HUSELTON'S SHOES!

Worth Looking Into.

Our Boots and Shoes are making an impression "on the sands of time." We help our customers to make their walk in life easy by fitting them with Shoes that fit their feet comfortably. We pay special attention to this, as no Boot or Shoe will wear well that does not fit properly. There is enough trouble and pain in this life without increasing it by wearing ill fitting shoes.

All our footwear is selected carefully from the most improved lasts as well as quality of stock, etc.

We keep the kind that will fit comfortably and wear, we keep the best at the lowest prices.

We don't keep a Ladies Shoes at $1.00 and say it is worth $2.00, that is an old, old chestnut, but we do say we have a Ladies fine Shoe at $1.00 that cannot be matched either for Style or wear, we say the same of our Ladies entire line from $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, and $3.00 and up to $4.00 and $4.50.

Don't you get tired of reading some fellows advertisements when they say goods are being Slaughtered at any price to clean up, etc., that this or that Boys Boot is selling at $1.00 worth $2.00. Now there is just one of two things, either they made a big profit before or not telling the truth, recollect these liberal fellows don't lose any money, goods are perhaps dear at the low prices named after you see them and more especially after you wear them.

It seems useless to quote a long list of prices as you cannot judge unless you see the goods, but if you want the best Boys Boots at $1.00, sizes 1 to 5 you ever saw you can get it here, a Man's Boot at $1.50, Children's Shoes at 25, 50 and 75 cts., Boy's fine Shoes at 85 cts., these are straight prices no humbug to pull you in, neither are they sold at

50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

Have a lot Misses Rubbers at 10 cts. a pair and they are not worth 30 cts. either, recollect we have the largest stock to select from, best goods and lowest prices, we don't handle any old jobs, sold cheap on account of some imperfections, but solid, new and desirable linesat the lowest price.

Gosser's Cream Glycerine.

It is the ideal Cosmetic. It stimulates the nerves, quickens circulation and carries away dead particles of the skin, leaving it fine and clear. It has no equal for Chapped Hands, Lips, Face, or roughness of the skin, and is not excelled as a dressing for the face after shaving. It is a bland, creamy emulsion, with just enough vegetable oil to soften the skin. No lady or gentleman should be without it. Be sure to get the genuine. Take no substitute.

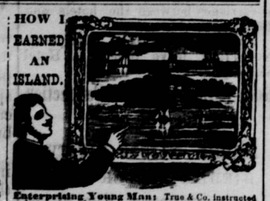
HOW I EARNED AN ISLAND.



Enterprising Young Man: True & Co. instructed and started me. I worked steadily and made money faster than I expected to. I became able to buy an island and build a small summer hotel. If I don't succeed at that, I will go to work again at the business in which I made my money. —True & Co.: Shall we instruct and start you, reader? If we do, and if you work industriously, you will in due time be able to buy an island and build a hotel, if you wish to. Money can be earned at our new line of work, rapidly and honorably, by those of either sex, young or old, and in their own localities, wherever they live. Any one can do the work. Easy to learn. We furnish everything. No risk. You can devote your spare moments, or all your time to the work. This entirely new road brings wonderful success to every worker. Beginners are earning from $25 to $50 per week and upwards, and more after a little experience. We can furnish you the employment—we teach you FREE. This is an age of marvelous things, and here is another great, useful, wealth-giving wonder. Great gains will reward every industrious worker. Wherever you are, and whatever you are doing, you want to know about this wonderful work at once. Delay means much money lost to you. No space to explain here, but if you will write to us, we will make all plain to you FREE. Address, TRUE & CO., Box 400, Augusta, Maine.

THE CITIZEN MISCELLANEOUS

One on the Teacher.

First Little Boy—What you laughin' so about?

Second Little Boy—I had to stay in after school. He, he, he!

"Wot is there to laugh about in that?"

"Why, the teacher she had to stay in, too. Haw, haw, ho!"—Good News.

His Wife's Will.

"Your wife left a very ambiguous will," remarked the attorney to the widower.

"That's strange," replied the husband, reflectively. "It never was so when she was alive."—Detroit Free Press.

UPS AND DOWNS.

First Traveler—Say, boss! is this the roight road to the nixt village?

Farmer—Keep right on, and follow the point of your nose.

Second Traveler—But, mine frendt, we want to stay togedder. Is dere no odder way?—Judge.

A New Slang Phrase.

Stranger—So you're one of these rainmakers, eh?

Experimenter—Yes; I'm experimenting somewhat.

Stranger—Do you have pretty good luck?

Experimenter—Well, I should put up an umbrella!—Judge.

A Falling Market.

Miss Petite—If Mr. Makeshift should propose to-night, what shall I do?

Fond Mother—I think, my dear, you'd better take him. I see by the Society Chitchat that short girls are going out of fashion.—N. Y. Weekly.

Boudoir Repartee.

Rosalie—How shall I wear my hair to-night?

Grace (sweetly)—On your head, I should say.

Rosalie (gently)—I was thinking of wearing it down on my back.—Jury.

A Veritable Hidalgo.

Waiter (to departing guest)—Sir, do you know, you remind me strongly of the Spaniards at the capture of Granada?

Guest—How's that?

Waiter—You give no quarter.—Jury.

Condensed Too Much.

"Do you call this a pint?" asked the model hired girl of the milkman.

"Yes."

"Well, it won't do. When this family wants condensed milk it'll buy it at the grocery."—Washington Star.

Artless.

