SHAVE, HAIRCUT AND SHINE, ALL FOR 25C.

Enfield, Ill., March 24.—Two bits will buy a lot in Enfield these days. Travelers reading town remark on the well-groomed appearance of the male population. There have been rumors that the postmaster is to receive a higher salary because of increased cancellations at his office, and all these things because the town's two barber shops are engaged in a bitter trade war.

Nobody in Enfield believes about the price of a haircut any more. In Enfield a haircut, shave and shine can be purchased for the small sum known locally as two bits. As an extra inducement, just to prove that the patrons' trade is highly valued, the barber of either shop obligingly will mail any letter the best of which can be carried in Uncle Sam's mail for a two-cent stamp and will furnish the stamp. Business at both places is picking up rapidly.

HAS EIGHT CHILDREN.

Mrs. P. Rohkamp, 2304 Herman St. Covington, Ky., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for nearly two years and can find no better cough syrup. I have eight children and give it to all of them. They were subject to croup from babies on." It is a safe and reliable medicine. Sold everywhere.

"TROUBLES WITH MEXICO JUST BEGINNING" -- TAFT

Ames, Ia., March 24.—Addressing students of Iowa state university today William Howard Taft asserted that Mexico had been an international nuisance for years and that "that same providence which watches over drunken men and children has watched over the United States."

"Our troubles in Mexico are just beginning," he replied.

"It will require years and an army of 400,000 to restore order.

"We have made our way so far on bluff, except when the Lord gave us Spain, the only nation weaker than ourselves to fight."

Mr. Taft pleaded for preparedness.

HOW TO GET MONEY'S WORTH

"Reliable goods come under three main classes," says Farm and Fireside. "First, goods backed by the guarantee of your local merchants—persons you know and trust.

"Second, goods advertised in the better class of periodicals.

"Third, goods sold by concerns which have a permanent address and can give bank references."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound."

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, it is all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
