COREY GIVES HIS BRIDE $1,000,000 IN SECURITIES

It Has Cost Steel Magnate $6,000,000 to Prepare for Wedding.

A $5,000 FEAST TO-NIGHT.

May Precede Ceremony to Avoid the Unlucky Thirteenth.

William E. Corey transferred $1,000,000 to Mabelle Gilman to-day as a wedding gift. This great fortune is in the shape of railroad, United States Steel and bank stocks and bonds. The transfer of the property is absolute and it stands in Miss Gilman's name.

A lawyer acting for Mr. Corey and the officers of a Nassau street trust company took care of the legal and business forms connected with the gift, which is in addition to all the presents Mr. Corey has made his fiancee since they became engaged.

Added to what he gave his wife when she divorced him and what he has given his parents to reconcile them to the match Mr. Corey has paid out in the neighborhood of $3,000,000 because of his love for the former chorus girl.

Bride Meets Corey's Relatives.

Several members of the Corey family met Miss Gilman for the first time at the Hotel Gotham at luncheon today. The wedding has created a furore in the big establishment. Lecturers on the rubberneck wagons passing up and down Fifth avenue point out the Gotham as the place where Miss Gilman is to wed the steel magnate. Capt. Lantry of the East Fifty-first Street Station, is prepared to send his reserves to Fifty-fifth street and Fifth avenue in case the great crowd of curiosity seekers that is expected materializes.

It was stated on good authority this afternoon that the wedding ceremony will be performed by Rev. Henry Marsh Warren, the "hotel chaplain." Mr. Warren and his wife avoided their home to-day and could not be found elsewhere. A servant in the house said that the minister had been engaged to perform a marriage ceremony at a big hotel to-night. It is reported that the fee is a check for $500.

Invitations were sent out by Mr. Corey and Miss Gilman to twenty-five persons, but two of them have sent regrets and will not see the ceremony to-night. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Corey, father and mother of the Steel man, have left Pittsburg for this city and are said to be in Brooklyn to-day with their daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Riggs; while Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thomas, the latter the sister of Miss Gilman, are also here. Mr. Thomas holds a paying place with the Steel Trust, having been hired and

DANDELION EASILY WINS THE HANDICAP

(Special to The Evening World.)

BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK, May 13.—The handicap that came fifth on the card and was the event of the day resulted in a first-class race, and proved that when you come to talk about the winners of the classics during the year you will have to pay particular attention to Dandelion. Good Luck was the favorite for the race, but Dandelion carried fully as much money. John Madden sent the Hitchcock horse to the post in the pink of condition, and at the end he had a whole lot on all the others. Nealon, running true and strong, just beat out Red Friar for the place. Frank Gill was left at the post.

Zienap Won the First.

It was a surprise party for the majority at the track to-day when the first race was won by a long shot. Zienap, reported recently to be in grand shape and repeatedly scratched of late waiting evidently for just the opening which the initial event to-day presented. It meant meeting as adversaries the once great mare Tanya, from the Whitney barns, and the clever filly King's Daughter, from the McDowell stable. Tanya proved a small quantity in the actual running, although a pronounced favorite at every stage of the betting. King's Daughter, with Zienap and the Belle of Pequest and Tanya, also making a good start, made the running to the head of the stretch, where Tanya, now palpably unfit and not within pounds of her best racing trim, fell back beaten. Belle of Pequest, King's Daughter and Zienap led in that order to the stretch, when Zienap drew away, winning in a drive from King's Daughter, who beat the Belle of Pequest by a half a length. Tanya finished absolutely last, even trailing behind the rank outsider, La Londe.

Marbles Lost Rider.

Marbles won the second race—at least the filly finished first ahead of the field of nineteen horses which went to the post, but she lost her rider, Garner, who did not appear to suffer after the fall, and, coming along on her own courage, galloped in ahead of the flying and unwieldy field. Minnie G., from the lucky Schreiber stable, was next to come home, and having her full equipment, got first money. Senator Beckham was second over Biskra, third. Etta Louise was left at the post. The start was poor, and it was "anybody's race" after the youngsters headed for the goal.

Dinna Ken Spoiled Coup.

Lad of Langdon, owned by W. W. Darden, came within an ace of landing the coup of the day. The gelding finished a resolute second in the third race for maiden three-year-olds, making his run in the final sixteenth and easily landing second. Mr Darden and his friends wagered hundreds on the gelding to win place and show, getting as good as 40 to 1 in the betting. Dinna Ken, highly tried, won the race from the Lad, skyrocketing through the stretch and outfooting the others cleverly. Jennie Wells was just as easily third, but stopping toward the end.

Transvaal a Winner.

The grand-stand and betting-ring regarded the Maiden Stakes only as a betting privilege, and McGregor, owned by F. A. Forsythe, was installed favorite. It was not good work that gave him the preference, but there was one vital point the public failed to take into consideration. Transvaal, the Keene entry, had been trained over the straight course at Belmont, and Transvaal won, much to the joy of the Millerites and the Keene stable followers. In Transvaal's performances at Jamaica the colt encountered short turns. This the wise ones took into consideration, including the club-house contingent, and when the colt, with Miller up, came home a-flying it was a vindication of the judgment of the wise coterie.

