THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM EDITOR.

HOPKINSVILLE, DEC. 2, 1879.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce, Hon. Jas. B. Garnett of Trigg, a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1880.

Almanacs for 1880 are ripe.

The $100,000 railroad proposition passed in Evansville by 2,006 majority.

The Glasgow Times already a first-class paper, will be enlarged Jan. 1st. to a nine column sheet.

Maj. Bristow of the Elkton Register, wants to organize a temperance society. Selah. yum yum.

We are placed under very many obligations to the agricultural commissioner for a report for the year 1878.

The Kentucky State Journal has purchased the Newport Leader from Mr. J. B. Quinby. The latter was a Republican organ.

The trial of Jno. H Merkle last week at Clarksville, for the murder of Emma Draudt was concluded, and the prisoner acquitted.

Who was Cain's wife? asks Rev. Hatfield, of New York. If our memory serves us right we think she was one of the Smith girls.—Dittoe.

Louisville was visited by a terrific tornado on the evening of Nov. 28 which did fearful damage to a portion of the city. It will be visited by another calamity on the 10th.

The Radicals are beginning to ship negroes into Indiana in order to carry that State next year. They are beginning to import them about a month too late to be of service in November next.

We give our readers an original poem on the outside this week, for which we make no extra charge. It is intended as a Thanksgiving treat and is not likely to be followed by similar afflictions.

The State Journal says some pantaloons were found in the gutter at Newport one evening last week. It is no unusual thing for pantaloons to be found in the gutters of this city, but they generally have a man in them.

Gen. Grant has been offered the Presidency of the Nicaraughan Canal Company and has announced that he will give his answer at Philadelphia Dec. 16. The salary is now $25,000 and will probably be increased to $50,000.

Last week we received a proposition to insert two advertisements in the same envelope, one payable in a "Holy Bible" and the other in a "Bulldozer pistol." There may be times when we need these articles separately but we never need them both together.

They must have curious kinds of whisky in Bath county. Abe Goodpaster has seen a man descend from a cloudless sky and stand in air awhile, then return to his whencery. We would be inclined to doubt this, but for the fact that the man who saw it was A. Goodpastor of the Methodist church.

We have seen a good deal of trouble in our short life. Have had some of our dearest friends to die, our favorite candidate defeated, our girl to go back on us, our brightest effusions ridiculed, but we never knew what real sorrow was till the Louisville Commercial cut us off its exchange list.

The Louisville Democrat a handsome eight page weekly newspaper, of forty columns, will be furnished to subscribers for 1880, at $1.50 postage prepaid, though really worth $2.00. Each new subscriber gets choice of a line of handsome premiums. Sample copies free. Send for it an once. Address W. H. Munnell, Editor, Louisville, Kentucky.

Railroads are aristocratic. They teach a man to know his own "station" and stop there.—N. Y. Ex. They are eminently social, too, being held together by many "ties."—Western Rural. Also, religiously inclined, having many "sleepers" during service.—Henderson News. Though considered wealthy, it is a well-known fact that they "brake" every time a train passes over the road.—Guthrie Gazette.

Yes, and they are law-breakers too, for they ride the passengers on "rails," ladies and all.

The Kentucky Intelligencer comes to hand this week brim full of news, and we are informed that the first is not a fair sample copy of what the paper will be. Here is the editorial apology:

We do not like to start with apologies for either sins of commission or of omission, but newspaper people, at least, will make allowances for the many difficulties surrounding a first issue of a paper with machinery without regulation, and an office force without organization. Haste has made much waste, but oil an patience ere at work, and if you dont scare the hen off, there will be a better hatch bye and-bye.

PEMBROKE.

Peace reigned on Rose Hill a few Sunday nights ago, for the space of three hours, to the great delight of those present, but to the distress of Tom and Dug.

Some of the boys of late have been shooting about town, after bed time to the annoyance of some of our citizens, but the police got so close after them the other night, they began to think it would prove expensive, and have not been guilty of the offense since.

We wish your Mississippi correspondent would not attend to "those" cattle or the payment of the national debt, by one of our honorable citizens in such insinuating terms. Just elect him and he will show you that he is a man of his word.

L. L Murphy and Parker Wright got into a difficulty when the latter cut the former, inflicting a severe, though not dangerous wound.

