MATHOT RECEIVES THREATS OF DEATH FOR CARUSO CASE

He Makes Sensational Statement that Bishop, Several Clergy, and Many Professional Men Have Been Caught as Tenor Was.

Black Hand letters from admirers of Caruso threatening his life prompted Third Deputy Police Commissioner Mathot to charge to-day that a bishop, a branch Y. M. C. A. secretary who jumped his bail, ministers, a priest, doctors, lawyers, musicians, artists and other professional men of high standing have been caught at the same offense for which Caruso was arrested. The threat of publicity hanging over scores of these men has reformed them, according to Commissioner Mathot, but if the public wants publicity he is willing to give it.

One of the Black Hand letters signed "A Friend of Caruso" reads: "Produce Mrs. Graham or you will be among the missing." It is decorated with the usual skull and crossbones.

Caruso failed to appear at rehearsal at the Metropolitan to-day, but his friends insisted that he would be in shape to sing Wednesday evening. Commissioner Mathot has arranged to have a special guard of police at the opera house on the occasion of Caruso's first appearance to protect him from any annoyance.

"I don't care so much for the threats against my life," said Mr. Mathot to-day, "as I do for the criticisms of some persons of alleged intelligence who appear to be as meagrely informed as to the facts of this situation as are the writers of the letters threatening violence. The public at large has no conception of the actual facts concerning offenses such as those of which Caruso was convicted.

Men in High Life Caught.

"We have records to show that our Bishop, several ministers, a priest, doctors, lawyers, actors, managers, musicians and other men of education and high social standing have been caught doing the Caruso act in Central and other parks. The very day before Caruso's arrest a musician in the Metropolitan Opera House orchestra was arrested on a charge similar to that made against Caruso and fined $10.

"It is the experience of the Police Department that women will not appear in court as complainants in cases of this kind except in rare instances. Repeated instances have proved that it is better to keep these cases quiet and hold over the offender a threat of publicity if he transgresses again. This has been found to be an effective method of keeping these perverts from offending in public. All the fines in the world inflicted in private would not have the effect of a threat to expose one of these offenders of high social standing to public opprobrium.

"Many of these men have wives and daughters or mothers and fathers who would be blasted socially by exposure. If the policy of the Police Department in allowing these offenders to go for the first or second offense and holding over them the threat of publicity to insure their subsequent good behavior has been wrong, then let us have publicity.

"In the case of Caruso he was an old offender. One woman whom he insult-

COUNTESS IS HELD FOR THE DEATH OF SIMON

One of Coroner's Jurors Wouldn't Sign the Verdict, Though.

Countess Louise de Massy, tastefully gowned in black and white, coolly took notes this afternoon at the inquest into the death of Gustav Simon, whom Mme. de Massy is accused of murdering in the office of the Queen Waist Company, No. 604 Broadway, Nov. 19. She smiled ironically when Assistant District Attorneys Cardozo and Manly questioned prisoners and took notes on those of the prosecutor and of her counsel, Charles Le Barbiere.

Miss Rae Forscher, bookkeeper for Simon, and Foreman Zimmerman, of the factory, told Coroner Acritelli of seeing the woman in the office.

Eleven jurors signed a verdict holding the woman. The twelfth juror said he did not believe she had the gun. Mme. de Massy smiled and thanked the jury and Coroner Acritelli when committed.

3 KILLED, 14 INJURED IN WARSHIP BLAZE.

TOULON, France, Nov. 26.—The fire which broke out on board the torpedo schoolship Algesiras last night burned itself out to-day and resulted in the almost complete destruction of the vessel, which was a wooden line of battleship built in 1855. The origin of the blaze has not been definitely ascertained.

Three sailors were burned to death, six were injured and eight firemen were more or less seriously injured.

BLANCHE WALSH WEDS ACTOR IN HER COMPANY

Secretly Married in New Orleans to William M. Travers.

CEREMONY IN A COURT.

Bridegroom Recently Divorced by His Wife, Who Is Also an Actress.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 26.—The marriage of Blanche Walsh, the actress, to W. M. Travers, a member of her company, was announced here to-day.

