CRAIN DEFENDS, FROM THE BENCH, HIS CLEMENCY

Denies Any Influence and Acted, He Says, From Dictates of His Heart, When He Suspended Sentence.

THOUGHT HE WAS ACTING IN INTEREST OF COMMUNITY

Magistrate Cornell's charge that judges of the higher criminal courts are too lenient in imposing sentences upon criminals called for explanations to-day from two judges of the Court of General Sessions—Crain and O'Sullivan.

Judge Crain spoke at some length about the case of Daniel Sullivan, whom he sentenced to two months in the penitentiary a few days ago on a felony conviction. Sullivan admitted holding up a man and robbing him in the street, but pleaded extenuation. Tammany Leader Hagan happened to be in the courtroom when Sullivan was arraigned for sentence.

At first Judge Crain let the man go under suspended sentence, but the District-Attorney, maintaining that Sullivan was an habitual offender, protested so forcibly that the two months' imprisonment was substituted. Since that time the District-Attorney has made a motion for a rehearing of the testimony, with the object of having a heavier sentence inflicted. It was dur-AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, April 24.—Nothing more decisive could happen on a race track than the winning of Robador in the third race and the consequent lifting from the tin boxes of the bookies of thousands of dollars by Owner Maurice Krause, Charlie Cash and the Sullivans—indeed, the latter aggregation cashed two ways on the race. In addition to Robador straight they went to old Lord Badge for as good as 2 1-2 to 1 to show, and they ran as played. The Lord Badge tip to the Sullivan clan came from "Paddy," whose jockey, Crimmins, had been engaged early by Owner Oliver to ride the old rogue.

From sixes the Robador crowd beat the price against the Krause pony to 4 1-2 to 1 at the close, and at post time the money was still going on in chunks. It is estimated that a combined bank roll of $11,000 was taken out of the ring on the two successful plays.

A truck load of money went on Azora to show and Mary Morris, losing also, and gave the bookies a breathing spell, preventing the collapse of many a bank roll. Krause is a partner with "Big Tim" in the theatrical business, and when Robador galloped in a thousand and one actor followers of the Krause-Sullivan combination who were down on the good thing yelled their delight. There will be fun on the Rialto to-night.

Royal Onyx Won Easily.

Royal Oynx rushed to the front at the start, made all the running and won easily by two lengths from the hot favorite, Campaigner, who was second all the way. King Ahab was third, ten lengths away.

Cinch for W. H. Carey.

Avauntere went to the front and made the running, followed by Col. Jack, Tommy Waddell and W. H. Carey. They held this order to the stretch, when Col. Jack went to the front and showed the way half way home. There W. H. Carey went to the front and won easily by two lengths from Tommy Waddell, who beat Col. Jack a length.

Rustle by a Head.

Masks and Faces jumped away in front and made the running, followed by Tartar Maid, Rustle and Laura Clay. They held this order to the last sixteenth, where Rustle closed, and in a drive won by a head from Masks and Faces, who beat Laura Clay a head.

Punky Won Easily.

Mary Hall made the early running, followed by Communipaw, Punky and Park Row. They held this order to the stretch, where Punky went to the front and won easily by eight lengths from Mary Hall, who beat Ontario four lengths for the place.

Sweet Taire by a Nose.

Sepoy and Sweet Taire raced head and head to the final sixteenth, where Sweet Taire closed with a tremendous rush and won on the post by a nose from Sepoy, who beat Split Second a head.

FISHED OUT OF THE RIVER.

Boatmen fished the body of a well-dressed man out of the East River, off One Hundred and Thirtieth street, the Bronx, this afternoon. He was apparently about forty-five years old, 145 pounds in weight and had a black mustache. The police think the body had been in the water about thirty days.

THIRTEEN-INNING GAME IN BROOKLYN CALLED; GIANTS ARE DEFEATED BY THE QUAKERS

Wind-Swept Field Fooled Players in Hilltop---Slow-Going Doyle in the Box for Griffith.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, April 24.—New York's inability to locate the left-hand curves of Patton allowed the Washington team to take to-day's game by a score of 5 to 1.

Doyle was hit freely at times, and a two-bagger by Pitcher Patten in the sixth inning with the bases full practically settled the contest.

First Inning.

Ganley struck out, for a starter. Schlafly was out, Laporte to Chase. Cross out, Elberfeld to Chase. NO RUNS.