Rev. C. W. Dicken, brother of E. N. Dickens, preached an able sermon at Bethel church last Sunday. He is young in the ministry, but bids fair to rise to the foremost rank among the ministry.

For Commonwealth's Attorney, we are most emphatically for Garnett, first last and all the time. Everybody holler for Garnett.

Our most estimable citizen B. W. Bowls left this week for his new home beyond Elkton, in Todd. Mr. Tip McRae has moved into town an occupies the residence Mr. Bowls left.

Mr. V. A. Garnett has moved into his new mansion and looks as comfortable and happy as a man would wish to be in this life.

Our enterprising citizen R. R. Bollinger has erected a saw mill near C. C. Reynolds, where he is doing a good business and is striking a death blow to the R. R. Monopoly in the lumber line. Can this not be done all over the county, where there is a demand for rough lumber, and break down these high freights?

M. G. Miller, Gen. Bragg, and little fat Smith are all here yet. I would like to tell how our town has been crawling since our last, but I have no straws to prop with and my eyes have the advantage of me this time but it will all come in my next.

SCRIBBLER.

CHURCH HILL.

Little mud.

Colds prevail.

No snow yet.

The business boom is a little slack.

Grange all day Friday.

Heavy rain and wind storm Thursday night.

Wonder if the hungry had plenty to eat Thanksgiving?

Lay in your supply of coal.

Apples are very scarce in this section.

Eggs are in demand.

Eggnog time approacheth.

Late sown wheat is coming up since the rain.

Time to think about Christmas presents, boys.

In a short time turkeys will have to "give up the ghost."

The next thing in order is a candy-pulling.

A courting club is spoken of. Several have already made application for membership.

They say "one chicken survived in the Garrettsburg neighborhood while that big meeting progressed." He was shot at several times, but they couldn't reach the kind bird.

The "boss" glass ball shooting will take place here next Saturday at 1 o'clock, P. M. Other clubs are cordially invited.

The matrimonial boom is wending its way Newsteadward.

Dr Eager got one of his ankles badly sprained one day last week, from which he suffers intensely.

The sportsmen have nearly exterminated the birds in this neighborhood.

Messrs. Dick Caudle, Sam White, J. P. Glass and others who went West a few weeks ago hunting returned last Tuesday.

Revs. Lewis and Alexander are holding a series of meetings at Hebron. 'Tis hoped their efforts will be crowned with success, and they may accomplish much good.

SHORTFELLOW.

LEYTONVILLE.

Something like a cyclone passed through this section Friday morning about 4 o'clock, destroying a great quantity of timber, blowing down houses, fences, etc. It struck Mr. George Lacey's buggy house, taking off the roof and breaking the buggy to pieces. It destroyed nearly all the buildings at Mr. Carpenters, tearing down a large tobacco barn with several hundred pounds of tobacco in it, corn crib, meat house and part of the dwelling house, Mr. Alex. Carpenter and wife making a very narrow escape. Mr Carpenter had his arm considerably bruised by the falling timbers. Mr. Jim Combs' house was also blown down; he was struck with a piece of timber on the head, but was not seriously hurt. Although the wound was very painful. The storm came from the South-west, going in a North-eastern direction. It was about half a mile wide.

Died, on the 26th of November, of consumption, Mr. Charlie Mosley, oldest son of Mr. John Mosley, near Fairview; he was a very intelligent young man, naturally inspiring his fond parents and other friends with high hopes and expectations concerning his future life. These expectations were fully met in his life up to the period when fatal disease cast a dark shadow over the bright prospects and an early death closed a life of unusual promise.

Died, on the same day, at Mr. Willis Masoy's, little George, infant son of Mr. Dave and Lizzie Mason.

Married, on Wednesday, Nov. 26, Rev. Virgil Elgin to Miss Massie, at Chappel Hill Church. There will be a marriage of one of the Pond river belles soon, but as tickets are not out we will withhold names. The matrimonial fever is still a booming.

The Pond river schools are closing for the winter.

DO RA ME.

The Courier-Journal very appropriately remarks:

Let every Kentuckian remember the condition of the convicts in the penitentiary at Frankfort to-day, and resolve that every legislator he can get hold of shall be made to pledge himself to take prompt and effective action to relieve the Commonwealth of the disgrace and inhumanity embodied in the horrible, pestilence-breeding sweat-box.

Lexington is to have an independent millitary company.

A Covington Colonel has just been arrested for hog stealing.

