SPORTING NEWS AND COMMENT

EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN.

R. Edgren's COLUMN

A MAN doing hard work with his hands gets anything from $1 to $6 a day.

Battling Nelson on Labor Day will get $20,000 for an hour or so of fighting. Nelson isn't any more intelligent than the average carpenter or bricklayer. He isn't stronger, and he is a little fellow, weighing only 133 pounds. He has a rubber body and a stone jaw—which he uses in collecting the $20,000. But there are thousands of other undiscovered champions in America, if these things can make champions. Nelson seems to have drawn the grand prize in the lottery.

C. TITUS, the Nonpareil oarsman, who on Saturday won the national single sculls championship, is a living proof that an athlete can "come back." Titus held the title before, but of late found himself falling back, while younger and stronger men struggled for his honors.

Last year Titus made up his mind to get back on top of the heap. He began a long, careful course of training. His chances looked slim, but he stuck to it until he won out. With this return to form Titus will make all of the newer members of the coming craft dance for one more year at least.

PULLIAM hasn't acquired title to a ball club yet, but he still intends to. Cold storage people please write. No suitable slaughter-house refused.

"ONE more dash and the pennant will be ours," say the Giants.

Well, some of the Giants can supply dashes enough to win any dashed pennant.

DENNIS HORGAN, the New York A. C. shot-putter, is busy establishing a new record. At the training table on Travers Island Dennis daily eats thirty-six eggs, an even dozen at each meal. Dennis says that scientifically considered each egg contains as much food as two pounds of beef. Imagine eating seventy-two pounds of beef at a sitting!

QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY ROBERT EDGREN.

Please let me know in your paper where is the birthplace of Miller, now at Saratoga race-track.

Born in Brooklyn.

Kindly decide if bets on game between New York and Chicago Baseball Clubs, played Tuesday, Aug. 7, are declared off, and oblige

ENTHUSIASTIC FAN.

Bets between friends should be called off.

When Brooklyn won the pennant twice and Pittsburg came in second, did Brooklyn and Pittsburg play a series of games. Also who won the series. Did McGinnity pitch for Brooklyn at that time?

SAUL G. WENZEL.

207 Avenue A.

1. No. 2. Yes.

Would you please inform me whether a rain check if issued before four and a half innings have been played is good for any day in the season when issued, or only on the following day?

S. W. O.

A rain check is good any day.

ROMANELLI IS SUSPENDED BY SPA'S STEWARDS.

Reform Association of America, was at the track this afternoon. He placed bets, it is said, and will proceed to Gov. Higgins with the evidence and demand that the race track be closed.

Sewell's Well-Judged Ride.

Zienap broke in front in the first race, but Sewell took her back when Firebrand and Sanfara rushed away and forced the pace. These two opened up a gap of five lengths on Zienap and Calabash. The leaders tired in the stretch and Sewell, bringing Zienap up with a rush, took the lead and won easily by two lengths from Sanfara, who was two lengths in front of Belle of Pequest.

Champs Elysees Takes Jump.

In the second Waterford and Allegiance made the early running, followed by Champs Elysees. Allegiance stopped half a mile from home, and Waterford led to the last jump, where Champs Elysees closed, and taking the lead, won easily by since length. Waterford was four lengths in front of Pirate.

Kentucky Beau in a Gallop.

Kentucky Beau, a hot favorite in the third, made a show of his field. He made all the running and won in a gallop by four lengths from Altuda, who was second all the way. Dulcinea was third, two lengths away.

Merry Lark's Stake Race.

Fustian went to the front in the Catskill Stakes and forced the pace, followed by Merry Lark and Disobedient. There was no change in the order to the stretch. There Merry Lark went to the front, and, coming away easily, won by two lengths from Disobedient, who beat Red Leaf a length and a half for the place.

New Mown Hay Just in Time.

