ARTISAN 2D, NO. 860.

Is a red sorrel, two white hind feet, star in forehead, 17 hands high, fine style, good bone and muscle, and is just the horse for saddle or light harness. Sired by Artisan Jr., 2:22; he by Artist 75; he by King William, 67; his dam by Jewell Denmark; Artist, Jr. by Artist, dam by Lexington. Jewell Denmark was by Washington Denmark, dam the Queen, a fine saddle mare. For extended pedigree see N. S. H. Register. Artisan 2d, No. 860 will stand at $10.

Marmaduke, Jr.

Marmaduke, Jr., is a beautiful dark bay with black points. His hands high and will weigh 1000. This is one of the best all purpose horses in the county, as he is a first class road horse and heavy enough to draw a larger load than any draft stallion in the county. He was sired by Marmaduke, No. 806; dam by Bismark; he by Boston. His colts are large and fine, just the kind to sell on the market at fancy prices or to raise first-class mule mares from, as draft mares never produce good mules. He will stand at $10.

BALAAM.

Balaam is a brown jack with light points, 14½ hands high, will weigh 1000 pounds, is very long body and extra heavy bone. He is one of the best of breeders, as his colts show for themselves; he is a sure foal getter and will breed with any big jack in the country. He will stand at $8.00 to insure colt to stand and suck.

Care taken to prevent accidents, but no responsibility assumed should any occur.

All money due when mare is parted with, traded off or removed from the neighborhood. A lien is retained on the colt for service money.

The above animals will make the season of 1901 at the Flattenburg farm (formerly owned by Pat O'Malley) two and a half miles southeast of Lexington, near the old fair grounds.

FRANK FISHER.

RUSTIC B. 30763.

(RECORD 2:22¼.)

Bred and owned by Joseph R. Barnett, proprietor Edgefield Stock Farm, Lexington, Missouri, will make the season of 1901 at his farm 8 miles southeast of Lexington, near Prairie church, at $15 to insure, money due as soon as the fact is ascertained or mare parted with. A lien is retained on the colt for service money. No responsibility for accidents.

Rustic B. is 7 years old, 16 hands, 2 inches high; dark bay with black points, good size, weighs 1,300 pounds, with both style and speed combined; good mane and tail.

Rustic B. was sired by Newcomb, 2959; he by Nutwood, No. 600, record 2:18¼; Nutwood is the premier stallion as a sire of speed; he by Belmont, No. 64; Newcomb's 1st dam, Maggie Wilkes, dam of three in the list, by George Wilkes, record 2:22; Rustic B.'s 1st dam, Mertrix, by Merchant, No. 599; he by Belmont, No. 64; 2nd dam by Al West, No. 14371; he by Almont, No. 33; 3rd dam by Marmaduke, No. 9082; 4th dam by Idol, No. 177; he by Membrino Chief, No. 11.

Judge Doster on the College Boy.

Judge Frank Doster, chief justice of Kansas City, who will deliver the annual address to the graduating class of W. M. A. May 31, recently turned himself loose upon the college boy in the Kansas "Knocker." If the extract below is a fair sample of Judge Doster's style we may fairly expect a treat at the W. M. A. commencement.

"Among other things I would reform the college student or kill him off. I knock on him. I know we pretend to done on him and affect to believe that he is the hope and first care of the state, but it's a lie. We don't. Nobody but his mother does. From the time he first starts out to render "Gallia est omnis divisa in partes tres" he becomes an insufferable nuisance. If at that stage of his career his own gall could be divided into 3,000 parts instead of three and he left with only one of them the relief to mankind and to himself would be inestimable, because an infinitesimal fraction of the whole of what he has would suffice the needs of any ordinary mortal.

"Why do I say these hard things about him? I say it because he is self important, noisy, conceited, ignorant of all practical wisdom, parts his hair in the middle, flaunts his fraternity badge and school colors in an offensive, challenging sort of way in everybody's face, and prances up street yawping his ear-splitting college yell to the fright and disgust of all timid, sensitive folk within sound. I saw him at the twentieth Kansas reception a bigger man than Funston—bigger even than General Hughes—making more noise and taking up more room than the whole procession, elbowing everybody out of the way, and drowning the voices of the orators and the music of the bands with his idiotic "Rock Chalk, Jay Hawk; Rah! Rah! Rah! Washburn rah! Baker, hurrah!" or whatever the infernal Siwash gibberish is. I have seen somewhat of this world and I think I have correctly sized up a good many people in it, and I give it as my mature and solemn judgment, based upon a careful, unprejudiced comparison of the many classes of people who cultivate the habit of making a holy show of themselves, that with the exception to be hereafter noticed, the average college student is the most obtrusive and elephantine ass that fronts the grieved and frowning face of heaven. I was a college student once myself.

"Now, I am not objecting to what this creature learns at school. It's what he don't learn that I am talking about. He's lazy. He don't design himself for any of the usual work of mankind. Nobody ever heard of a college student who was fitting himself for anything but one of the learned professions, so called, that is, one of the professions of learning how to live off the balance of mankind. He's going to be a lawyer, a preacher, a doctor, an editor, an author, an orator, a statesman, and no doubting thought ever ruffles his serenely egotistic soul that when once he vaults into the arena of affairs the things of this world will be speedily set to rights.