Rev. George O. Barnes has tackled Breathitt county, and will endeavor to regenerate it.

A negro minster immersed 95 candidates for baptism in 30 minutes, at Franklin last week, says the Patriot.

The hub and spoke factory at Paducah, Ky., was burned on the 12th of November, The loss in estimated ot $28,000.

Mountain Scorher:—Hiram Greer, Esq., has laid upon our table a mammoth cushaw, grown by him on Grassy Creek, that measured 3 feet in length and 14 inches in diameter, and weighed 42 lbs.

Hartford Herald:—We have engaged Mr. V. M. Metcalfe to lecture for the benefit of those who may attend our corn and tobacco fair. He is thoroughly posted in agriculture, in all its phases, is decidedly practical in his notions and is a pleasant entertaining speaker.

Our fair will take place so soon as the season is suitable and gives the farmers a chance to select their best samples which can be done while stripping and husking. We will give due notice of the time through the paper.

Harrodsburg Observer:—The Grand Jury found only 26 indictments this Court—13 misdemeanors and 13 felonies. The Police Court does better than that every month.

Harrodsburg Observer:—We are informed that Harrodsburg is shortly to have a "Pianafore Troup," composed of home talent. Harrodsburg has fortunately, for many years escaped every epidemic. Not even has a sporadic case of fever occurred here, and we earnestly hope that something will prevent the introduction of this dread affliction.

Richmond Ky., Herald:—A man in Madison county went through the terrible ordeal of having a bombshell to burst in his hands just after the war. He was dreadfully mangled by the explosion, but recovered from his wounds. Some time after that he was shot through the body with a navy revolver, the ball passing in at the breast, and out at the back. Some few weeks ago the same man was driving a wagon with a heavy saw log on it, and he on the saw log. The wagon turned over, and he and the saw log rolled off together, the saw log passing over his body, crushing him in a frightful manner, from which he has been confined to his bed for several weeks, but is now out, as hale and hearty as ever.

Frankfort, November 27:—The body of Hezekiah Gardiner, the missing man, who it was supposed was murdered by the exconvict Wilson, was this morning discovered floating in the river, three and a half miles above the city, and far from his own farm. Although it had been in the water nearly three weeks the body was well preserved, and there was no evidence that death had been caused by violence. His money and papers were all found upon his person, and the Coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death from drowning. Gardiner was drunk and staggered over the cliff and into the water. This is the only legitimate conclusion, Wilson is in jail charged with arson and under suspicion of having murdered the child, whse remains were found in the debris of the fire, but the finding of Gardiner's body is a proof that he had no motive for the arson or for the murder of the child. He will doubtless be set at liberty by the Criminal Court. The grand jury will find no indictment against him.

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1 until December 31 will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, The Sun believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is, the law controlling its daily make-up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read The Sun; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, The Sun believes that the only guide of policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine American principles and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and reprobate what is evil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds, pities fools, and deplores mincompoops of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1880 to chastise the first class, instruct the second, and discountenance the third. And The Sun makes no bones in telling the truth to its friends, and about its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.

These are the principles upon which The Sun will be conducted during the year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government as that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the warring elements of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years ago the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1880? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant, and insolent Administration intrenched at Washington. The end has seen something toward dislodging the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves into places from which they were driven by the indignation of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring answers to these momentous questions. The Sun will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit it clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good humor in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in great things a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors, The Sun for 1880 will be found to write a truthful, instructive and at the same time entertaining history of 1880.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily Sun, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail postpaid is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is sixty-five cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

LOST!

It is an Established Fact

That Quinine or Cinchonidia will stop Chills, and for this purpose there is no better remedy. But it is also an established fact that they do not cure, because that produces the Chills. For months did the Chills would not return on the 7th, 14th, 21st, or 28th day. Then is it not money LOST to attempt to permanently cure the Chills with Quinine or Cinchonidia, when they do not remove the cause from the system that produces them? For until the cause is removed, the Chills will return. The is warranted to remove every cause from the system that produces the Chills, and if it fails to do this you will sustain no loss, for every druggist is authorized to guarantee a permanent cure in every case, no matter of how long standing, and will refund the money if the Chills return after you are through taking. Positively no cure, no pay. Try it and be convinced. It contains no poison, and is perfectly tasteless. Sold by GRAY & BUCKNER, and a permanent cure guaranteed in every case.
