GAS TRUST NOW TRIES BLUFF ON ITS CUSTOMERS

Threaten to Shut Off Gas on Those Paying Legal Rate.

FIGHT STILL IN COURT.

In Meantime You Need Not Pay More than 80 Cents, Court of Appeals Says.

"Unless a payment satisfactory to the company is immediately made your supply of gas shall be discontinued."

Just another bluff of the robbing Gas Trust! Consumers in Manhattan within the week have received their bills with the foregoing threat printed upon the new form, but there has been no change in the situation to warrant any alarm.

Here is the situation in a nutshell:

Consumers are divided into two classes upon the books of the Gas Trust, those who joined The Evening World's Gas Consumers' League and paid 80 cents per 1,000 cubic feet and those who knuckled down and paid the old rate of $1.

The officers of the Gas Trust well know that where they accepted 80 cents an implied contract to continue to accept 80 cents exists, and that only by bluffing this class of consumer into paying $1 is there hope of ever getting more than the legal rate of 80 cents. The new threat is only another bluff.

The Evening World took up the fight for the gas consumer days before any other newspaper and procured the legal opinion which resulted in the enjoyment by a large proportion of the public of an 80-cent rate after May 1, when the 80-cent gas law went into effect. Later on the fight was taken up by other interests, and spectacular methods injected into the proposition.

The members of the Gas Consumers' League, running into the thousands, have been quietly enjoying the fruits of The Evening World's fight for months, and the new tactics of the Gas Trust is only another move to get them to submit to the illegal dollar rate.

In order to carry on its bluff the Gas Trust has been turning over to United States Commissioner Shields vast amounts of money supposed to represent the difference between the $1 paid by the consumer and the 80-cent rate fixed by law. Nearly $1,000,000 has in this way gone from the offices of the Gas Trust into the hands of Mr. Shields, and then back into the banks controlled by the Gas Trust.

Meantime, many consumers continue to pay eighty cents, despite threats, and up to date no supply of gas has been shut off. The other class is covered by checks from the Gas Trust at about $200,000 a month. Of this the Consolidated Gas Company pays considerably more than half. The other companies which pay are the New Amsterdam, the Mutual, the Northern Union, the Central and the Standard.

The Gas Trust hopes to prove the law unconstitutional, and the proceedings to that end are slowly dragging along in the Federal Court. A. H. Masten, candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court on the Nominators' ticket, is referee, selected by Judge Lacombe to take testimony. These hearings have been under way since July 16. The State and the city have four more weeks in which to receive evidence, and then the Gas Trust will have fifteen days to put in rebuttal testimony.

It is expected that Masten will submit his report to Judge Lacombe not later than Jan. 1. The latter will probably take several months to arrive at his decision, and then whichever side loses will carry the matter up to the United States Supreme Court, where final decision will be rendered. So hang on and pay no more than the 80-cent rate. You have as much right to the use of every 20 cents in dispute as the Gas Trust.

SUGAR TRUST CASES UP TO ROOSEVELT.

President Calls Receiver Earle, of Real Estate Trust Company, Into Consultation.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt summoned George H. Earle, receiver for the Real Estate Trust Company, to Washington yesterday to confer with Attorney-General Moody and himself upon the plans for prosecution of the Sugar Trust, which suggested themselves to Mr. Earle from the discoveries he made in connection with the wrecking of the Real Estate Trust Company.

Mr. Earle took with him W. W. Porter, who is counsel for the Real Estate Trust Company, and they were received by the President and Attorney-General during the afternoon.

It was explained by Receiver Earle that he found the Sugar Trust had obtained control of the stock of the Shackamaxon Sugar Refinery, and by virtue of the control of fifty-one per cent. of the stock was keeping the factory closed and seemingly preventing its use in any way in apparent restraint of trade.