"But when he finally does land out the much abused, long suffering world gets its revenge. The world just trips him up and rolls its big self over him and mashes the wind out of him and then picks him up and chucks him into a little 8x10 office, with cobwebs on the ceiling and fly specks on the windows, and two broken-leg chairs on the floor, and a dozen second-hand books in a wobbly old case with the glass broke out, and refusing to pay his board bill any longer, goes off and leaves him to learn wisdom from the ant.

"Nor have I any spite at the college student. I only think he takes up too much room and makes too much noise and costs too much money and is too smart in the budding days of his career. If he could only be induced to subside somewhat, to practice a little the modest habit of self-effacement, go out and soak his head, turn an X-ray upon his inwards and see himself as others see him, we could possibly endure him, instead of filling up with wicked wishes for his assassination. But he won't.

Epworth League California Excursions..

Account Fifth International Convention of Epworth League, San Francisco July 18-21.

San Francisco is an ideal summer resort—weather always cool.

Trip thither in summer, across bright tablelands of New Mexico and Arizona is pleasant—air bracing, no oppressive heat or dust.

Best way to go is via Santa Fe Route, only line under one management, Chicago to San Francisco; daily trains to California, Fred Harvey meal service, personally-conducted excursions.

On the way visit Indian pueblos, and petrified forest, also Grand Canon of Arizona—world's greatest scenic spectacle, now easily accessible.

See southern California—its noted resort hotels, idyllic valley, majestic mountains, smooth beaches and lovely islands, its old missions, its semi-tropic fruits and flowers, its great oil wells. This important section reached via Santa Fe Route cheaper than most other lines and with greater comfort.

Extremely low round-trip rates; liberal stop-over privileges; choice of routes returning; open to everybody. All ticket agents sell via Santa Fe Route. Descriptive literature on request.

New Reunion Music.

A new piece of reunion music has been published by O. K. Houck & Co. of Memphis and Little Rock. For originality and brilliancy it cannot be excelled. It is called the "U. C. V. March," a two-step, composed by Theo. H. Northrup, and dedicated to the United Confederate Veterans. From a musical as well as an artistic viewpoint this production, issued especially for the coming reunion, is a master-piece, and one that will live in the memory of those who hear it from scores of bands and orchestras here during the great gathering. The contrast of the brilliant catchy first part, with the sweet sadness of the memories of the great tragedy recalled by the conclusion, is where the composer has shown his art.

The cover is a beautiful thing, wrought in the old Confederate colors. The top of the sheet is adorned with a Confederate standard, with the letters, "U. C. V." in blue. Below this are the portraits of Gens. Robert E. Lee and Nathan Bedford Forrest. To the right of this is a fac-simile of the Confederate emblem—the famous reunion button. Two sheathed swords and a branch of olive are emblematic of the eternal peace of the old North and South, sections that no longer exist, and this effect is heightened by a furled flag, a shattered drum and a dismounted field gun at the base of the two portraits. It is a work of art and a credit to the designer.—Evening Scimitar (Memphis), May 15.

NEWS OF THE RAILWAYS.

The Rock Island's proposition for cheap rate excursions to and from Colorado during this summer has been negatived by the Western Passenger Association. In consequence notice was served yesterday on Chairman McLeod by General Passenger Agent Sebastian that the Rock Island will take independent action and put in effect a rate of one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip from Chicago and all intermediate points east of the Missouri river to Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Salt Lake City and Ogden. Tickets at this rate will be sold on June 30, July 9 and 17 and August 1. From Missouri river points the same rate will be made on the days following these dates. Tickets at this rate also will be sold from Missouri river gateways, Kansas City to Omaha, inclusive, on July 7, 8 and 9. Four special excursions will also be run by the Rock Island from Colorado common points to Chicago and intermediate stations on June 24, July 11 and 20 and August 4. These excursion tickets, both east and west bound, will be limited for return passage to October 31. The Rock Island announces its intention of placing in service special trains for these excursions, leaving Chicago at 5 p. m. and making the run to Colorado with only one night on the road—Chicago Tribune.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

STATE OF MISSOURI, COUNTY OF LAFAYETTE. } ss.

In the Circuit Court of Lafayette County, Missouri, at Lexington, August Term, 1900.

Charles Shaw, Plaintiff, vs.
Margaret J. Shaw, Defendant.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein by his attorney, and files his petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendant, Margaret J. Shaw, is a non-resident of the state of Missouri: Whereupon it is ordered by the clerk that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against her in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and said defendant on the grounds of desertion without reasonable cause, and that unless the said non-resident defendant, Margaret J. Shaw, be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and held at the court house, in the city of Lexington, in said county, on the 5th day of August, 1901 next, and on or before the first day of said term, if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then on or before the last day of said term, answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said county of Lafayette for four weeks consecutively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least thirty days before the first day of said next August term of this court.

A true copy. Attest—
J. H. CAMPBELL, Circuit Clerk.