Bjones—I'm going to send in a design.

McGarry—I didn't know you could draw.

Bjones—Neither I can. It is a design for a public statue.—Epoch.

Shocked at the Evidence.

Judge—Well, officer, who is this person and what is she charged with?

Officer—Sure, it's the "Magnetic Girl," your honor, and she's charged with electricity.—Puck.

Wicked Extravagance.

"Silas, you're the most extravagant man I know," cried Mrs. ——. "Eatin' with your new teeth when the old set's plenty good enough. Man o' your age ought to know better."—Judge.

A Speedy Preference.

Dudsleigh—Do you like cycling with a party?

Wheelsbee—No; I prefer to cyclone.—Judge.

The wonder of the age—Salvation Oil, for twenty-five cents a bottle. It kills all pain.

Columbus discovered America and Edison invented the phonograph, but it remained for Dr. Bull to invent the remedy of the age, "Cough Syrup," the kingly cure At all dealers for 25 cts.

Mrs. De Fashion—That's splendid! You know I need a new—

Mr. De Fashion—The paper says the furs are very cheap, dirt cheap.

Mrs. De Fashion—I never did care much for seal-fur. It's too warm.—N. Y. Weekly.

All Gone.

Blinks—How about the girl with the hundred thousand dollars and the cough that you were engaged to last summer?

Winks—I married her.

Blinks—Ah! Is the hundred thousand dollars gone?

Winks (sadly)—Yes. So is the cough.—Kate Field's Washington.

Both in Luck.

Uncle—Tom, you are incorrigible. You do nothing but spend money. I am glad you are the only nephew I've got.

Nephew—That's what I say. I am very glad I'm your only nephew, otherwise there would not be enough money to go around. We are both in luck.—Texas Siftings.

Tit for Tat.

Mrs. Staggers—Going to turn over a new leaf, are you? H'm! I've heard that before, many a time. When you get it turned over you had better put a ton weight on it to keep it down.

Staggers—I'll do better than that. I'll put a piece of your angel cake on it.—N. Y. Truth.

Warm Enough.

New Boarder (shivering)—The house seems very cold, madam.

Mrs. Slimdiet—Does it? Why, I'm as hot as fire.

"Hum! Pardon me, but why does the end of your nose look so blue?"

"Oh! that comes from my aristocratic ancestry."—Good News.

Brotherly Foresight.

Little Tom was involved in the difficulties of learning to dress himself, and regarded the buttons which had to be fastened behind his back as so many devices to torment small boys.

One morning he was informed of the arrival of a baby sister, and later in the day was allowed to steal into his mother's chamber to look at the baby as she lay asleep.

Tom regarded the small creature with much interest, and the nurse, wishing to know what his thoughts were, asked him, softly:

"Well, how do you like her? Isn't she a darling?"

"I don't think she looks much good," answered Tom, with uncompromising frankness. "How soon will she be big enough to fasten my back buttons?"—Youth's Companion.

The Test.

Mamma—My darling, don't you think you've eaten enough?

Maudie—Me don't know. Me ain't got a verwy bad tummickache yet.—Harper's Bazar.

—My wife had been a sufferer for some time with pain in the back; Salvation Oil was freely used and I am glad to say my wife to-day suffers no pain.

La Grippe.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. This remedy also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousand who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years we have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by

Hats and bonnets receive our best attention, a complete line always on hand.

Always the Cheapest. D. T. PAPE, No. 122, S. Main Street.

CAPTURED.

Once upon a time a young man named Cobb met a beautiful young lady named Webb, and it is related that he fell in love as soon as he Spied-her. Our tale is told. We've caught your eye. Do you catch on? Well; just follow along a little further. That "birds of a feather, flock together" in little droves by themselves is no more truly verified than at our store. Those who are good Judges of goods in our line, and who wish to get the best goods in the market for the money, congregate at our store daily. There is always room for one more; so don't be backward, but call in and see us.

I did not think of advertising this fall, but I met a man who asked me who I was. I told him

Heck, The Champion Clothier & Furnisher.

And strange to say, he informed me that he had never heard of me. Well! it is just such people we are after, and if this should catch their eye, we hope human curiosity will lead them to read it for it is one of the commonest traits of the race. It was curiosity that led Eve to taste the forbidden fruit; and her offspring have their curiosity excited every day as a hereditary temptation, from the small boy everlastingly peeping into boxes to the hired-girl with her eye to the key hole. Everybody wonders what is in it Properly directed, this curiosity often leads to satisfactory results, and D. A. Heck invites all curious people to make a voyage of discovery to his store and see the largest store, the largest stock of clothing—in Overcoats, and Suits for men, boys and children, Hats, Caps, Gloves, Mitts, Shirts, Underwear, Cordigan-Jackets, Leather Coats and Pants, Overall-Jackets, Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Rubber-Coats, Collars, Cuffs, Ties, Hdkfs, Mufflers, Brushes, Purses, Bill and Pocket-Books, Ladies and Gents' Watches, Chain-Charms, Rings, Pins, Sleeve and Collar Buttons, Silver Card-Cases, and a full line of Notions—at remarkably low prices; no matter how low you have been offered goods we have them still lower and for quality we never take a back seat. It will be to your personal advantage to give us an early call and get our prices, and you are sure to give us a large share of your patronage hereafter.

Thanking our many friends for their very liberal patronage.

We remain, yours to please.

D. A. HECK,
Champion Clothier, Furnisher and Hatter.
