FLIGHT OF CZAR FROM THE CAPITAL IS NOW REPORTED

DRUID CAPTURES SEVENTH RACE FROM HYPERION

Jockey Horner Rushes Her to the Front and Is Never Headed, Winning Easily by Length and a Half.

BY FRANK W. THORP.

BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, Aug. 2.—Dandelion finally won a race. He won the lovishible handicap, at a mile and a quarter, at Brighton this afternoon, but he was sulking all through the race, and Sewell had to coax him all the way. Even after he got his nose in front of Coy Maid he hung and barely got home by a short head. Dolly Spanker, an added horse, was third into the stretch, where Cederstrome nailed him and beat him out of third place.

Mamie Hodge won the opening dash simply because Sewell rode her. Any other rider than Cochran could have won with Far West for he had clear sailing to the stretch and one jump further would have won. Cochran was unable to get that extra few inches out of Far West.

Golf Ball was a hot favorite in the second race but Gold Lady, the second choice, coming with an irresistible rush through the stretch got up in time to win by a length. Montgomery ran a good race, closing strong.

Donna, second choice, won the third race easily from Water Tank. Cholk Hedrick, the favorite, bolted on the stretch turn.

Nannie Hodge Wins by a Head.

Van Ness went to the front, followed by Far West, Listless and Nannie Hodge. Near the far turn Far West raced to the front and showed the way to the stretch, where Nannie Hodge closed. From the head of the stretch home it was a hot drive, Nannie Hodge getting the verdict by less than a length of a lead pencil. King Cole came from far back and was six lengths away.

Gold Lady Beats Golf Ball.

Dunvallo went to the front at the start, but was soon passed by Gold Ball, who led into the stretch followed by James Crawford and Montgomery. In the run home Gold Lady closed with a great rush and got up in time to win by a length from Golf Ball who beat Montgomery three lengths for the place.

Donna Wins by Four Lengths.

Water Tank went to front at the start and made all the running to the far turn, followed by Cholk Hedrick and Donna. The latter went to the front on the turn and staying there to the end won by four lengths from Water Tank who beat Cholk Hedrick ten lengths. The latter bolted on the stretch turn.

Dandelion Beats Coy Maid a Head.

Cederstrome made the early running, but as soon as they reached the back stretch Coy Maid went to the front and showed the way to the far turn, followed by Dandelion and Dolly Spanker. On the turn Dandelion went to the front, but Coy Maid hung to him, and it was a hot drive all the way home, Dandelion winning by a head. Cederstrome came on again and was third two lengths away.

Jaunty, Favorite, Badly Hurt.

Jim Leonard made all the running, followed by Athens, Jaunty and Flowaway. They ran this way to the stretch, where Jaunty, shut off by Umbrella, tried to come through on the inside and fell. Flowaway then went to the front and won in a drive by a length and a half from Jim Leonard, who was five lengths in front of Ros-

Peterhof Castle.

IMPERIAL FAMILY SAID TO HAVE FLED FROM PETERHOF TO TSARSKOE-SELO REFUGE.

Armored Vessel in Full Possession of Mutineers, Who Kill Officers and Head for Gulf of Finland.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—The Czar and the Imperial family are said to have fled from the palace at Peterhof and to have taken refuge at Tsarskoe-Selo.

This report follows all sorts of disquieting news from the north, including the seizure of an armored cruiser by mutineers, who killed the officers, and a report that warships in the hands of rebels are advancing upon Cronstadt.

Tsarskoe-Selo is about fifteen miles from St. Petersburg and is the camp of the guard regiments from June to the end of August. It consists of a small town situated on the Doudergovka River and the Doudergovka Lakes, near which is a famous imperial palace, a favorite summer residence of the court, begun in 1744.

During the night mutinous sailors, soldiers and sappers and miners seized Fort Constantine at Cronstadt, but were subsequently dislodged and compelled to surrender, after heavy fighting with the loyal regiments.

A hundred men were killed and many were wounded, including Admiral Beakiwisheff.

MUTINEERS SEIZE ARMORED CRUISER.

It is asserted that four mutinous warships have arrived at Cronstadt and that the guns of that fortress have been trained on them, but that fire has not yet been opened.

