(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, BALL PARK, Sept. 4.—The Phillies, who played the nightmare article of baseball against Donovan's Brooklyn team, were this afternoon asked to at least make an effort to prevent a shut-out when they entered the final game of the series today. There were scarcely a handful of fans on hand, and little is the wonder, for after the horrible games of yesterday a general shaking up is due.

First Inning.

Casey died. Doolin to Bransfield. Maloney reached second on a Texas Leaguer. Lumley's grounder went through Doolin, Maloney scoring. Jordan struck out. Lumley died stealing. Donovan to Doolin. ONE RUN.

Thomas died, Lewis to Jordan. Gleason went the ground trip to Jordan. Bransfield singled and was left. Titus going out, Stricklett to Jordan. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

McCarthy hit to left for two bases. Alperman advanced the runner on sacrifice. Lush to Bransfield. Lewis flied to Magee. McCarthy scoring. Bergen sliled to Titus. ONE RUN.

Magee flied to Ritter. Doolin died, Stricklett to Jordan. Courtney was retired at first by Lewis. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Bransfield took Stricklett's grounder into camp. Casey fouled to Donovan. Maloney took a walk and stole second. Lumley struck out. NO RUNS.

Donovan died. Lumley to Jordan. Lush's grounder went through Alperman. Thomas flied to McCarthy. Lush stole second. Gleason's fungo hit scored Lush. Bransfield singled. Titus breezed. ONE RUN.

Fourth Inning.

Jordan went the Gleason to Bransfield route. McCarthy waffled the same way. Lush and Bransfield retired Alperman. NO RUNS.

Magee went out, Alperman to Jordan. Doolin was safe on Alperman's fumble. Courtney flied to Maloney. Doolin was nailed stealing, Stricklett, Jordan to Lewis. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Lewis skied to Thomas. Bergen singled to right. Stricklett hit into a double play, Gleason to Doolin to Bransfield. NO RUNS.

Lewis threw Jordan out at first. Casey took Lush's foul-fly and then captured Thomas's skyscraper. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Casey flied to Thomas. Maloney struck out. Doolin threw Lumley out at first.

Gleason was easy. Lewis to Jordan. Bransfield singled. Titus flied to Maloney. Magee died, Lewis to Jordan. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Hummel now playing second for Brooklyn. After Donovan muffed Jordan's foul fly the Brooklynite fanned. McCarthy was safe on Gleason's fumble, but was forced by Hummel, Doolin to Gleason. Hummel was caught napping. Lush to Bransfield. NO RUNS.

Doolin flied to Bergen. Courtney hit for two bases to right and reached third on Donovan's out to Jordan. Lush doubled to centre, scoring Curtney. Thomas strolled. Gleason flied to Lumley. ONE RUN.

Eighth Inning.