The ceremony was performed Nov. 15 in the New Orleans City Court, and the fact was kept secret by the court attaches until to-day, when the records were made public. Miss Walsh was playing here when her marriage took place.

Bridegroom Was Divorced.

William Travers is the divorced husband of Harriet Merritt, a vaudeville actress, who secured a judgment against him in Brooklyn last June. The former Mrs. Travers declared that she had caught her husband in the room of a celebrated actress in Chicago and secured affidavits from bellboys bearing her out.

She was then playing with "The Runaways," but came to New York for the express purpose of bringing an action against him. The managers of the woman in question, fearing the details would injure her reputation as a star, offered to pay the young woman a stipulated sum each week for three years if she would leave out the name of the co-respondent.

Mrs. Travers then consulted her lawyer, Stephen J. Baldwin, of Brooklyn, who on March 4 entered suit, "naming" an unknown woman in a Chicago hotel and another in a resort in West Thirty-ninth street. The case was on the calendar as undefended, and after the regular morning session had been concluded a few weeks later Mr. Baldwin went before Justice Marean and secured a decree.

Mrs. Travers testified that she had become the wife of Travers in London when she was playing with "An American Beauty." The witness who sworn to Travers's indiscretions was a married man and a member of Miss Walsh's company.

Alimony for Three Years.

When the case had been concluded and the former Miss Merritt's maiden name restored she said the alimony she received was to be $10 a week, and was to continue for three years, during the remainder of the contract of the star in question. Asked as to her counsel fee, she declared that her husband had given Mr. Baldwin $300, $100 in cash and notes for $200.

She also averred that she had later become dissatisfied with the outcome of her suit and was contemplating an attempt to have the action reopened.

Miss Merritt met Travers at the Casino Theatre eight years ago. At that time he was a property man and she a coristra girl. Two years later, she went to London and Travers followed her, whereupon they were married.

Travers secured an engagement with Miss Walsh when she was playing with "Resurrection" at the Victoria Theatre. His part was a small one and paid less than $40 a week. When she put on "The Woman in the Case" he was promoted to a better part and has since been pushed rapidly to the front. He is about thirty-three years old, more than 6 feet tall and what women consider a handsome man.

Miss Walsh is quite wealthy. She owns a beautiful country place on Long Island and real estate in New York.

This is Miss Walsh's second matrimonial venture. Her first husband was Alfred Hickman, an actor, whom she divorced two years ago.

BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY OFF FOR TRIAL

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The new battleship New Jersey, which has been stationed at the Charlestown Navy Yard for several weeks past, passed out to sea to-day for a final engine trial off the New England coast. The trip will last twenty-four hours and during that time the members of the Board of Inspection and Survey, from Washington, who are on the warship will determine finally whether her condition is such as to permit of her official acceptance by the Government.

The New Jersey, which is already in commission, was constructed at the yards of the Fore River Shipbuilding Company at Quincy.

YOUTH HELD FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Sylvester J. Cushing, close on to 18 years old, of 189 Park Row, was held to await the action of the Grand Jury in the Tombs Police Court this afternoon on a charge of robbery. Cushing, with two others, is charged with having robbed Joseph Lont, a dock worker, of $5 and a gold watch early to-day in Peck Slip. Patrolman McMullen, who answered a call for assistance, found three other policemen responded to the call ahead of him. Cushing, he said, was in the act of throwing away the watch taken from Lont. It was recovered.

SIXTY LIVES IN PERIL.

For two hours to-day sixty workmen waited behind the airlock of the tunnel to connect the Battery and Joralemon street, Brooklyn, six hundred feet out under the bay, not knowing at what moment they might be blown to pieces or drowned by an inrush of water should embers from a fire that destroyed their sleeping quarters at the head of the twin shaft reach a hundred pounds of giant powder stored at the foot of the bore.

The long stay in the air pressure overcame several of them and when the fire was out they were hauled to the surface nearly dead.

The fire, which started from some unknown cause, routed out the men who were on the day shift just as they were about to go on relief. The old wooden structure at the head of the shaft is pretty well soaked with oil and it blazed up all over at once. People in the platforms and stairways of the South Ferry station to see the free show. When they learned of the store of powder at the foot of the tunnel they quickly lost interest in the sight.