News reached here late this afternoon to the effect that the crew of the armored cruiser Pamyat Azova mutinied off the Esthonian Coast and are now in full possession of the ship, which has sailed northward in the direction of the Finnish Gulf.

It is stated that the Captain and four other officers of the armored cruiser Pamyat Azova were killed by the mutineers, who captured that warship.

The garrison of Forts Constantine and Alexander, at Cronstadt, received, previous to the mutiny, the following cipher telegram from Sverborg:

"Prepare yourselves to receive a free fleet. We hope to find you friends and not enemies."

A reply was sent in the desired sense and chiefs were chosen from among the sailors, after the latter had expelled their officers.

During the Skatudden Island mutiny only one, the Finn, of six vessels stationed in the north harbor, fired on the marine barracks occupied by mutineers, the others remaining passive.

The Czar's private yacht Polar Star was held at the pier below the palace at Peterhof, with steam up, ready to leave at a moment's notice. The Imperial palace is within range of the big guns at Cronstadt fortress.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS WHO WERE SLAIN BY MUTINEERS.

The officers killed at Cronstadt were Captains Ravonoff, Debrovolsky and Shumoff, of the navy, and Captain Stoianovsky, of the artillery. Admiral Beakiwisheff was wounded in the back by a bayonet thrust.

Sentinels Were in Plot.

A correspondent of the Associated Press who attempted to reach Cronstadt to-day from Orienbaum, on the Gulf of Finland, opposite Cronstadt, found the place almost in a state of panic. All communication with the Island of Cronstadt was interdicted.

The suspicion is heightened by the fact that the commander disarmed the Syesok Regiment during the evening.

A plot has been carefully planned by which the mutineers obtained possession of the train steamer. Then, without lights, they ran a train to the bridge separating the island from Fort Constantine, which, with the evident connivance of the sentinels, they had no difficulty in entering. The main body of the Fortress artillery joined the mutineers, and those who did not were bound and gagged.

Fired Upon the City.

The mutineers then turned guns of the fortress against the camp of the loyal troops in the city and opened fire to cover the escape of the train steamer, which sailed around into a protected position under the guns of the fort. Until the guns opened the whole affair was conducted so quietly that the murder of the fortress had no suspicion of what had happened.

Upon the first shot a general alarm was sounded and the entire garrison was called out. While a portion of the loyal troops took up positions in the streets, which were filled with terror-stricken inhabitants, a storming party, consisting of three regiments of Grenadiers, the Yeseok, Shainovsky and Vladimirsky, was formed and led to the assault.

After four volleys had been fired the mutineers hoisted the white flag, and those who refused to surrender were despatched.

Lofer machine guns were posted in the main streets. No mercy was shown to those suspected of being agitators, and a number of innocent persons are reported to have been killed.

DETROIT, Aug. 2.—The Highlanders is the only team in the League except the Chicagos which patronizes a D. A. Day hotel when in Detroit. Perhaps that is why the home team can beat them here, but are helpless before them in New York.

To-day Griffith sent Chesbro to the slab to prevent another defeat like that of yesterday. Killian went in the box for Detroit.

First Inning.

Conroy walked. Keeler hit for two bases, Conroy taking third. On Elberfeld's grounder to Coughlin, Conroy was thrown out at plate, Keeler advancing. Chase flied to Jones, scoring Keeler. La Porte forced Elberfeld, Schaefer to Lindsay. ONE RUN.

Jones flied to Elberfeld. Schaefer grounded to Elberfeld. Delehanty got McIntyre's foul. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Williams grounded to Lindsay. Delehanty hit safe. Kleinow popped to

On account of rain the following games were called off this afternoon: Giants and St. Louis, at the Polo Grounds; Brooklyn and Pittsburg doubleheader, at Washington Park, Brooklyn; Chicago and Philadelphia, in the Quaker City, and Providence and Newark at the latter city.

The Giants and Cardinals and the Brooklyn and Pittsburg teams will play doubleheaders to-morrow, the first game to begin at 3 o'clock.

PRIZE FIGHT MANAGER SET FREE BY COURT

Magistrate Breen Overrules Police in Long Acre Club Case.

