OLD COLONY—See fourth race.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Radtke was severely criticised for his riding yesterday. There were those who did not hesitate to say that he pulled Grazalie in the opening event. His weak riding on Greeno was unexplainable, and it was not until after this race that the explanation was forthcoming. Radtke was taken ill in the paddock and vomited blood in a fit of coughing. He rode Jubilee, however, but the news of his sickness was noised about and it was the cause of a big plunge in Ben Cole.

It was not believed that Radtke would have the strength to ride Jubilee properly, and for that reason Ben Cole looked a sure thing. Radtke won with Jubilee, however, and won with him in a hard drive. In the fifth race Legerdemain was to have been Radtke's mount, but the boy was so weak that he had to be excused. There are those who believe that Radtke's reducing has developed consumption. He looks white and pale and his weak condition has no doubt been responsible for the boy's poor work in the saddle.

The widely jointed Black Domino, who was heavily played yesterday, will have trouble winning races. She quit like a hound yesterday.

There were those who were mean enough to say that A. Lee rode a weak race on Quadrille because certain people were betting on Wabash Queen.

NEW BOWLING MARK BY BROOKLYN MEN

Nelson and Tuthill Top the List In Atlantic City Tournament.

(Special to The Evening World.)

YOUNG'S RIVER, Atlantic City, April 6.—Johnny Nelede and Walter Tuthill, from the Universal team, Brooklyn, made a new high-score record of 1,220 pins in the two-men events of the National Bowling Association to-day. M'GOVERN OUT OF SANITARIUM, BUT FAR FROM CURED

THE story that Terry McGovern has entirely recovered, and that he will soon be seen along Broadway, is an exaggeration. Terry is no longer in the sanitarium, but he isn't yet the Terry of the old fighting days.

Terry's wife went up to see him a few days ago, and Terry was so rational at the time that she made up her mind to get him out.

She called up Sam Harris and explained her wishes. Sam objected to acting hastily, and in turn called up Dr. Creamer and Dr. Quinn. Their with Mrs. McGovern he made Terry a visit.

Dr. Creamer, Dr. Quinn and Dr. Givens examined Terry, and were of the opinion that it was still necessary to keep him in the sanitarium, although he has picked up wonderfully in physical condition, weighs 142 pounds in his clothes, and is much more rational than he was a few months ago. He acts naturally and talks well. But Terry's wife insisted, and as Terry had never been committed to an asylum it was impossible to hold him.

Terry and his family will take a cottage at Stamford Conn., and possibly in the quiet life of that little town he will continue to improve.

But if he comes back to Broadway and the excitements of the White Way and the race-tracks a relapse is certain.

EVERY friend little Terry ever had hopes for his recovery. But one thing is certain—he will never fight again. Even to consider putting him into the ring again would be a crime. Terry's fighting days are over. He has enough money now, thanks to the efforts of his friends, to live quietly for many years.

WHEN Joe Thomas is through with Willie Lewis he is going out to Los Angeles, where he is offered a match with the winner of the Melloy-Sullivan welter-weight championship battle.

There is an exciting time in prospect for that winner. Thomas is one of the best welterweights ever seen in the ring. The welter-weight class isn't as popular as some of the others. It is hard for a welter-weight to get any of the big purses offered to lightweights, middleweights and heavyweights.

But if Thomas takes the title he will make as great an impression in the ring as Kid McCoy did when he was fighting middle-weights and big fellows alternately.

WE always knew that Mike Donlin was a ball-player, but to-day he shines as a diplomat. In Mike's own statement, printed on this page, he wishes the Giants good luck, and never so much as mentions the $600 raise that didn't materialize.

One can hardly help wondering if Donlin's ankle would have been so weak if the Giants' managers had been more liberal.

In any case, Mike Donlin, ball-player and diplomat, we wish you the best of luck wherever you are and whatever profession you engage in.

BROOKLYNS WILL GET HOME TO-MORROW

Patsy Donovan's fast Brooklyn National League team will play their last exhibition game in the South at Lynchburg, Va., to-day. Immediately after the game is finished Donovan and his men will start for home. The team will journey over to Paterson, N. J., to-morrow, where they will line up against the Paterson club in an exhibition game.

On Monday the players will be divided into two teams and will play an exhibition game at Washington Park, Brooklyn, beginning at 3 P. M. President Ebbets has selected Rev. Father E. W. Moriarty, of St. Augustin's Church, Brooklyn, to toss out the first ball to the pitcher to be used in the opening game of the season between the Brooklyns and the Giants at Washington Park on April 16. The Brooklyns won thirteen games and lost one in the South.

IRISH-AMERICAN A.C. HAS NEW TRAINER

William E. Quinn, the noted trainer of the Harvard University track and field teams, will transfer his services to the Irish-American Athletic Club of this city as soon as the intercollegiate season closes.

Quinn is a clever all-around athlete and is particularly good at the weights.

DURING THIS MONTH.
Now is the time to get the rheumatic poisons and foul acids from the blood and system, states an eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble are caused by the blood, which often becomes sour from excessive acids, and also tells what to do to make it pure and healthy.
Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.
Just try this simple blood cleanser and tonic at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the Kidneys are not acting right. Any one can easily prepare this mixture at home.