Trains on the Sixth and Ninth avenues elevated were switched at the Battery Park station so as to allow the firemen the room they needed.

The firemen were not told of the powder that threatened to blow them skyhigh till the fire was out, and the New York Tunnel Company, according to the police, followed their usual custom of failing to turn in an alarm till the blaze was well under way.

Fire was discovered by Purchasing Agent Charles Wagner and his assistant, Thomas J. Beecher. The two man fought it for a while with hand extinguishers, but soon had to send for help. The sleeping quarters are on the White-hall street side, so the crowd alighting from the half dozen ferries at the Battery had a good opportunity to see the blaze. The crowd grew so big that the reserves of the Church, Old Slip, Pier A and Oak street stations had their hands full to hold it in check.

ROOSEVELT BACK FROM TRIP.

CAPE HENRY, Va., Nov. 26.—The battleship Louisiana, having on board President Roosevelt and his party, and the convoying cruisers Washington and Tennessee were sighted early to-day, inward bound.

The Louisiana passed in by the capes at 9 o'clock, followed by the Tennessee. The Louisiana met the yacht Mayflower at Piney Point, in Chesapeake Bay, just below the mouth of the Potomac River, at 3 o'clock, and the Presidential party was transferred to the yacht, which headed for Washington. The President may not reach the capital until 10 o'clock to-night.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—A wireless despatch was received at the Navy Department to-day from Capt. Adams, commanding the cruiser Washington, in which he states that he was compelled to stop the starboard engine of the ship for fear of hot brasses. He says that the engine sustained no serious injury, but he was unable to keep up with the speed of the Tennessee and the Louisiana, and consequently had to drop several hours behind those ships.

The Washington passed in the Virginia capes at 1.30 o'clock and anchored in Hampton Roads.

KNIGHTS OPPOSE MASONS.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Nov. 26.—The council of the Knights of Columbus in this place to-day sent a letter to the Board of Supervisors protesting against the Free-masons of the county laying the corner-stone of the new court-house additions. The officers of the council—which, as is well known, is a Catholic organization—say that, inasmuch as the extensions are public buildings, no lodge or sectarian demonstration should be recognized, but that the ceremony should be performed by some county official. The letter raises a new point for the reason that the Free-masons have laid all corner-stones for county buildings since the establishment of the county in 1683. In view of the protest, it is said that the Building Committee is considering a change of plans.

ASK CZAR TO BANISH WITTE

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 26.—The Monarchists and Reactionists, finding that their threats have not driven Count Witte out of Russia, held a meeting at Moscow to-day and telegraphed directly to the Emperor asking for his expulsion from the empire. In spite of the campaign against him, Count Witte is looming up ever larger on the political horizon. His purchase of the plant of the Slovo and his revival of the publication of that paper is said to indicate that he intends to again become a serious factor in the situation.

PEARY OFF FOR NEW YORK.

SYDNEY, C. B., Nov. 26.—Commander Robert E. Peary and Mrs. Peary left here at noon by rail for New York, going by way of Portland, Me. An examination of the leak in the steamer Roosevelt has led to a decision to allow the steamer to proceed for New York without making repairs here, as the water can be kept free by the use of bilge pumps.

HELD AS MURDER SUSPECT

DAYTON, Nov. 26.—A man giving the name James Rodgers, of New York, was arrested here to-day on suspicion of knowledge or connection with the murder of Miss Dora Gilman, whose body was found within a few feet of her home last week. The various clues to the murder, which was very mysterious, have been followed, but nothing positive has been known by the officers in charge of the case.

PUBLIC JOLTED HARD WHEN FIVE CHOICES LOSE

Caloorahatchee, 20 to 1 in Steeplechase, Largest Priced Winner.

SPANKER IN TWO RACES.

Is Third in First and Wins Sixth With Miller in Saddle.

BY FRANK W. THORP.

