Court and all offices connected therewith, and for Library purposes.

Sec. 12. The said commission shall have full power and authority to do any and all acts deemed necessary and proper in and about the erection of said building, the determination and adoption of plans therefor and the employment of labor and the drawing of vouchers in the proper form for the payment of all indebtedness contracted in and about said work and building for the State Auditor, and the State Auditor shall draw his warrant on the State Treasurer for the payment, and the State Treasurer shall pay the same on presentation thereof out of the funds received from the sale of said bonds herein authorized.

When such building is completed the architect employed by such commission shall file with the Secretary of State copies of the plans and specifications for said building; and when said building is completed, it shall be inspected by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and if found to be in accordance with the plans and specifications, it shall be so reported.