Magistrate Breen this afternoon discharged Michael Newman from custody on the charge of conspiring to conduct a prize fight. The magistrate held that no case of intended violation of the statute was made out against Newman.

Newman is manager of the Long Acre Athletic Club. He advertised some time ago that an exhibition of sparring would be given before members of the club to-night at the club-rooms, No. 153 West Twenty-ninth street. He was immediately arrested by detectives from the District-Attorney's office and held for examination on the charge that he intended violating the law prohibiting prize-fighting.

Witnesses swore that Newman had advertised the bout, and that admission was to be charged. Detectives swore that they had made arrangements to get tickets, and that after the arrest they had been notified that their applications for membership in the club had been turned down, and they were not allowed to join.

This seemed to the Magistrate to prove that the club was all right, and he discharged the prisoner with the statement that there is nothing in the law to prohibit the giving of sparring exhibitions with an admission charge so long as it is given by a regular club and only by and before members of the club.

BOYS AVERT PANIC IN BIG APARTMENT

Hall and Elevator Attendants Cool During Fire at Columbia Court.

The cool-headed bravery of two negro hallboys prevented a panic among the twenty-one families in the big apartment, Columbia Court, on Riverside Drive, late this afternoon, when a fire started in one of the second-floor flats. The boys, by their careful plans, brought all of the tenants out safely before the fire apparatus arrived.

The fire started from some unknown cause in the apartment of Milton Fuerst, a banker. He and his family have been away for a week, and the flat was locked up. Archie Davis, the boy who has charge of the telephone switchboard, smelled smoke and told Thomas Symonds, the elevator boy, to go up the shaft and look for it.

Symonds discovered it on the second floor and reported to Davis, who telephoned an alarm.

Then Davis inserted the plugs in the wire connections for the top floor families while Symonds ran the car up to that floor.

"There's a fire in the house," said Davis, talking to all the top floor folks. "But you needn't be afraid. This elevator is at your floor and you can come down right now."

The tenants poured out and were brought down. Davis began to call up two floors at a time and in three more trips the house was emptied. The men, women, and children were frightened and crowded eagerly into the cars. Owing to the generalship of the negro lads they were not called up in sufficient numbers to create a panic or endanger the car.

When the firemen broke into the Fuerst flat they found nearly all the furnishing destroyed. They prevented the blaze from spreading further.

MAN A SUICIDE BY SHOOTING IN DOCTOR'S HOME

Name Given as Oscar Lowie, but Servants Hide Facts.

A man whose name is given by the police of the East Sixty-seventh Street Station as Oscar Lowie, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself, at the residence of Dr. A. V. Moschcowitz, No. 925 Madison avenue. Considerable mystery surrounds the case. None of the family was at home at the time of the shooting, and the two servants refuse to make any statement.

The man who shot himself was about thirty years old. What his relation, if any, to the household was, is not known.

As Patrolman Donohue of the East Sixty-seventh Street station was passing the house this afternoon one of the servant girls told him a man had just shot himself. The patrolman followed the girl into the basement, and found the man lying on the floor dead, with a revolver clenched in his right hand, and a bullet wound through his head.

Donohue tried to get some facts out of the servants without success. They refused to tell the patrolman anything until the arrival of their employer this evening. Detectives have been assigned to the case.

BINGHAM BINGS ON EVE OF GOING AWAY

This is Police Commissioner Bingham's last day at Headquarters for six weeks, and he made sure that his memory should be kept green by making seventy-four transfers just before closing his desk and leaving.

The order makes a clean sweep of the men officering the courts. The court detail is cut down in most instances, and new men will be found in every court. There there have been six or eight there will be one or two. The rest will do patrol duty.

Capt. John Becker, of the Williamsburg Bridge, and Capt. John F. Tappan, of Glendale, S. I., change places.

Sergt. "Bob" McNaught, jr., who won Gen. Bingham by his work in the "Street Cleaning Squad," has been ordered to Headquarters, where he has been assigned to the Chief Clerk's office, handy to the Commissioner.

For Cuts, Sprains, Bruises and Burns use Omega Oil. Trial bottle, 10c.
