SPECIFICS.

ACME BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAYS

because shoes once blackened with it can be kept clean by washing them with water. People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c. a bottle, because what they spend for Blacking they save in shoe-leather.

It is the cheapest blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay for a recipe that will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1893.

$10,000 Reward

THE CITIZEN

MISCELLANEOUS.

Extenuating Circumstances.

"The charge against you, Mr. Kiljordan," said the police magistrate, looking at him sternly over his spectacles, "is that of loud, boisterous and profane swearing on the public streets of this city. Have you anything to say?"

"Nothing, your honor," replied the prisoner. "I'm guilty. I had just paid my gas bill for last month."

The magistrate pushed his spectacles up to the top of his head and leaned over the desk in front of him.

"Mr. Kiljordan," he said, impulsively, "permit me to grasp you by the hand! Officer, discharge the prisoner and call the next case."—Chicago Tribune.

A Reasonable Supposition.

"Mr. Featherly," inquired Bobby, while the dessert was being discussed, "is your dog's name Rome?"

"No," replied Featherly, in astonishment, "his name is Major. Why, Bobby?"

"Because pa told ma last night that you were down at the Eagle hotel making Rome howl, and I s'posed he was talking about your dog."—Tansill's Punch.

A TESTIMONIAL FROM "JUDGE."

SNIDE SAFE CO.—Gentlemen: After examining nearly all kinds of safes I consider yours the best for my business. Yours truly, A CRACKSMAN.

A Merciful Man.

Hawkeye (to cabman at Brunswick hotel)—Take me to the Hoffman house; how much?

Cabman (takes blanket from horse and about to start)—Two dollars.

Hawkeye—Two dollars! I'll give you fifty cents.

Cabman—Well, let 'er go. I don't want to disappoint me horse.—Truth.

Happy Suburbanites.

Mr. Citimann—To save my neck, I can't understand why the crowds at the ferries always have such a happy look.

Mr. Suburb—It's simple enough. After the day's work in the city, we're always glad to get out of it; and after eight or ten hours in the country, we're always glad to get back. — N. Y. Weekly.

It Seemed That Way.

"You are late this morning, Mr. Collum," said Sharpe, as his bookkeeper came in about ten o'clock.

"Yes, sir. My wealthy uncle died and left me fifty thousand dollars. Isn't that a good excuse for tardiness?"

"Yes; too good to be true, in fact."—Puck.

Aiding the Scheme.

Scolding Wife—I will do anything to keep you home evenings!

Hen-Pecked Husband—That's easily arranged. Don't stay in yourself.—Once a Week.

The Charge.

"Poor Jim Casey wint up fer loife."
"Phwat was th' charge against him?"
"Doynamoite." Judge.

—For a number of years I have been subject to violent attacks of inflamatory rheumatism which generally lasted about two months. On the first of this month I was attacked in the knee and suffered severely for two days, when I procured a bottle of chamberlain's Pain Balm and it relieved me almost instantly. I therefore most cheerfully recommend it to those who are similary afflicted everywhere.—R. D. Whitley, Martindale, N. C., Feb. 1888. Mr. Whitley is a promenent man in this place and his disease was very widely known as he suffered such severe pain. W. M. Houston & Co., Merchants, Martindale, N. C. 50 cent bottles for sale by D. H. —Secretary Rusk is said to be trying to cross bees with lightening bugs. If he would just drop that and try and teach bees to feed on cowslips he might soon make this a land of milk and honey.

—Rheumatism cured in a day—"Mystic cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cts. Sold by J. C. Redick, druggist, Butler.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scratches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. It is put up in 25 and 50 cent boxes.

—An ancient sign on an old toll-bridge in Massachusets still bears the announcement that all passers must pay toll "except paupers, Indians and clergymen."

—The little tut of hair growing on the dude's lower lip is called a "Charlie."

Consumption Surely Cured.

TO THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., N. Y.

A Reputation to Sustain.

"In writing up the burglary," said the excited caller, "you can say the thieves in their hurry overlooked $750 worth of jewelry and solid silver plate in one of the closets."

"Might not that bring the burglars to your house a second time?" suggested the city editor.

"I don't care if it does!" exclaimed the other. "I don't want the public to get the impression that a gang of robbers can go through my house and only find $25 worth of stuff worth stealing."—Chicago Tribune.

Salaries and Duties.

He—I think we need not worry about the future. I am now getting $2,000 a year as second assistant sub-editor of the Daily Blower.

She—Yes, but you are killing yourself doing two men's work.

He—I know; but before long I may be promoted, and then I'll get $3,000 for doing one man's work; and, if I have patience, I will eventually reach a position where I will get $5,000 for doing nothing at all.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Fortunate Man.

"Blithers is so deaf he can't hear himself talk," said Binks.

"He's in luck," said Banks.—Brooklyn Life.

Maternal Severity.

If a child is spoiled by sparing the rod, what is to be expected when he is not even admonished? A widow had a son who was rather wild, and one day she was confiding her troubles to an old and trusted friend.

"I am afraid," said her friend, "that you are not firm enough with John."

"On the contrary, I am sometimes afraid that I am too harsh."

"Why, what have you ever done?"

"Oh, I have talked to him a great deal."

"What have you said?"

"Why, I have said 'John! John!' and other severe things."—Golden Days.

Gastronomic Item.

Jones—A queer thing happened in New York the other day. A horse stole three pies from a baker's wagon and ate them.

Smith—I would like to have seen that baker. He must have been astonished.

"Astonished! He was furious. He was desperate."

"Why, what about? The loss of the pies?"

"No; of the horse! It was his own horse that ate the pies. It was the only one he had."—Texas Siftings.

Not Exactly Lost.

"Mehitable," said the young lady's mother, with a severe frown, "you let Eliphalet steal a kiss from you last night."

"I'm sorry, ma."

"Sorry! I should say you would be. The idea of permitting any young man to steal a kiss from you!"

"Well, ma," said the young lady, with a penitent air, "it isn't as if it was lost. I'll make him give it back to me when he comes to-night."—N. Y. Press.

If you are interested in Gardening you should send for our BOOK OF

FLOWERS, PLANTS & SEEDS

It tells how Safely, Easily and Cheaply you can procure the "very best" and "most reliable" in Plants, Seeds, etc., and we mix considerable "art" with the printing, using fine engravings and arranging the matter in a pleasing commonsense way very attractive to our customers. We mail the Book and a Packet of Wild Flower Garden Seeds (valued at 10 cents) for three two-cent stamps, or if you are interested but have no use for the Seeds, a postal card will do the business; your address on one side; our address on the other. Write now. Mention this paper.
