MRS. MEEKER and the other women and children who were captured by the Indians at the White River Agency have been restored to society safe and sound, having received no very great ill-treatment. Mrs. Meeker tells a thrilling tale of their capture and imprisonment, and thinks that their safety was largely due to the kindly intervention of Susan, the wife of Chief Douglass and the sister of Ouray. This goodnatured aborigine for some reason took a great fancy to the poor white prisoners, and not only protected them from harm but treated them with the utmost tenderness. She should be handsomely rewarded.

A Surprised Physician.

A DYING PATIENT RECOVERS THROUGH THE INTERPOSITION OF A HUMBLE GERMAN. Some weeks ago Dr. G——, a very reputable and widely-known physician, living on C—— street, was called to attend a very complicated case of Rheumatism. Upon arriving at the house he found a man about forty years of age, lying in a prostrated and serious condition, with his whole frame dangerously affected with the painful disease. He prescribed for the patient, but the man continued to grow worse, and on Sunday evening he was found to be in a very alarming condition. The knees and elbows and larger joints were greatly inflamed and could not be moved. It was only with extreme difficulty that the patient could be turned in bed, with the aid of three or four persons. The weight of the clothing was so oppressive that means had to be adopted to keep it from the patient's body.

The doctor saw that his assistance would be of no avail, and left the house, the members of the family following him to the door, weeping. At this critical hour, a neighbor, a poor and humble German shoemaker, appeared to the grief-smitten ones as a saving angel. He had heard of the despair of the family, and now asked them to try his remedy, and accordingly brought forth a bottle of ST. JACOB'S OIL. As a drowning man will catch at straws, so the poor wife applied this remedy; she had no hope, but would try anything, as a matter of duty. The first application eased the patient very much; after a few hours they used it again, and, wonder of wonders, the pain vanished entirely! Every subsequent application improved the sufferer, and in two days he was well and out. When the doctor called a few days after, he was indeed surprised; for, instead of a corpse, he found a new-made man.—Ex.

Worthy of Attention.

We advise all our readers, whether they own a foot of land or not, to supply themselves with that treasure of useful, practical, reliable information, the American Agriculturist, so named because started 38 years ago as a rural journal, but now enlarged to embrace a great variety of most useful reading for the Household, Children included, for the Garden, as well as the Farm—for all classes. Each volume gives some 800 original Engravings, with descriptions of labor-savings and labor-helping contrivances, of plants, fruits, flowers, animals, &c., including many large and pleasing, as well as instructive, pictures for young and old. The constant, systematic exposures of Humbugs and Swindling Schemes by the Agriculturist are of great value to every one, and will save to most persons many times its cost. Altogether, it is one of the most valuable, as well as cheapest, Journals any where to be found. The cost is only $1.50 a year, or 4 copies for $5. Single numbers 15 cents. Positive Results.

There are numerous remedies that cure sometimes and become trusted as useful, but none have ever proved so effectual—cured so many and such remarkable cases—as Dr. Ayer's medicines.

The Cherry Pectoral has restored great numbers of patients who were believed to be hopelessly affected with consumption.

Ague Cure breaks up chills and fever quickly and surely.

Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla eradicates scrofula and imparities of the blood, cleanses the system and restores it to vigorous health. By its timely use many troublesome disorders that cause a decline of health are expelled or cured.

Ayer's Pills and their effect are too well known everywhere to require any commendation from us here.—Scranton (Pa.) Times.

Real Estate in the West.

The Denver Land Co. offer in another column alternate lots in their addition. These alternate lots are in fact given away, though a nominal charge of one dollar is made for the deed. The Company limit the number purchasable at this price to five lots. Many of the large cities of the West have been started in a similar manner, and those who secured lots then find themselves now in possession of valuable property. The opportunity does not often present itself of making an investment in Real Estate at such prices. The reliability of the Company and their title to the property being well established, there could be no risk, with a fine prospect for a rapid increase in value. Denver has had such a wonderfully rapid growth, it is probable that the land offered will be speedily taken up.

C. WATTLEY & CO.

109 Federal Street, Allegheny, Opposite the First National Bank.

We clip the following from the Pittsburgh Evening Telegraph of the 10th ult.:

Probably no house in our two cities exemplifies the idea of progress in a larger sense than the one whose name heads this article. The growth of business led the firm to seek more commodious and ample store capacity, and the beautiful structure to which they have lately removed is one which does credit to their taste and judgment, moreover is an artistic and beautiful improvement to the city of Allegheny. The exterior is of pressed brick, trimmed with stone and rises in graceful modern form three stories above the pavement, or 55 feet, with an excellent roomy cellar under the whole, containg wash-room, closets, furnace, fuel vault, &c., &c. The frontage on Federal street is about 24 feet, the height of ceiling of first floor 16½ feet, which gives a magnificent entrance, with show windows probably of the handsomest proportions in either city. The French plate glass in front of each window measures 14 feet 4 inches in height with a breadth of 5½ feet. The main floor is 22 by 110 in the clear, and has a broad, ample appearance which strikes one most favorable. The enlarged space over their whole quarters gives an opportunity to show any large stock most advantageously, whilst the convenient arrangement will facilitate the handling of goods, both in receiving and selling, which cannot be excelled by any house we have knowledge of. In the centre of the room has been placed the offices, from which point a grand view of all the workings and routine of the establishment may be overlooked and directed. All the fixtures, counters, shelves are of black walnut. The office and balustrade is of pine finished with and in walnut. The effect is heightened by the uniform white ceilings and walls made more beautiful by excellent light from the skylight in second story, 12x16, of hammered glass, with iron frame. This light affords ample light to any part of the store. From a wide, easy-ascending stairway, with platform in centre, we arrive upon the second floor, which is one of the handsomest rooms we have ever seen. The area is the same as main floor, with exception of the skylight opening, which is 18 by 30 feet. In the rear of this floor is located the ladies' dressing room, with all conveniences, which will be an especially important and exceptable feature to ladies coming from the country. A new line of goods will be added shortly, and the space in front devoted to the purpose. The third floor extends over the front merely. It is, however, a very commodious store room, where reserve stock will be placed and goods arranged for stock. The receiving and delivering will be done in the rear, where a private ten-foot alley connects with Park Way.

The admirable plan of this building, and the execution of the contracts "on time," are due mainly to the ability of E. M. Butz, the well-known architect of Allegheny. A measure of praise is also attached to the name of Mr. John Alston, an old and well-known builder of Allegheny, who carried out all the building minute. Messrs. C. Wattley & Co. speak with the greatest satisfaction and in terms of the highest praises in regard to Mr. Butz & Alston, as well as Messrs. Forrester & Alston, stone contractors; Lovett Bros., pressed brick contractors; Messrs. Anderson & Porter, iron contractors; William Irwin, galvanized iron and tin work; Tate & Munden, plumbing; H. P. Butz & Co., painting; Messrs. Young & Bro., plate glass—all of these gentlemen did their part of the work with promptness, and to the entire satisfaction of the owners of the buildings.

Messrs. C. Wattley & Co.'s stock has been entirely rewarded and their offerings for fall trade will be seen in the announcements to follow shortly. It is now stocked with the choicest line of goods which they have ever offered, and which can be sold on the very best terms. As the firm own their building, which was erected at the right time on favorable terms, cash pain in every instance which also enables them to carry on business at a very small rental, which will naturally accrue to the advantage of the patrons. It is their intention to give every opportunity to the customer, carry the fullest and choicest line of goods in this section, and impress upon the public the fact that their new location, increased space and enlarged experience is for their benefit in the main. Their facilities for placing goods in the hands of the consumer at a very small advance above cost, is shown by the fact that in embroideries alone they have an agency in Switzerland, where all their embroideries and laces, and a large portion of ladies' neckwear is manufactured and shipped directly to the house.

Other connections equally advantageous afford their patrons opportunities unsurpassed for placing good reliable wares at cheap rates upon their counters at all times.

The Fall of 1879
Opened up with many changes in styles and cut of gentlemen's clothing, the change came so suddenly that not a few of the merchant tailors in the cities were at a loss to know what to do, as they have not been able to keep up with the fast changing pattern plates this fall. Doubtless some of our readers are not aware that to be a first-class merchant tailor requires a man quick of comprehension, one who can at a glance of the fashion plate cut from the piece precisely as called for by the stylish young men of the day. We have knowledge of a Merchant Tailor of Allegheny City, possessing all the requirements of a number one Tailor, and of whom we have a very high opinion, and can safely recommend to our readers who desire a perfect fitting suit of fall or winter clothing at much lower prices than they have ever paid before, as being second to none in the county. The gentleman referred to is Mr. Charles Gardner, of No. 19 Federal Street, Allegheny City, well and favorably known within a radius of one hundred miles of that city. Do not fail to leave your measure with him for a fall outfit. You will never regret it.

Cured of Drinking.
"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for Liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst, look away the appetite for liquor, made his nerves steady, and he has remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups. I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading R. R. official, Chicago, Ills.

PROCLAMATION!

To the People of Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio:

Finding it to our interest to consolidate our stores and concentrate our efforts, we have determined to close THE BRANCH STORE, 29 FIFTH AVENUE, PITTSBURGH. This conclusion was reached so late in the summer, that we had laid our plans for a LARGE FALL TRADE, and the stock was being rapidly prepared. When the season opened it found us with a

Choice and Well-Selected Stock,

THE LARGEST AND FINEST IN PITTSBURGH. We do not want to take any of this Stock back to Philadelphia, so we have marked it at such VERY LOW PRICES that a is assured. The people of Pittsburgh are making such purchases as indicate that they fully appreciate the BARGAINS WE OFFER.

This Proclamation is issued so that all citizens of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia may share in these advantages. Much of the Stock is marked

AT LESS THAN HALF FORMER PRICES.

The Stock remaining over from the Summer it will pay you to purchase and save until next Spring.

BARGAINS IN MEN'S SUITS,
BARGAINS IN BOYS' SUITS,
BARGAINS IN CHILDREN'S SUITS,
BARGAINS IN OVERCOATS.

We are constantly receiving NEW STOCK, so that our assortment will be kept up during the season with the NEWEST and CHOICEST things in FINE READY-MADE CLOTHING.
