SAVED BY POLITENESS.

Rochambeau, French Hero, Escaped the Guillotine by a Timely Act of Courtesy.

In the public square of Vendome, France, stands a statue of Rochambeau, erected by Americans as a tribute to the great Frenchman's services for the republic in the war of the revolution. A cyclist, recently on a tour through the republic presided over by Loubet, says: "There is hardly a canton without its American souvenir—or countess. This statue to the glory of the man who forced Cornwallis to surrender at Yorktown was presented to his birthplace by Americans and unveiled by the American ambassador. Not all republics are ungrateful. I don't remember very much of Rochambeau's career. Yorktown is enough.

"But the little man of Vendome, as he pumped up my wheel, told me an anecdote which proves that politeness, like honesty, is the best policy. During the reign of terror the convention had condemned the old hero to death. With a crowd of unfortunates, he was ordered into the wagon that was to take them to the guillotine. Courteously the old man stepped aside that Malesherbes and his companions in death might get in first. The wagon was full before his turn came.

"'Take him back,' said the headsman, 'he can go with to-morrow's batch.'

"But when to-morrow came Robespierre had fallen and the reign of the guillotine was over. It was a lesson in politeness, and when the little shopman and I parted we took off our hats to each other. One never knows what may happen in this land of revolutions."

PRINCE LOUIS NAPOLEON.

Chief of the Bonaparte Family Will Marry the Grand Duchess Helen of Russia.

The betrothal of Prince Louis Napoleon Bonaparte to Grand Duchess Helen, daughter of the grand duke of Vladimir, is officially announced. It cannot fail to strengthen the Bonapartist cause in France and correspondingly weaken the republican government. Prince Louis, who has been serving for the last 15 years in the Russian army, is a general of cavalry, at the head of the crack regiment of the czarina's lancers of the guard. He has all along been treated at the court as a member of the Russian imperial family circle, and enjoys in a particular degree the friendship of the czar.

The younger of the two sons of the late Prince Jerome Napoleon, who made him the heir to his political rights, having disinherited and disowned the elder son, Victor, his career appeals to the French people, who have always had a weakness for the "soldier on horseback," whom they now find represented in the Russian cavalry officer. Prince Louis has long been attentive to Grand Duchess Helen, a wayward princess who two years ago created a sensation by jilting the heir to the throne of Baden on the eve of the day appointed for the wedding, and who has since been credited with an infatuation for her cousin, Grand Duke Michael, younger brother of the czar. Inasmuch as the orthodox Russian church strictly prohibits marriages between first cousins, the duchess has now apparently made up her mind that the next best thing is to become a possible empress of the French.

Gigantic Tree in Mexico.

$1000 Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurness of Wills Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones, with excruciating pain. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1000 worth of good. There are times when the still, small voice of conscience is as audible as a brass band.

Maude R. Adams of Dayton, O., Writes:

Gentlemen---The requirements of the last social season, with late hours, promiscuous eating and irregular habits left me a physical wreck. Sick headaches, indigestion and sluggish condition of the organs were my daily torment until I tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Yours is truly a household remedy with us.

Gratefully Yours,

A woman's view of society depends on whether she is inside or outside.

Disease and danger lurk in the vital organs. The blood becomes vitiated and the general health is undermined whenever the stomach and liver fail to perform their functions as nature intended. Herbine will tone up the stomach, regulate the liver, where other preparations only relieve. Price, 50 cents. R. C. Hardwick.

Every woman is lawyer enough to sum the cause up in one word—"Because."
