ELOPING PAIR CAUGHT

Carlos Durham and "Gwen" Atkinson Induce Father to Pardon.

Smithfield, Neb., Nov. 25.—"Gwen" Atkinson, the seventeen-year-old Bertrand girl who ran away from home with Carlos Durham for the purpose of getting married, was found at a farm house near Elwood, to which town the couple was supposed to have gone. The girl went home with her father and it was announced that he had become reconciled to his daughter's desired marriage with young Durham.

The pair first attempted to elope Tuesday, but were caught. The girl left home again Wednesday and was met at Smithfield by her would-be husband, who took her to the farm house to hide her. She telephoned friends of her whereabouts and they notified her father.

ASKS FREE COAL

Governor Clark Says It is Much Needed for Alaska.

RAILROADS AWAIT NEW ORDER

One Line Suspends for Lack of Mining Facilities and Industries of North Are Badly in Need of Cheaper Fuel. Favors Leasing System.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Expressing it as his opinion that the want of cheap fuel and the delay in opening the Alaska coal fields are the strongest adverse factors in the present problem of territorial progress, Governor Walter E. Clark of Alaska, in his annual report to the secretary of the Interior, declares that "the ill advised policy of forbidding all development of the large coal resources of Alaska, or of placing such restrictions upon development as to make the embarkation of private capital impossible, is to be deprecated, while the policy of conservation by proper use is to be encouraged.

"This coal," he says, "is needed for the industries of the territory and for the physical comfort of our people, and on no account should it be withheld from these uses."

The present impossibility of mining coal, under title or lease, is in a measure responsible for the suspension of one of the principal railroads. This has caused a general feeling of discouragement over the business situation in those parts of Alaska where development and settlement ought to be going on most rapidly.

Governor Clark says it appeared in public discussions of the subject that the opposition to opening the Alaska coal fields "springs chiefly from two sources—those persons who fear a monopoly and those who would have their coal held as a reserve supply for the future." He further says that while the present coal land law is not a good one, "it certainly lends no hope to monopolists, but rather is calculated to discourage the embarkation of capital."

TWO RIOTS IN CHICAGO

Three Women and Policemen Hurt in Fight With Strikers.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Italians, whom the police said were striking garment workers, engaged in two riots at Wentworth and Alexander streets. One woman was made unconscious by a blow on the head from a baseball bat, a man was clubbed senseless by the police, a sergeant was slightly injured and five women and four men were arrested.

Emma Ginto, a laundry worker, was the sufferer from the baseball bat. The weapon, it is alleged, was wielded by another woman, Bertha Pecon, who was arrested. While the fighting was going on, Police Sergeant John McCann was knocked to the ground by a stone. Joseph Benballa, who, it is said, threw the missile, was so severely clubbed afterward that he had to be taken to a hospital.

A short time afterward Walter Miller, twelve years old, fired on a crowd of strikers that had stormed the Miller home, and a bullet cut off a finger on the hand of Miss Frances Vesely. Miller's sister and several other garment workers had sought refuge in the house from the crowd.

BELL TELEPHONE SERVICE

Has reached its present high state of development because its policy has always been based upon the conviction that

"Success consists in gaining and deserving the confidence and the support of intelligent people."

How well this attitude has won public approval is shown by the astonishing growth of the Bell System in all parts of the country.

STATISTICS SHOW

One Bell Telephone installed every minute. One thousand miles of wire strung every day. More than six billion connections made every year. Five million telephones in use 40,000 in American cities.

In Nebraska the installation of 600 new telephones a month.

In Nebraska the building of 6,200 miles of copper toll lines last year.

In Nebraska one hundred twenty thousand telephones in 500 cities and towns.

OUR POLICY

Has always been to deal frankly and fairly with the public and rely for our achievement upon square dealing and satisfactory service.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES BOOK

C. Hildreth of Franklin Reports Great Success of Meetings.

Omaha, Nov. 26.—"Experience has taught us that we can reach more people by having farmers' institutes near their homes than by trying to get them to go to the agricultural college at Lincoln," said C. Hildreth, president of the Franklin State bank. Mr. Hildreth is chairman of a committee appointed by the last meeting of the state bankers' convention to investigate the facilities of the state for education along agricultural lines. This committee is to report at the next meeting of the association.

"It now seems probable that an effort will be made to get an appropriation from the legislature to advance county institute work, for experience has shown that this is the most practical way to reach the most people in the most desirable way."

"Franklin county has been engaged in institute work for six years. At first it was a hard matter to get the farmers out. There was a sort of prejudice against book farming, as it was called, but time has changed this sentiment and now all that is necessary is to announce an institute and we have all the audience we can handle. Franklin county is a leader in this work, and at the last institute we had an attendance of over 400 for the week, with seven instructors from the state agricultural farm. We used five buildings and they were filled at all times."

"These institutes have brought up the standards of the farms in a most wonderful fashion and have increased the earning power of the farms. Farmers are all handling a higher grade of stock, for which they get greatly increased prices, and are also increasing the yield of their farms."

Janeiro Again Tranquil.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Nov. 28.—The city awoke with a feeling of inexpressible relief. The warships of the fleet were again in the hands of the government, which sent officers to take command after the mutineers surrendered. Trains from the interior brought back families which had fled in fear of the bombardment of the mutineers, and the newspapers rejoiced that the people had been delivered from what they termed a nightmare.

Strike is Starving 5,000 Babies.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—The citizens strike committee which has investigated conditions in the families of the striking garment workers reported that 5,000 babies are starving here as a result of the labor war. The report was made at a meeting at Hull house and a special babies' milk fund was started at once by members of the committee.

Merchants Would Probe.

New York, Nov. 29.—The Merchants' Association of New York asks the legislative investigating committee to include in its inquiries before adjournment the high commissions paid by the fire insurance companies to agents, and the state taxes imposed on the companies. Both of these items, it is argued, fall as burdens on the policyholders.

Diva Denies Getting $25,000.

Paris, Nov. 29.—Mme. Lina Cavalieri says there is not a word of truth in the report that she has abandoned her American trip because the Chanler family, without her husband's knowledge, had sent her $25,000. She added that she had not received a cent from the Chanler family.