BENNINGS RACE TRACK, D. C., Nov. 26.—Perfect weather and an attractive card brought out a crowd nearly as large as that of Saturday, which was the record for the meeting. Large crowds on Monday are unusual. The card had very attractive fields, and though there were no stakes, the entries had considerable class. The opening and closing handicaps were particularly attractive.

The craze for Miller still continues. He rode Avauntee in the opening and was made short price in spite of the fact that experts rated him as having little chance. No matter what Miller will ride for the balance of the meeting he will have the support of the Washingtonians, who are crazed over the lad's brilliant performances and who crowd about the scales to applaud him whenever he rides. The track was fast to-day and the betting brisk.

Miller Is Beaten a Head.

Dolly Spanker was a slight choice over Pretension and Avauntee in the opening event. Pretension went to the front and made the running, followed by Avauntee and Dolly Spanker. They ran this way to the stretch, where Avauntee, with Miller up, and Dolly Spanker closed, and in a red-hot drive Pretension won by a head from Avauntee, who beat Dolly Spanker three-quarters of a length.

Choices Fail, Long Shot Wins.

Pioneer and Garter Knot, heavily backed choices, fell early in the steeplechase. Valley Forge then made the running, followed by Captain Hayes and Caloorahatchee to the stretch, when Caloorahatchee went to the front and won by a length from Captain Hayes, who beat Valley Forge three lengths for the place.

Favorite Had No Speed.

Creasana was favorite in the third race, but she had no speed and was beaten off. Firebrand went to the front at the start, made all the running and won in a drive by half a length from Welbourne, the furnishing Miller with his first winning mount. Bivouac was third, six lengths away.

Judges Misplace Horses.

Work and Play was plunged on to win the fourth race and actually went to the post favorite. He was knocked out of the race at the start and had no chance. Herbert raced to the front at the start and made all the running, winning by a length and a half from Soprano, who beat Regal Lad half a length for the place. The judges placed Soprano third and Regal Lad fourth in an impossible decision, since Regal Lad and Van Loan were nose and nose.

BOWLERS BUSY IN EASTERN LEAGUE

Johnny Nelson, Brooklyn's representative in the individual contests of the Eastern League, was onto his job this afternoon in the series of games with Wilmington at Ehler's Universal alleys, Brooklyn, the little Dane winning four out of five games from "Pop" Roach, the Wilmington veteran.

'Twas an off day for "Pop," who has won honors in national tournaments, his best mark in the five games being 187, and he had almost the same number of "splits."

However the veteran bowler slugged the pins he could seldom clear the alleys of lumber. The scores:

Nelson—196, 202, 237, 196, 192. Average, 196.

Roach—187, 147, 159, 173, 155. Average, 163 2-5.

Day and Roach rolled against Nelson and Voorheis in the two-men series, which, with the three-men, are rolled this afternoon. To-night the five-men teams hold the alleys.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 26.—The races here to-day resulted as follows:

Articles of Agreement Signed at Hotel Metropole This Afternoon Call for Bout of Not Less Than Fifteen Rounds.

FIGHT MANAGERS AGREE ON TIM HURST AS REFEREE.

Bout Must Be Decided During Week Ending Jan. 31—Bids Are Open Until Next Monday, and the Best Will Be Awarded the "Go."

Terry McGovern and Young Corbett are signed up again. According to articles agreed to at the Hotel Metropole to-day these rivals will fight not less than fifteen round during the week ending Jan. 31.

Neither of the fighters was on hand at the meeting this afternoon. Joe Humphries represented McGovern and Harry Pollok did the talking for Corbett.

Pollok insisted that McGovern post a forfeit of $1,000 as a guarantee that he wouldn't throw up the match after Corbett had spent time and money training, and Paddy Sullivan therefore placed a certified check in Stakeholder George Considine's hands, and Pollok, as a guarantee that Corbett would be on the job, put up $1,000 too.

It was agreed that Tim Hurst shall referee the fight, for which bids will be kept open until Dec. 3. If the rival managers can't gree on which is the best, George Considine is privileged to make the selection.

During the meeting Al. Herford, of Baltimore, called up on the long distance 'phone and submitted an offer which he said was open only for to-day. This could not be accepted under the conditions, and he was asked to submit another one not later than Dec. 3.