Chalk Bluffick made the early running in the fifth, followed by Yorkshire Lad, Woolwich and Champlain. On the far turn Yorkshire Lad went to the front and secured the way to the wire, followed by Woolwich and Sam Harris. In the stretch New Mown Hay closed strong and just got up in time to win by a head from Yorkshire Lad, who beat Woolwich a head. New Mown Hay was badly beaten in her last race ridden by Romandell.

Killiecrankie Wins Sixth.

In the last race Beldemo rushed to the front, followed by Killiecrankie and Eddie Ware. They ran this way to the stretch, where Killiecrankie closed on Beldemo, and in a drive Killiecrankie won by three-quarters of a length from Beldemo, who beat Smiling Tom a neck.

ODD STORIES OF THE RACE TRACK.

How Madden, by a Trick, Got Two-Year-Old Champion Salvidere — Horace E. Rainey's $25,000 Beauty and Futurity Candidate, Was Raised on Bottle.

HERE are two odd stories of the turf. One is told about John E. Madden's cleverness in securing Salvidere at such a cheap price. It was known that Jack McGinness had had his eye on Salvidere and that he had confided to his friends that he was going to buy the gelding at the Brown sale. Madden also wanted Salvidere, so he confided in Charley White and arranged to have Charley do some bidding for him.

When Salvidere was brought into the sales ring Madden was close to McGinness. He at once bid, and the price went up and up until Madden bid $3,500. Madden then stopped, and McGinness bid $3,600. The auctioneer wanted Madden to go on, but Madden shook his head, remarking audibly to some one near him, and loud enough for McGinness to hear, that he did not like the appearance of the gelding's legs, which looked as if they had been blistered. Then Charlie White bid $3,700, and McGinness, heaping Madden's remark, declined to go any further. The gelding was knocked down to White, who, of course, was bidding for Madden. Salvidere has won over $30,000 in stakes and purses.

WHILE on the subject of two-year-olds it may be interesting to relate that Horace E. was raised on the bottle. Horace E. was a very delicate foal and had to be fed with great care. He was taken from his mother and fed on the bottle. He was given a lamb for a companion, and soon thrived and developed into a sturdy youngster. There might be more bottle-fed youngsters if they would all turn out as well as Horace E.

it to first in time. Seymour went out on a fly t. Beaumont. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Wagner smashed a hot single through Devlin. Nealon sacrificed to Mazy. Sheehan sent a line drive to Shannon. On a wild pitch Wagner went to third. Ritchey wound it up with an easy grounder to Dahlen. NO RUNS.

Devlin was given a pass to first. McGann duntedand Sheehan threw the ball over Nealon's head and Devlin went to third and Dan to second. Dahlen drove a fly to Beaumont and Devlin scored. Strang got a pass. Mazy hit to Nealon, and the Californian relayed the ball to second, forcing out Strang. ONE RUN.

Third Inning.

Bowerman rap against the stand and caught Phelps's high foul. Leifeld struck out. Clarke popped a weak fly to Dahlen. NO RUNS.

Shannon was called out on strikes, after fouling all over the lot. Browne singled to right. Bowerman was also called out on strikes. Browne was out stealing second. NO RUNS.

Bowerman kicked on the decision and was put out of the game, Bresnahan taking his place.

Fourth Inning.

Meier struck out on the first three balls pitched. Beaumont topped a weak foul to Bresnahan. Wagner slammed another single into centre. Wagner was caught napping off first and a quick throw from Matty nailed him. NO RUNS.

Seymour laced a single into right. Devlin got a pass on balls. McGann advanced both runners with a neat sacrifice to Sheehan. Dahlen also walked, and the bases were full. Leifeld got Strang's grounder, throw it to Phelps, forcing out Seymour, and Phelps relayed it to first in time to get Strang, completing a neat double play. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Nealon filed out to Seymour. Sheehan sent a high foul to Bresnahan. Browne was waiting for Ritchey's long smash to right. NO RUNS.