Hoffman started off by striking out. Conroy knocked a deceptive high one to Ganley, which fell safely for three bags. Elberfeld's short one was nailed by Schlafly in time to catch him at first, but Conroy scored. Chase waited patiently and was awarded with a pass. Laporte was out on a hot roller to Hickman. ONE RUN.

Second Inning.

John Anderson struck out and the fans overlooked a golden opportunity to sing "Poor John." Elberfeld's great throw to Chase set Altizer down hard. Laporte threw out Hickman. NO RUNS.

Williams walked. Moriarty lifted one to Schlafly. Kleinow hit to Perrine, forcing Williams out at second. The heavy wind caused Ganley to miss Doyle's long fly and Kleinow went to third, while Doyle took second. Hoffman struck out. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Perrine struck oupt. Warner singled to left. Patten was hit on the hand, but continued at the plate. He struck out. Ganley put one to the right field fence for three bases, scoring Warner. Schlafly struck out. ONE RUN.

Perrine threw out Conroy and Elberfeld expired on a weak grounder to Patten. Perrine dug Chase's grass cutter out of the dirt and retired him on a beautiful throw. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Doyle's throw to Chase beat Cross to the bag. Anderson struck out again, the crowd howling with delight. Altizer lined out to Elberfeld, the "Kid" making a complete somersault but holding fast to the ball. NO RUNS.

Laporte banged a long drive against the left field fence for two passes. Williams fled to Ganley, Laporte taking third. Moriarty flied to Schlafly. Kleinow also fled to Ganley. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Hickman struck out and again there were moans. Perrine drove a long fly to Hoffman. The wind made Moriarty miss Warner's long fly and he went to first. Patten struck out. NO RUNS.

Doyle went out on a grounder to Perrine and Hoffman's bounder fell squarely into Patten's hands. He also was out at first. Cross's throw to Hickman disposed of Conroy. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Ganley was out on a grounder to Williams. Elberfeld got Schlafly's high one notwithstanding the wind, which twisted the ball. Williams got Cross's fly to left. NO RUNS.

Elberfeld's short one to Patten was his undoing at first. Chase went out over the same route. Laporte sent a long one to right which netted him but one base. Williams's grounder to Cross forced Laporte at second. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Anderson was hit on the leg by a pitched ball and took first. On the hit and run play, Anderson went to second and Altizer poked the ball through the vacant spot left by Williams, making a home run. Hickman bunted safely, filling the bases. Perrine bounded to Laporte, forcing Anderson out at the plate. Laporte to Kleinow. Warner fouled out to Laporte. Patton slammed a two-bagger into deep right, clearing up the bases, scoring Altizer and Hickman and Perrine. Doyle threw out Ganley, retiring the side. THREE RUNS.

Perrine threw out Moriarty. Ganley got under Kleinow's fly to right. Schlafly dropped Doyle's fly, which the wind played antics with. Hoffman grounded out to Hickman. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Schlafly hunted towards Laporte and beat it. On a wild pitch Schlafly took second. Cross singled over second, scoring Schlafly. Anderson hit into a double play, Doyle to Elberfeld, to Chase. Altizer singled to right. Altizer stole second. Doyle got Hickman's hot one and threw him out to Chase. ONE RUN.

Schlafly, on account of a kink, was out out of the game and Nill took his place at second. Conroy flied to Perrine. The wind twisted the ball from Hickman's reach and the Kid was safe. Chase's grounder to short forced Elberfeld at second. Perrine to Nill. Laporte forced Chase out in the same way. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

Perrine laced a line drive straight at Elberfeld and he was out. Warner singled past Doyle. Patton sacrificed to Doyle, sending Warner to second. Ganley flied to Hoffman. NO RUNS.

Cross's throw to Hickman got Williams. Moriarty struck out. Kleinow flied out to Perrine. NO RUNS.

POLICE THINK THEY HAVE CLUE TO MISSING GIRL

Detectives Hurried Off to the Upper End of Manhattan.

Capt. Kreuscher, of the West One Hundred and Fifty-second street station, reported late this afternoon that his detectives had discovered a clue to the whereabouts of fourteen-year-old Elizabeth Grady, who disappeared from the old Nolan mansion last Saturday. The Inspector, with two of his best men, hurriedly left his headquarters in the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station and started for the upper end of Manhattan.

Secrecy was observed about the clue. It is believed that the detectives who have been at work on the case suspect a gang of Italian laborers at work on a new street paralleling Broadway in the vicinity of the C. K. O. Billings place. These laborers live in shanties in the neighborhood and the little Grady girl was last seen in the vicinity of the shanty settlement.
