An Epidemic of Whooping Cough.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found that it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—JOHN E. CLIFFORD, Proprietor Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

At Ripley the trial of A. O. Scholter for shooting T. S. Thomson has been postponed until Monday, June 5th.

Mr. Robinson not only offers to his patrons the best series of circus performances, the finest and most elaborately equipped hippodrome, and the largest and most comprehensive menagerie, but has added this year to his already superlative series of exhibitions the grand biblical spectacle of Solomon, his Temple and the Queen of Sheba, unquestionably the finest scenic, processional, terpsichorean and lyric spectacle that has ever invited public patronage. Our citizens will soon have the opportunity of witnessing these exhibitions, for they are to be in this city on Wednesday, May 31st.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. LYNCH, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

REPUBLICAN.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

SPRINGDALE, KY., April 15th, 1899.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: At the request of my many friends I this day announce myself a candidate for State Senator from the counties of Mason and Lewis, subject to the action of the Republicans composing this District. T. P. DEGMAN.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER.

I am a candidate for re-election as Railroad Commissioner from the Third Kentucky District, subject to the action of the Republican party. I base my claims upon life-long adherence to the principles of my party: loyalty to all its nominees; years of earnest effort for its success, and faithful and conscientious performance of my official duties. Respectfully, JOHN C. WOOD.

DEMOCRATIC.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce JOHN W. ALEXANDER as a candidate for Representative from Mason county in the next Legislature.