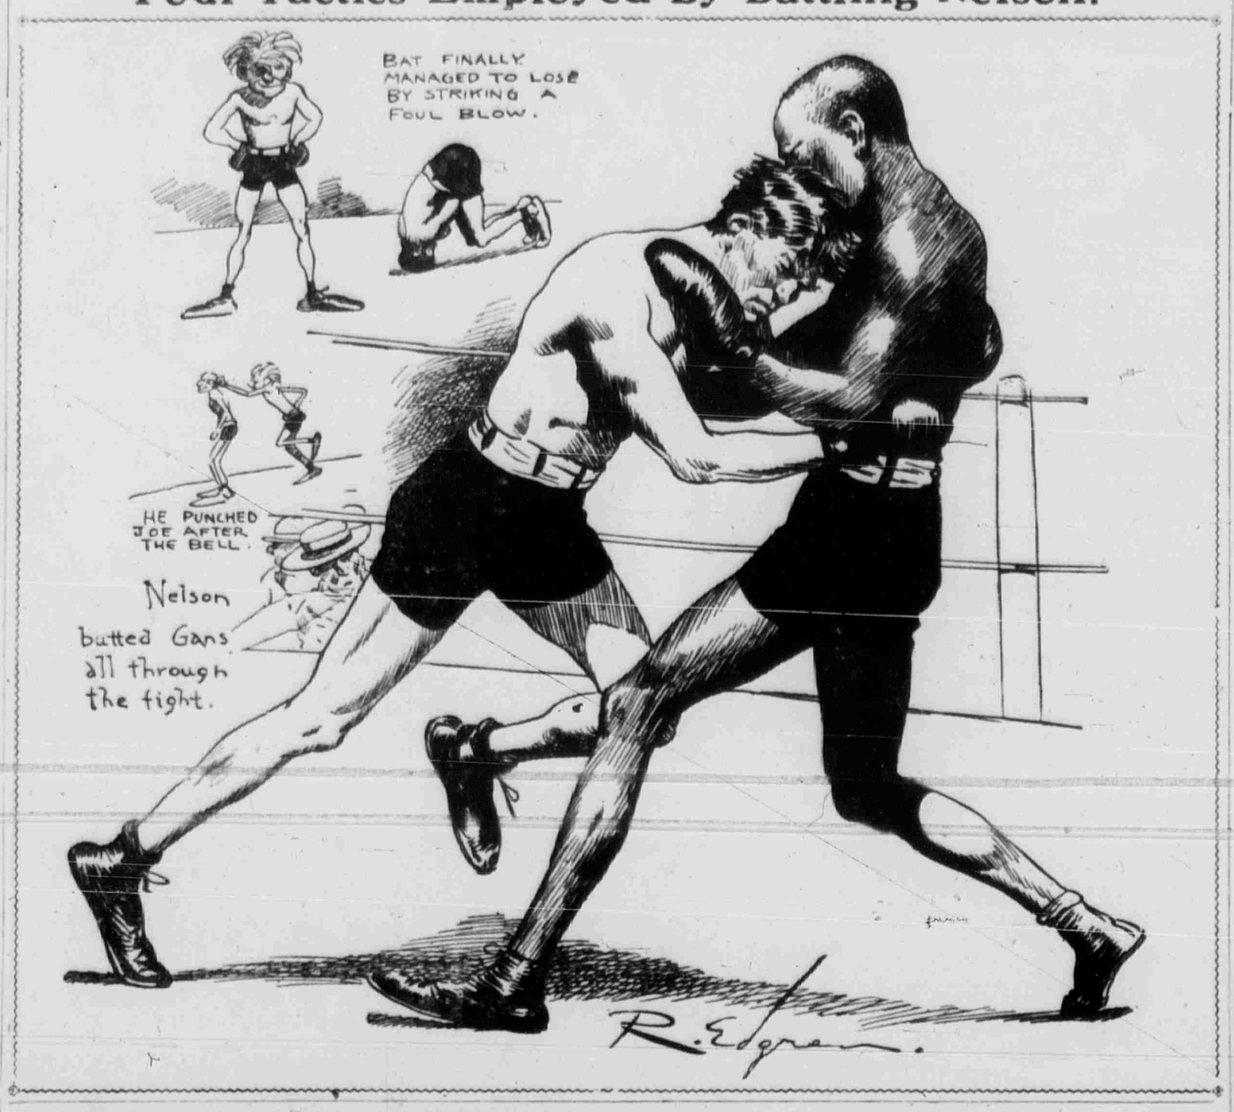
Lewis hit to centre for a base and advanced on Bergen's sacrifice. Lush to Bransfield. Lewis stole third, while Catcher Donovan took a nap. Lewis died, Lush to Donovan, trying to score on Stricklett's roller. Casey fanned. NO RUNS.

Bransfield beat out an infield hit. Titus sacrificed, Jordan to Hummell. Magee doubled to right, scoring Bransfield. Magee stole third. Doolin walked. Courtney drew a pass and the bases were filled. Donovan died to McCarthy, scoring Magee. Lush singled, scoring Doolin and Courtney. Thomas skied to Casey. FOUR RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

Maloney skied to Gleason. Lumley grounded to Bransfield. Jordan walked. McCarthy fouled to Donovan. NO RUNS.

Foul Tactics Employed by Battling Nelson.



MANY ENRAGED MINERS THREATEN NELSON

mining claims that are producing $25,000 worth of ore a year.

Nelson Delirious.

Nelson will get out of the camp just as soon as his face can be patched up. He suffered a reaction last night and was delirious for several hours. He remained in bed all day. No one is permitted near his quarters, and few Goldfieldians want to go near there, for fear that their feelings may overcome their prudence and inspire them to unlimber small ordnance.

There are several hundreds of loafers in town who rode in on the beams across the desert, risking their lives and the danger of starving to death in this desolate Nevada waste, where you can wander hundreds of miles without discovering a drop of water, and where there is no shade except that offered by the Joshua trees. Today the streets are thronged with ragged and unshaven human derelicts, who wander in and out of the gambling saloons begging a few dollars from the players.

Two miles of special trains steamed quietly across the desert last night carrying the crowds of fans who came to the fight. Many hundreds were mighty glad that they had return tickets, for they had bucked the Goldfield faro with the usual result. Usually there is only one train out of this camp a day. It is a ride few care to make because of the terrific heat of the desert.