The Transvaal race saw as owners of the entrants R. T. Wilson, jr., P. J. Dwyer, the Oneck Stable, R. L. Thomas, H. P. Whitney and others. The candidates got off in swinging stride with Transvaal always prominent. In the stretch Transvaal was two lengths to the good, with Miller taking no chances. Alauda, started in preference to Sanguine, finished second, with the highly lauded McGregor third.

Water Tank Wins Sixth.

Water Tank took them all into camp in the final and he won like a good one. Rye, played by the Sullivans, made the running only to collapse in the stretch. Chief Hayes showed improvement, running second and Savable out-gamed Rye for third place. It was a bad day for the Rye followers.

M'GINNITY SHUTS OUT REDS, GIANTS WIN 12 INNING GAME; HIGHLANDERS BEAT NAPS

Remarkable Contest of Pitchers at the Polo Grounds Arouses Tremendous Enthusiasm Among Local Fans.

(Special to The Evening World.)

POLO GROUNDS, May 13.—The Giants began their opening game against Cincinnati this afternoon, with McGann back on first and Bowerman in his old place behind the bat. Feeling that McGinnity's bad showing against Pittsburg Saturday was merely a fluke of luck, McGraw shot him right back at the Reds.

The Cincinnati management picked out Mason, a new comer, to stop the long winning streak of the Giants.

Batters could do nothing with the Iron Man at the start, and McGraw and his men settled down to their work before a crowd of 8,000 fans.

First Inning.

Huggins started off by striking out. Hane sent a long fly to Seymour, who went to left centre for out. Davis also did the strike-out act. NO RUNS.

Shannon sent a fly to Mitchell. Strang had patience and walked. Mason threw out Devlin, advancing Strang. Seymour disappointed the fans by striking out. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Lobert singled to centre. McLean hit squarely into a double play, Corcoran to Dahlen to McGann. Mitchell went out trying to bunt, the last one being a foul. NO RUNS.

Bowerman bounced a single off Kane's knee. McGann was allowed to walk. Dahlen made a pretty sacrifice to Mason, advancing Bowerman and McGann. Corcoran went out on a short fly to Odwell. McGinnity fouled out to Schlei. NO RUNS.

Lebert threw out Shannon after making a pretty stop. Strang struck out. Devlin walked, and stole second. Seymour also walked. Bowerman did the strike-out act. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Huggins plugged a two-bagger into left. Kane sacrificed to McGinnity, advancing Huggins to third. Davis hit to Corcoran, who threw to Bowerman and Huggins was run down between third and home. Corcoran to Bowerman, to Devlin, to McGinnity. In the mean time Davis got to second. Lobert flied out to Shannon. NO RUNS.

McGann drove a hot single into left, but Dahlen was robbed of a screeching drive to left, which Mitchell caught a foot from the ground. Corcoran lined out to Odwell, who threw to McLean in time to double up McGann. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

McGinnity threw out McLean. Mitchell went out on strikes. Odwell singled to deep right. Schlei popped out to McGann. NO RUNS.

McGinnity flied out to Lobert. Shannon singled over Lobert's head. Huggins made a beautiful run, and with his right hand pulled down Strang's Texas Leaguer. Devlin struck out. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Corcoran threw out Mason. Huggins went out on a bunted strikes. Kane struck out. NO RUNS.

Seymour walked. Bowerman hit into a double play, Mason to Huggins to McLean. Odwell came in and got McGann's short fly. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Dahlen fumbled Davis's grounder and Lobert advanced him with a sacrifice to McGinnity. Devlin threw out McLean and Mitchell popped out to Corcoran. NO RUNS.

Schlei and Kane collided in catching Dahlen's fly, but Schlei held the ball. Corcoran flied out to Kane. Odwell made a great running catch of McGinnity's long foul. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Corcoran threw out Odwell. McGinnity threw out Schlei. Corcoran threw out Mason. NO RUNS.

Shannon flied out to Odwell. Kane got Strang's boost. Devlin struck out. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

Huggins dropped a bunt in front of the plate and beat it. Kane sacrificed to McGinnity. Davis got a pass. Lobert flied to Strang and Huggins went to third. McLean flied to Strang. NO RUNS.

Seymour popped out to Huggins. Bowerman flied to Odwell. Davis came in and got McGann's fly. NO RUNS.

Tenth Inning.

Mitchell struck out. Odwell flied to McGann. Corcoran got Schlei's fly. NO RUNS.

Kane threw out Dahlen. Corcoran singled to right. McGinnity sacrificed to Kane, advancing Corcoran to second. Lobert threw out Shannon. NO RUNS.

Eleventh Inning.

Mayson flied to Seymour. Huggins struck out. Kane also struck out. NO RUNS.

Strang flied to Davis. Kane threw out Devlin. Seymour flied to Davis. NO RUNS.

Twelfth Inning.

Davis flied to Strang. Lobert went out on a grounder to Dahlen. Dahlen also threw out McLean. NO RUNS.

Bowerman singled to left. McGann sacrificed to Mason. Dahlen's single was too hot for Mason and Bill got his ankle while Bowerman took third. The ball hit Mason in the groin and he was laid out for several minutes. Play was suspended, while all the players surrounded him. In a few minutes Corcoran made a safe bunt, scoring Bowerman and winning the game. ONE RUN.
